The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing Aleix Tura Vecino, 2025-08-14 Hundreds of anthologies of women's short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo In doing so the book also develops the first book length conceptualisation of the features and meaning making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women's studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide

Aftermath Radix Media (Firm), 2018 Aftermath Explorations of Loss Grief is an anthology that weaves together a broad collection of voices to illustrate the many forms of loss The topics range from the inevitable breakdown of a relationship to an immigrant family struggling to retain their culture as they attempt to assimilate In their interpretation of the book's theme the selected stories run the spectrum from heartfelt raw and powerful to lighter and humorous This body of work reveals how despite the differences of our day to day lives we are all connected It was named a Bronze Winner 2018 Foreword INDIES Book of the Year Awards The Art of Losing Kevin Young,2013-11-05 Poems about the various stages of grief with 150 selections from a variety of 20th 21st century poets Finding Purple America Jon Smith,2013-05-01 The new southern studies has had an uneasy relationship with both American studies and the old southern studies In Finding Purple America Jon Smith one of the founders of the new movement locates the source of that unease in the fundamentally antimodern fantasies of both older fields The old southern studies tends to view modernity as a threat to a mystic southern essence a dangerous outside force taking the form of everything from a bulldozer revolution to a national project of forgetting Since the rise of the New Americanists American studies has also imagined itself to be in a permanent crisis mode seeking to affiliate the field and the national essence with youth countercultures that sixties leftists once imagined to be the future Such fantasies Smith argues have resulted in an old southern studies that cannot understand places like Birmingham or Atlanta or cities at all and an American studies that cannot understand red states Most Americans live in neither a comforting premodern Mayberry nor an exciting postmodern Los Angeles but rather in what postcolonialists call alternative modernities and hybrid cultures whose relationships to past and future to stability and change are complex and ambivalent Looking at how the South has played in global metropolitan pop culture since the nineties and at how southern popular and high culture alike have in fact repeatedly embraced urban modernity Smith masterfully weaves together postcolonial theory cultural studies Lacanian psychoanalysis and surprisingly marketing theory to open up the inconveniently in between purple spaces and places that Americanist and southernist fantasies about who we are have so long sought to foreclose

following the loss of a loved one Example Poem from this Anthology
 A Castaway
 Dark clouds of despair rolling above
 Obscures the peak of mount melancholy
 Surrounded by a rough sea of sadness
 Waves of woe crashing all over me
 Where is this place i have landed
 A castaway in a far off land
 Beaches of gloom and misery
 Great sorrow in each grain of sand
 I really need to escape here
 Build a raft from my dreams and hopes
 Leave unhappiness there on the shoreline
 And break free of these heavy heart ropes
 Depression is no laughing matter
 Dejection is not a great show
 But no blast of darkness can block out the light
 Just one match can make a room glow

Three Is Not A Crowd Lily Velden, 2015-09-18
 Why would anyone think three was a crowd
 No No No No No Three is a triangle and did you know it s the strongest geometrical shape
 All the best things come in threes
 Muskateers primary colors three ringed circuses stooges blind mice little pigs
 The list goes on Of course they say trouble comes in three too but we won t go there or will we giggle
 There s three sheets to the wind And sigh drool there s three piece suits
 And trust us it s no coincidence that there are three ingredients in a BLT
 Or only three elements to the game Rock Paper Scissors
 Want to get physical Well there s three legged races what were you thinking
 Political Of the people by the people for the people Or creepy Hear no evil Speak no evil See no evil
 Why three has so much going for it we don t even need to mention a 1 2 3 sandwich substitute your own dream guys And of course there s On your Mark Get Set And Go
 So Go Read the short stories in THREE IS NOT A CROWD Stories Included

Lost Property Jennifer Summit,2000-07 The English literary canon is haunted by the figure of the lost woman writer In our own age she has been a powerful stimulus for the rediscovery of works written by women But as Jennifer Summit argues the lost woman writer also served as an evocative symbol during the very formation of an English literary tradition from the fourteenth through the sixteenth centuries Lost Property traces the representation of women writers from Margery Kempe and Christine de Pizan to Elizabeth I and Mary Queen of Scots exploring how the woman writer became a focal point for emerging theories of literature and authorship in English precisely because of her perceived alienation from tradition Through original archival research and readings of key literary texts Summit writes a new history of the woman writer that reflects the impact of such developments as the introduction of printing the Reformation and the rise of the English court as a literary center A major rethinking of the place of women writers in the histories of books authorship and canon formation Lost Property demonstrates that rather than being an unimaginable anomaly the idea of the woman writer played a key role in the invention of English literature
