Law Addressing

Diversity Gijs Kruijtzer, Thomas Ertl, 2017-09-25 Of late historians have been realising that South Asia and Europe have more in common than a particular strand in the historiography on the rise of the West would have us believe In both world regions a plurality of languages religions and types of belonging by birth was in premodern times matched by a plurality of legal systems and practices This volume describes case by case the points where law and social diversity intersected Muslim Enlightened Thought in South Asia Ayesha Jalal, 2024-09-18 Muslim Enlightened Thought in South Asia is an engaging history of the enlightened liberality of modern Muslim poets philosophers educationists novelists historians artists and public intellectuals who drew on a long Muslim intellectual tradition beyond the Western liberalism of empire Interpreting the pathbreaking contributions of an array of creative Muslim figures the book challenges the view portraying them as exemplars of an insular and defensive apologetic modernity It highlights a strand of Muslim thought and liberality of mind that has been ignored by scholars obsessed with dire and dour theologians This book questions both the presumptions of historians of liberalism that exclude Muslims from the domain of modern liberal thought and the predilections of those scholars of Islam who lean solely on discovering theological rigidity among ulama It analyzes the forces that have contributed to the narrowing of intellectual space since the late twentieth century and the resilience of expansive and enlightened ideas that have kept candles flickering in the enveloping darkness Foregrounding the enlightened conceptions of Ghalib Sayyid Ahmad Khan Iqbal and Sadequain on faith selfhood history and time and bringing other Muslim thinkers out of the shadows the book offers a nuanced reformulation of the meaning of religion for our challenging times It will be of interest to a wide readership interested in the history of Islam and South Asia Kashmir and the Future of South Asia Sugata Bose, Ayesha Jalal, 2020-12-29 This book uses an innovative people centered approach to the Kashmir problem to shed new light on why postcolonial partitions remain unfinished and why the wounds of postcolonial nation state formation in South Asia continue to fester Kashmir is viewed as a metaphor for the permanent internal wars of partition that mark the South Asian experience Chapters sensitively bring Kashmiri voices to the fore to examine Kashmir in the national discourses of India and Pakistan resistance in the Kashmiri imagination and the Kashmir conflict in a global context The book foregrounds how the space of Kashmir as a cultural historical and political sphere persists and continues to haunt the postcolonial national present as the people of Kashmir and their cultural literary and artistic productions cannot be contained within the regnant paradigms of the nations across which the region is partitioned Additionally the book explores how long term resolution would demand engagement with historical forces political actors and social formations that exceed the nation state An important contribution to the study of this troubled region this book will be of interest to academics and researchers of modern South Asian history and politics as well as comparative politics and international relations Deterritorialised Identity and Transborder Movement in South Asia Nasir Uddin, Nasreen Chowdhury, 2019-01-31 This volume is about migration across South Asia and the complex negotiation of borders by people and the states in the process A border is understood as a form of demarcation but it also opens up the flow of people goods and ideas of legality and illegality Borders are dynamic and dyadic in the interface of state and non state actors involved in border operations Consequently transborder movement becomes a complex web involving concerns of security trade militancy and questions of citizenship along with discourses of ghettoisation belonging and otherness Since the mid 20th century the South Asian region has witnessed growing social and political instability and breakdown of regional cooperation In this context the volume casts a wide interdisciplinary lens across South Asia and discusses economic migration as well as forced migration due to persecution and natural disasters It looks at how understandings of territoriality and border become blurred due to increasing transborder migration in the region how states in South Asia address transborder movements at both policy level and on the ground and how borderlands become spaces for illegal trade and informal economy in South Asia and for negotiations between states and refugees on identity and citizenship This highly topical volume is for a wide group of scholars and students interested in South Asia ranging from sociology anthropology political science history to interdisciplinary fields like migration studies peace and conflict studies and development studies power will be determined in large measure by policies of key actors in the Indian Ocean and the lands that abut it rather than in the Atlantic or the Pacific The interplay of multiple and competing universalisms in the Indian Ocean arena is in urgent need of better understanding Oceanic Islam Muslim Universalism and European Imperialism is a fresh contribution to Islamic and Indian Ocean studies alike placing the history of modern South Asia in broader interregional and global contexts It refines theories of universalism and cosmopolitanism while at the same time drawing on new empirical research The essays in the volume bring the best academic scholarship on Islam in South Asia and across the Indian Ocean in the age of European empire to the readers
