The Art and Politics of Asger Jorn Karen Kurczynski, 2017-07-05 A leading figure of the postwar avant garde Danish artist Asger Jorn has long been recognized for his founding contributions to the Cobra and Situationist International movements yet art historical scholarship on Jorn has been sparse particularly in English This study corrects that imbalance offering a synthetic account of the essential phases of this prolific artist s career It addresses his works in various media alongside his extensive writings and his collaborations with various artists groups from the 1940s through the mid 1960s Situating Jorn s work in an international post Second World War context Karen Kurczynski reframes our understanding of the 1950s away from the Abstract Expressionist focus on individual expression toward a more open ended conception of art as a public engagement with contemporary culture and politics Kurczynski engages with issues of interest to twenty first century artists and scholars highlighting Jorn s proposition that the sensory address of art and its complex relationship to popular media can have a direct social impact Perhaps most significantly this study foregrounds Jorn s assertion that creativity is crucial to subjectivity itself in our increasingly mediated Society of the Spectacle

From Folk Art to Modern Design in Ceramics Edna Mitchell, Robert Anderson, 2010-12-16 From the dusty workshops of village potters to the pristine assembly lines of modern factories from the makers of pottery to the producers of porcelain in selected areas of Mexico and Denmark the authors observed interviewed and photographed ceramic artists at their work The result is a story of persistence inspiration collaboration and intrigue success and failure along with individual eccentricities in the process of making ceramic art for an international market The story is not only that of the potters wheel but of the wheel of time over which the lowly village potter evolves as professional artist who eventually in some instances rejects making corporate porcelain in favor of returning to clay and kiln The Mexican communities are near Guadalajara The Danish settings include the towns of Naestved Srring the island of Bornholm and in Copenhagen the porcelain giants Royal Copenhagen and Bing and Grndahl contrasting large scale corporations with small pottery factories Researched in the 1970s the abandoned manuscript recently rediscovered appears here as written then with current material added to inform and update the historical ethnography providing a rare opportunity to follow up on people and predictions after thirty years to identify change decay and fulfillment
