Lords Supper Is A Celebration Of Grace:

Herbert Thorndike and the Restoration of the Church of England Brian Douglas, 2025-08-28 The Caroline theologian Herbert Thorndike 1598 1672 was significant before and after the seventeenth century Restoration of the Church of England Thorndike's theological methodology engaged with ecclesiology the government and ministry of the Church of England the Eucharist and the Book of Common Prayer This book features Thorndike's significant reflection on eucharistic theology based on ancient realist models but recast for the present The book argues that Thorndike's theological methodology was useful in its own time but also has currency for Anglican and ecumenical theology discourse particularly in relation to ecclesiology eucharistic theology and liturgical theology and practice

The Eucharist as Offering of Firstfruits Lawrence Francis Ligocki, 2017-06-04 One of the difficulties for Protestant Evangelical Pentecostal and other Christians is how to understand the Eucharist as sacrifice offering and oblation A return to ancient Jewish and Christian sources has uncovered the category of the offering of firstfruits This is found in a lesser degree among Second Temple Judaism and to a greater degree in early Christian literature beginning with the New Testament itself This has brought renewed interest in understanding the Eucharist not only in the context of the Feast of Passover but also in light of the Feast of Pentecost and the offering of firstfruits and within the context of the Zebach t d that is the sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving This has strong implications for a theological liturgical spiritual and practical awakening in understanding the Eucharist as Sacrifice In the Eucharist the Church offers the firstfruits of creation Christ and also herself to the Father in the Holy Spirit Each member is called to actively participate in the Eucharistic sacrifice through which they themselves become a Holy and Living sacrifice for the life of the world This has implications for a renewed Eucharistic spirituality and worship the New Evangelization and new works of mercy

Like a Mighty Army David W Taylor, 2015-02-26 In 1937 prior to the 1948 inauguration of the World Council of Churches Karl Barth challenged the churches to engage in real strict sober genuine theology in order that the unity of the church might be visibly realized At that time The Salvation Army didn't aspire to become formally known as a church even though it was a founding member of the WCC Today it is globally known as a social welfare organization concerned especially to serve the needs of those who find themselves at the margins of society Less well known is that seventy years after Barth's challenge it has made its peace with the view that it is a church denomination Accepting Barth's challenge to the churches and in dialogue with his own ecumenical ecclesiology the concept of the church as an Army is interrogated in service to The Salvation Army's developing understanding of its identity and to the visible unity of God's church

Gift and Promise Peter Schmiechen, 2016-12-09 What would happen if the liturgy for the Lord's Supper started with the images in the New Testament rather than the divisions of our past It would be like going through an open door into a new world There we would find a new Passover celebration a new covenant and remembrance and proclamation of Jesus' death and resurrection all in the context of the kingdom of God It would be an evangelical Lord's Supper This is a high risk operation given the reliance by many on transactional sacrifice and the tendency to reduce the Supper to a sacrament of penance for individuals Ideas rejected by Luther and Calvin now reappear even among Protestants The goal cannot be reached by subtracting a few things and adding references to eschatology and joy The good news is that many churches have already taken steps to reform their liturgies To support that process here is a clear and consistent evangelical perspective based on the theology and biblical considerations that have formed our faith and practice The Spirit of the Reformation Frank Ciampa,2007

Systematic Theology Louis Berkhof,1949-01-01 Now that my Systematic Theology is again being reprinted the Preface can be very brief It is not necessary to say much about the nature of the work since it has been before the public for more than fifteen years and has been used extensively I have every reason to be grateful for its kind reception for the favorable testimony of many reviewers and for the fact that the book is now used as a textbook in many Theological Seminaries and Bible Schools in our country and that requests were even received from abroad for permission to translate it into other languages These are blessings which I had not anticipated and for which I am deeply grateful to God To Him be all the honor And if the work may continue to be a blessing in many sections of the Church of Jesus Christ it will but increase my recognition of the abundant grace of God Renewal Theology John Rodman Williams,1996 Renewal Theology deals with the full range of Christian truth from within the charismatic tradition Previously published as three separate volumes Renewal Theology represents the first exhaustive balanced articulation of charismatic theology Renewal Theology discusses Book One God the World and Redemption Book Two Salvation the Holy Spirit and Christian Living Book Three The Church the Kingdom and Last Things As theology this work is an intellectual achievement But it is much more than that The author urges the church to undertake its task of theology in the proper spirit an attitude of prayer a deepening sense of reverence an ever increasing purity of heart a spirit of growing love a theological approach rooted in the glory of God Done in such a spirit theology becomes a faithful and powerful witness to the living God
