Lost Traveler:

The God Who Believes Christian D. Kettler, 2005-09-01 How does one deal with doubt Are faith and doubt irreconcilable Does one's understanding of God affect the answers to these questions Christian Kettler investigates these questions from a christological perspective drawing implications from the Scottish theologian T F Torrance and his doctrine of the vicarious humanity of Christ If we take the humanity of Christ seriously should we not speak of the faith of Jesus as a vicarious faith believing for us and in our place when it is difficult if not impossible to believe How Christians know God Jesus Knows God for Us and in Our Place who God is Who is the God Whom Jesus Knows and how to believe in God in a world of suffering and evil Providence Evil Suffering and the God Who Believes receive new insight in light of this christological exploration Wendell Berry's poignant novel of a humble country barber Jayber Crow adds an incarnational context to a discussion with important pastoral and existential dimensions In the vicarious faith of Christ we are not left as James Torrance cautions us to be thrown back upon ourselves but called to participate by the Spirit in the faith of Jesus The Safe Travel Book Peter Savage, 1999-02-04 No descriptive material is available for this title Anthology 2009-2010 Matthew Norsworthy,

The Fetishists Ibrahim al-Koni, 2019-01-04 The Fetishists originally published in Arabic as Al Majus is considered the masterpiece of Ibrahim al Koni one of the most prolific and important writers in Arabic today In The Fetishists Al Koni explores what happens when a writer asks the novel to speak of and for the Sahara when rival cultures clash and when communities seek to build a utopia on Earth as individuals struggle between a desire for material well being represented by gold dust and a need for spiritual meaning As the story opens Sultan Oragh of Timbuktu who has already lost most of his power to Fetishist Bambara leaders of the forestlands fears he will lose his only daughter Tenere as a human sacrifice to their god Amnay The sultan sends Tenere to seek refuge with fellow Tuareg nomads in the plain But even in their traditional nomadic community a competition rages between jihadi militant Islam moderate Anhi Islam which is the ancient Tuareg Law and the cults of gold dust and of traditional African folk religions In this epic novel Al Koni blends Tuareg folklore and history with intense fond descriptions of daily life in the desert creating a mirror for life anywhere Through its tragic rendering of a clash between the Tuareg and traditional African civilizations the novel profoundly probes the contradictions of the human soul as it takes the reader on a unique spiritual adventure inside the Tuareg world The Lost Traveler Sanora Babb, 1958

Riding Like the Wind Iris Jamahl Dunkle, 2024-10-15 This absorbing biography written with both affection and admiration shows Babb as one of the most indefatigable characters in American literary history The New Republic This saga of a writer done dirty resurrects the silenced voice of Sanora Babb peerless author of midcentury American literature In 1939 when John Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath was published it became an instant bestseller and a prevailing narrative in the nation's collective imagination of the era But it also stopped the publication of another important novel silencing a gifted writer who was more intimately connected to the true experiences of Dust Bowl migrants In Riding Like the Wind renowned biographer

Iris Jamahl Dunkle revives the groundbreaking voice of Sanora Babb Dunkle follows Babb from her impoverished childhood in eastern Colorado to California There she befriended the era s literati including Ray Bradbury and Ralph Ellison entered into an illegal marriage and was blacklisted by the House Un American Activities Committee It was Babb s field notes and oral histories of migrant farmworkers that Steinbeck relied on to write his novel But this is not merely a saga of literary usurping on her own merits Babb s impact was profound Her life and work feature heavily in Ken Burns s award winning documentary The Dust Bowl and inspired Kristin Hannah in her bestseller The Four Winds Riding Like the Wind reminds us with fresh awareness that the stories we know and who tells them can change the way we remember history Unknown No More Joanne Dearcopp,Christine Hill Smith,2021-07-29 Thanks in part to the Ken Burns documentary The Dust Bowl Sanora Babb is perhaps best known today for her novel Whose Names Are Unknown 2004 which might have been published in 1939 had her publisher not thought the market too small for two Dust Bowl novels hers and Steinbeck s The Grapes of Wrath Into the twenty first century Babb wrote and published lyrical prose and poetry that revealed her prescient ideas about gender race and the environment The essays collected in Unknown No More recover and analyze her previously unrecognized contributions to American letters Editors Joanne Dearcopp and Christine Hill Smith have assembled a group of distinguished scholars who for the first time in book length form explore the life and work of Sanora Babb This collection of pathbreaking essays addresses Babb s position within the literature of the Great Plains and American West her leftist political odyssey as a card carrying Communist who ultimately broke with the Party and her ecofeminist leanings as reflected in the environmental themes she explored in her fiction and nonfiction With literary sensibilities reminiscent of Willa Cather Ralph Ellison and Meridel LeSueur Babb s work revealed gender based environmental and working class injustices from the Depression era to the late twentieth century No longer unknown Sanora Babb s life and work form a prism through which the peril and promise of twentieth century America may be seen The New Earth Reader David Rothenberg,Marta Ulvaeus,1999 This is a collection of the best essays stories and interviews from Terra Nova the cutting edge literary journal It explores the complex and multifarious ways humanity is loose in the natural world Find out who really wrote the famous Chief Seattle speech Read why Jaron Lanier wants to turn us all into giant squid so we can talk to one another without language Rick Bass travels to the country with the most grizzly bears per square mile Romania Gary Nabhan dreams of raven stew Val Plumwood is half swallowed by a crocodile and lives to tell the tale and affirm her vegetarianism Charles Bowden enters Tuna Country in Mexico and struggles to find his way back across the border Ray Isle fights with a wild turkey see who wins And find out why filmmaker Errol Morris thinks that human dreamers are the most endangered species around
