Modern Rivals Of Christian Faith:

The Modern Rival of Christian Faith Georgia Elma Harkness,1952 The author says that there is no serious frontal attack on Christianity by atheism or communism but secularism which she defines as the organization of life as if God did not exist is the chief rival Modern Rivals to Christian Faith Cornelius Richard Loew,1956 Dictionary Of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook,2005-05-15 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought Forerunners and Rivals of Christianity F.

Legge,2014-12-04 Originally published in 1915 this book contains a survey of the origins of Christianity and the impact that other religions had on its formation Volume One covers pre Christian Gnosticism Orphic cults and the religions of Egypt and Persia in the Hellenistic period This book will be of value to anyone with an interest in ancient religion and the development of Christianity Forerunners and Rivals of Christianity Francis Legge,1964 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series

Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1957 Includes Part 1 Number 1 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January December Godly Reformers and Their Opponents in Early Modern England Matthew Reynolds,2005 Close examination of the divided religious life of Norwich in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries with wider implications for the country as a whole The Christian Century ,1924 Review of Theology &

Philosophy Allan Menzies,1907 Contains reviews abstracts and bibliography of the most recent theological and philosophical literature The Publishers Weekly ,1887 Forerunners and Rivals of Christianity Francis Legge,1915

The Future of God Carl E. Braaten,2016-10-19 A recent movement in modern religious thought believes that the place to start in theology is at the end eschatology At a critical time in history when many are unsure of the future of faith in a secular age here is a call for believers to participate in God s activity in the future tense The basic theme in these pages is the idea of the future in the language of Christian hope and in the interpretation of history The rediscovery of the role of eschatology in the preaching of Jesus and of early Christians says Dr Braaten has been one of the most important events of recent theological history Eschatology has not al ways been taken seriously Theologians have often defined it so that the dimension of the future was allowed to slip into an eternal present God was thus viewed only in vertical terms as being above us The author feels that this loss of hope in the future precipitated the crisis known as the death of God movement In this book Dr Braaten joins those thinkers who are looking to eschatology as a point of departure for a total recasting of the Christian message He presents a constructive and systematic outline of the theology of the future and puts forth an understanding of God shared with early Christianity as being ahead of us The thrust of this theology of the future is an ethic of revolutionary change derived from the Christian vision of the kingdom of God Christianity's eschatological faith is shown to be closely connected to the revolutionary concerns of the modern world both as the sponsor of its driving images and as a companion in the struggle for its realization The final chapter turns to an ethic of revolution based on the politics of hope Biblical

Origins of Modern Secular Culture Willis B. Glover,1984 Religion in Modern Life George Gottlob Hackman,Charles William Kegley,Viljo K. Nikander,1957 Astrology and Popular Religion in the Modern West Nicholas

Campion,2016-04-15 This book explores an area of contemporary religion spirituality and popular culture which has not so far been investigated in depth the phenomenon of astrology in the modern west Locating modern astrology historically and sociologically in its religious New Age and millenarian contexts Nicholas Campion considers astrology's relation to modernity and draws on extensive fieldwork and interviews with leading modern astrologers to present an invaluable contribution to our understanding of the origins and nature of New Age ideology This book challenges the notion that astrology is either marginal or a feature of postmodernism Concluding that astrology is more popular than the usual figures suggest Campion argues that modern astrology is largely shaped by New Age thought influenced by the European Millenarian tradition that it can be seen as an heir to classical Gnosticism and is part of the vernacular religion of the modern west The Christian

Certainty Amid the Modern Perplexity Alfred Ernest Garvie,1910 Pluralism in Islamic Contexts - Ethics, Politics and Modern Challenges Mohammed Hashas,2021-03-12 This book brings together international scholars of Islamic philosophy theology and politics to examine these current major questions What is the place of pluralism in the Islamic founding texts How have sacred and prophetic texts been interpreted throughout major Islamic intellectual history by the Sunnis and Shi'a How does contemporary Islamic thought treat religious and political diversity in modern nation states and in societies in transition How is pluralism dealt with in modern major and minor Islamic contexts How does modern political Islam deal with pluralism in the public sphere And what are the major internal and external challenges to pluralism in Islamic contexts These questions that have become of paramount relevance in religious studies especially during the last three four decades are answered as critically highlighted in Islamic founding sources the formative classical sources and how it has been lived and practiced in past and present Islamic majority societies and communities around the world Case studies cover Egypt Turkey Indonesia and Thailand besides various internal references to other contexts Christian Hope among Rivals Michael W. Zeigler,2017-08-29 Hope is a widespread if not a universal human experience For centuries followers of Jesus of Nazareth have ordered their lives around a central hope How is their experience similar to or different from others who live by hope This book seeks an answer in the idea that living by hope involves living within a peculiar story of the world an incomplete story The stories that shape these hopes are threatened by evil however it may be defined The hopeful struggle as characters caught up in plots that move toward resolution They exercise an as yet unverified hope that evil will not prevail In this regard the hope of Christians is similar to others Yet it is different because they wait for the God of Jesus to transform the world to match the promise he made to Abraham To arrive at this conclusion this book takes a detour through four model life organizing stories Christians and participants in other stories of the world may not agree on the ultimate ground for hope However taking a detour into the hopeful experience of another may help uncover a place where rivals can stand together long enough to talk
