Loretta Young An Extraordinary Life:

Loretta Young Joe Morella, Edward Z. Epstein, 1987 Uncovers the true persona of the glamorous Hollywood star including her early years as a star struck actress her tempestuous private life and her years as the first major star to have a successful television series Hollywood Madonna Bernard F. Dick, 2025-05-15 Loretta Young 1913 2000 was an Academy Award winning actress known for devout Catholicism and her performances in The Farmer's Daughter The Bishop's Wife and Come to the Stable and for her long running and tremendously popular television series But that was not the whole story Hollywood Madonna explores the full saga of Loretta Young's professional and personal life She made her film debut at age four became a star at fifteen and many awards and accolades later made her final television movie at age seventy six This biography withholds none of the details of her affair with Clark Gable and the daughter that powerful love produced Bernard F. Dick places Young's affair in the proper context of the time and the choices available to women in 1935 especially a noted Catholic like Young whose career would have been in ruins if the public knew of her tryst With the birth of a daughter who would have been branded a love child Loretta Young reached the crossroads of disclosure and deception choosing the latter path That choice resulted in an illustrious career for her and a tortured childhood for her daughter Orry Kelly, Miss Weston's Protégé Robert Parkinson, 2017-10-16 Orry Kelly Miss Weston's Protégé tells the incredible story of one of Hollywood's greatest designers Using never before seen materials photographs and letters Robert Parkinson has compiled years of research into one of the most detailed accounts of Orry Kelly's history Born in Kiama in December 1897 Orry Kelly moved to Sydney as a young man to seek a theatrical career and to study painting Though unsuccessful on the stage he could not be dissuaded from his dream of stage fame Eleanor Weston a well known Kiama businesswoman encouraged Kelly to move to the US where he found his calling designing scenes and costume for film television and the stage Over the course of his career Orry Kelly worked for all of the major studios including Warner Brothers Paramount and Fox dressing many of the well known female stars in some 312 films Though always widely renowned in Hollywood Kelly did not gain his fame in Australia until after his death in 1964 As biographies of movie stars began to appear in the 1980s his fashion styling and costume design came to be highly regarded and worthy of study across several universities and colleges The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr Television: A Biography David Thomson, 2017-03-28 The invention or the quaint piece of furniture wandered into our lives in the 1940s as a primitive plaything a clever if awkward addition to the household It was expensive unreliable and a bit of an invalid Television A

Biography In just a few years what used to be an immobile piece of living room furniture which one had to sit in front of at appointed times in order to watch sponsored programming on a finite number of channels morphed into a glowing cloud of screens with access to a near endless supply of content available when and how viewers want it With this phenomenon now a common cultural theme a writer of David Thomson's stature delivering a critical history or biography of the six decade television era will be a significant event which could not be more timely With Television the critic and film historian who wrote what Sight and Sound's readers called the most important film book of the last 50 years has finally turned his unique powers of observation to the medium that has swallowed film whole Over twenty two thematically organized chapters Thomson brings his provocatively insightful and unique voice to the life of what was television David Thomson surveying a Boschian landscape illuminated by that singular glow always on and peopled by everyone from Donna Reed to Dennis Potter will be the first complete history of the defining medium of our time

Recycled Stars Mary R. Desjardins, 2015-04-26 The popularity of television in postwar suburban America had a devastating effect on the traditional Hollywood studio system Yet many aging Hollywood stars used television to revive their fading careers In Recycled Stars Mary R. Desjardins examines the recirculation ownership and control of female film stars and their images in television print and new media Female stardom she argues is central to understanding both the anxieties and the pleasures that these figures evoke in their audiences psyches through patterns of fame decline and return From Gloria Swanson Loretta Young Ida Lupino and Lucille Ball who found new careers in early television to Maureen O'Hara's high profile 1957 lawsuit against the scandal magazine Confidential to the reappropriation of iconic star images by experimental filmmakers video artists and fans this book explores the contours of female stars' resilience as they struggled to create new contexts for their waning images across emerging media
