Peters, 2023-10-12 This book considers the relationship between sound and silence in the works of Joseph Conrad along with their ties to Western and non Western space Throughout Conrad's works a pattern emerges where Western space is associated with sound and non

Western space is associated with silence similarly Western space is portrayed as full of objects and activity whereas non Western space is portrayed as empty As these tales progress though Conrad s characters embark on transformational journeys that cause them to reassess the world they live in and sometimes even the nature of the universe These journeys invariably occur through encountering non Western space and during the course of these journeys the dichotomy between Western space perceived as replete with sound and activity and non Western space empty of such blurs such that the fullness of the West is revealed to be simply a surface hiding the emptiness beneath In the end both Western and non Western space are revealed to be absences as the absence of sound becomes a correlative for the emptiness of space and the emptiness of space becomes a metonym for the cosmological emptiness of nothingness

Conrad's Fiction as Critical Discourse Richard Ambrosini,1991-07-26 Joseph Conrad s comments about his works have commonly been dismissed as theoretically unsophisticated while the critical notions of James Woolf and Joyce have come to shape our understanding of the modern novel Richard Ambrosini s study of Conrad s Fiction as Critical Discourse makes an original claim for the importance of his theoretical ideas as they are formed tested and eventually redefined in Heart of Darkness and Lord Jim Setting the narrator s discourse in these tales in the context of the dynamic interplay of Conrad s fictional with his non fictional writings and of the transformations in his narrative forms Ambrosini defines Conrad s view of fiction and the artistic ideal underlying his commitment as a writer in a new and challenging way Conrad s innovatory techniques as a novelist are shown in the continuity of his theoretical enterprise from the early search for an artistic prose and a personal novel form to the later dislocations of perspective achieved by manipulation of conventions drawn from popular fiction This reassessment of Conrad s critical thought offers a new perspective on the transition from the Victorian novel to contemporary fiction

Dryden, 1999-11-24 Linda Dryden places Almayer's Folly An Outcast of the Islands Karain and Lord Jim in the context of the nineteenth century imperial romance Through the thwarted dreams and aspirations of his central characters she argues that Conrad exposes the empty promises of such fiction and challenges assumptions about the superiority of European imperialists and the imperial venture itself Using illustrations from and references to many well known novels of Empire Dryden demonstrates how Conrad's Malay fiction alludes to the conventions and stereotypes of popular imperial fiction

Achieving Autobiographical Form Nicholas Meihuizen, 2016-01-27 In Achieving Autobiographical Form Nicholas Meihuizen argues that significant autobiographies achieve significant forms peculiar to themselves alone Form he argues is not accidental or merely functional The author arrives at a form through a careful negotiation between the self's immersion in its world and its ability to distance itself from this world The quality of the resultant self scrutiny enables the author to transform everyday reflex into the act of attention that results in formal achievement a uniquely crafted structure Meihuizen's book helps demonstrate how each piece of autobiographical writing under consideration in it works by Yeats Conrad Martin Amis Frank Kermode Andrew Motion Roy Campbell Richard Murphy and J M Coetzee discovers a unique form A Traveller's Year, 2015-10-01 A collection of anecdotes for each day of the year on the subject of travel and exploration from Charles Darwin Michael Palin Evelyn Waugh and others With an emphasis on the period 1750-1950 the classic era of both European exploration and diary writing this anthology features excerpts that convey men and women's experiences of travel and discovery from the sixteenth to the early twenty first centuries The authors of the pieces range from famous explorers such as Captains Cook and Scott to modern travel writers journeying through the contemporary world from people who pushed back the boundaries of geographical knowledge to people who wrote about what they did on their summer holidays The book includes an introduction explanatory notes and mini biographies of all the contributors including Gertrude Bell woman traveller in the Middle East James Boswell travels in Scotland and the Hebrides William Cobbett Rural Rides through England Christopher Columbus journals of his voyages to America Charles Darwin Voyage of the Beagle Captain James Cook

Work, Inheritance, and Deserts in Joseph Conrad's Fiction Evelyn Tsz Yan Chan, 2022-08-19 This book focuses on the complex relationships between inheritance work and desert in literature It shows how from its manifestation in the trope of material inheritance and legacy in Victorian fiction inheritance gradually took on additional more modern meanings in Joseph Conrad's fiction on work and self making In effect the emphasis on inheritance as referring to social rank and wealth acquired through birth shifted to a focus on talent ability and merit often expressed through work The book explores how Conrad's fiction engaged with these changing modes of inheritance and work and the resulting claims of desert they led to Uniquely it argues that Conrad's fiction critiques claims of desert arising from both work and inheritance while also vividly portraying the emotional costs and existential angst that these beliefs in desert entailed The argument speaks to and illuminates today's debates on moral desert arising from work and inheritance in particular from meritocratic ideals Its new approach to Conrad's works will appeal to students and scholars of Conrad and literary modernism as well as a wider audience interested in philosophical and social debates on desert deriving from inheritance and work
