Modern Postmodern Off The Beaten Path Of Antimodernism:

Modern/postmodern Eric Mark Kramer, 1997      Modern/Postmodern Eric Kramer, 1997-04-16 In this book Eric Kramer introduces his theory of dimensional accrual dissociation to explain the difference between modernity and postmodernity. He also argues that social scientific operational definitions are useful but very often arbitrary. Thus realities based on them are available for creative alternative validities. Kramer then concentrates on the concepts of modernity and postmodernity to analyze how they have been defined and structured and in the end he offers clear definitions of these concepts and a better understanding of the work of those who have shaped these ideas. Kramer applies this position to the concepts of modernity and postmodernity providing a painstaking review of the origins, key thinkers and current status of these ideas. By reviewing the development of these ideas and providing clear definitions of these concepts, Kramer helps scholars and researchers in the social sciences and humanities better understand applications and limitations of these key approaches in late twentieth century scholarship.

An Indian Tantric Tradition and Its Modern Global Revival D.E. Osto, 2020-03-06 This book analyzes the contemporary global revival of Nondual aivism, a thousand year old medieval Hindu religious philosophy. Providing a historical overview of the seminal people and groups responsible for the revival, the book compares the tradition's medieval Indian origins to modern forms which are situated within distinctively contemporary religious, economic and technological contexts. The author bridges the current gap in the literature between insider emic and outsider etic perspectives by examining modern Nondual aivism from multiple standpoints as both a critical scholar of religion and an empathetic participant observer. The book explores modern Nondual aivism in relation to recent scholarly debates concerning the legitimacy of New Age consumptive spirituality, the global spiritual marketplace and the contemporary culture of narcissism. It also analyzes the dark side of the revived tradition and investigates contemporary teachers accused of sexual abuse and illegal financial activities in relation to unique features of Nondual aivism's theosophy and modern scholarship on new religious movements, NRMs and cults. This book shows that although Kashmir aivism has been adopted by certain teachers and groups to market their own brand of High Tantra, some contemporary practitioners have remained true to the system's fundamental tenets and teach authentic, albeit modern forms of Nondual aivism. This book will be of interest to academics in the fields of religion and Asian philosophies, especially South Asian tantric, neo-tantric and yoga philosophies, alternative and New Age spiritualities, religion and consumerism, and NRMs and cults. Winner of the inaugural 2021 New Zealand Asia Society Book Award second prize.

The Emerging Monoculture Eric Kramer, 2003-02-28 Kramer brings together experts from a variety of minority backgrounds and from around the world to give their perspectives on the most pervasive ideology today, globalism. The basic premise is that a developed country is different from a developed community. They need not be mutually exclusive but neither is it assumed that they are necessarily consonant. The various essays offer answers to such vital questions as: What does it mean to become a global citizen and What does it mean to be a model minority in a global economy The process of becoming a mainstream person involves being first marginalized with the implication that something is inadequate about one's self The process of assimilationism is manifested as various forms of enforced and or rewarded acculturation With the vast human migration currently underway the notion of assimilation has become a global phenomenon What is occurring Kramer and his colleagues demonstrate is a worldwide shift from the village milieu to the city lifestyle This migration is seen as a polycentric and global phenomenon whereby the promised land is nowhere in particular but instead a way of life and mindset an urban lifestyle This process is far more than a simple change in geography Moving from the village to the cityscape involves a mutation in worldview and self identity Additional questions asked throughout the collection are What set of persuasive assumptions are leading the world in this direction and What might be lost in the process A provocative collection for scholars students and other researchers involved with development studies multiculturalism and urbanization

Horror at the Drive-In Gary D. Rhodes, 2015-09-03 Drive in movie theaters and the horror films shown at them during the 1950s 60s and early 70s may be somewhat outdated but they continue to enthrall movie buffs today More than just fodder for the satirical cannons of Joe Bob Briggs and Mystery Science Theatre 3000 they appeal to knowledgeable fans and film scholars who understand their influence on American popular culture This book is a collection of eighteen essays by various scholars on the classic drive in horror film experience Those in Section One emphasize the roles of the drive in theater in the United States and its cultural cousin Australia Section Two examines how horror operated at the drive in the rhetoric used in coming attraction trailers horror film premieres at drive ins double features and the preproduction production and marketing of Last House on the Left Section Three addresses the effects of the Vietnam War and counter culture on The Texas Chainsaw Massacre and the Cold War on Cat Women of the Moon Section Four explores gender issues and sexuality two of the most common and most important subjects of horror film analysis Section Five covers drive in culture via Hush Hush Sweet Charlotte 2000 Maniacs and the films of Mario Bava Section Six investigates a variety of issues such as the drive in horror film's embrace of DNA the use of cinematic form to create a non Hollywood look in Wizard of Gore and the many different prints and running times of I Drink Your Blood

The Ontological Foundation of Ethics, Politics, and Law Francesco Belfiore, 2013-03-25 The revised edition of The Ontological Foundation of Ethics Politics and Law adds new concepts and discusses the views of additional thinkers The author refers to his basic ontological conception of the human mind or spirit as an evolving conscious triadic entity composed of intellect sensitivity and power each exerting a bidirectional selfish and moral activity Through this approach the notions of good morality society and law are derived from the structure and functioning of the mind It follows that the solutions presented are the results of a discovery and not the consequence of a choice Otherwise stated ethics politics and law are given an ontological foundation For each topic considered Belfiore shows how his thought can reinterpret the views of other philosophers This new edition enriched in concepts and quotations appears as an innovative and highly stimulating contribution to the philosophical branches of ethics politics and law and will be of interest to both graduate students and philosophy scholars

The Routledge Companion to Migration, Communication, and Politics Stephen Croucher, Joao Caetano, Elsa Campbell, 2018-12-07 The Routledge Companion to Migration Communication and Politics brings together academics from numerous disciplines to show the legal political communicative theoretical methodological and media implications of migration The collection makes the compelling case that migration does not occur in a vacuum rather it is driven by and reacts to various factors including the political economic and cultural worlds in which individuals live The 25 chapters reveal the complex nature of migration from various angles not only looking at how policy affects migrants but also how individuals and marginalized groups are impacted by such acts In Part I contributors examine migration law debating the role of the state in managing migration flows and investigating existing migration policy Part II offers theories and methods that integrate communication studies political science and law into the study of migration including cultural fusion theory and Gebserian theory Part III looks at how contemporary perceptions of migration and migrants intersect with media representations across media outlets worldwide Finally Part IV offers case studies that present the intricacies of migration within different cultural national and political groups Migration is the key political economic and cultural issue of our time and this companion takes the next step in the debate namely the effects of the how in addition to the how and why Researchers and students of communication politics media and law will find this an invaluable intervention

The Triadic Structure of the Mind Francesco Belfiore, 2016-11-17 In this third edition of The Triadic Structure of the Mind Francesco Belfiore begins from the basic ontological conception of the structure and functioning of the mind or spirit as an evolving conscious triad composed of intellect sensitiveness and power each exerting a selfish and a moral activity Based on this original concept of the triadic bidirectional and evolving mind Belfiore has developed a coherent philosophical system through which he offers fresh solutions in the fields of ontology knowledge language aesthetics ethics politics and law The present third edition like the previous one includes an extensive treatment of the topics addressed as well as the quotation of the views of the major thinkers whose thought has been discussed and reinterpreted In addition new concepts have been introduced some passages have been clarified and the style has been improved in several points The result is an original and exhaustive book which will be of interest to all philosophy scholars

Reading the Homeless Eungjun Min, 1999-06-30 As one of our country's major social problems homelessness is often in the news The media tend to portray the homeless as drunk stoned crazy or sick individuals a portrayal that is only partly accurate and represents an obstacle to our understanding of the wider social implications of this complex issue This edited collection examines the various ways both verbal and visual in which the homeless have been portrayed by the media from the 1980s to the present day The contributors apply different frameworks ranging from phenomenology to culture studies to analyze the characteristics implications and consequences of the stories and images disseminated by the media

A Pilgrimage to the World of Peace and Nonviolence Chandan Sengupta, It is true that we are passing through a critical situation during which entire society is getting divided into class and section day by day on the basis of different types of superficial parameters Such differences are so prominent that they even hamper the normal acculturation process of early schooling and socialisation of individuals through which newly introduced fellows are allowed to gain a perfect pitching in the multi plural community Service oriented life of modern world is also moving on with such kind of toss and twist giving birth to regional as well as global tension of different degree and radial expansion It is also becoming difficult for us to overcome the situation due to its deeper impression in the mind set of individual coming out from the isolated segments of restricted mechanism of acculturation Main objective of our discussion and analysis is to cultivate a balanced process of educational social as well as economic acculturation which will be suitable enough for ensuring implementation and continuation of world Peace

Silent Killing Chandan Sukumar Sengupta, 2020-02-26 A grown up tree with 100% canopy can support normal breathing of 8 people throughout the year It can keep the atmospheric temperature of the surrounding down It can accommodate thousands of creatures There are several other services delivered by a tree in terms of immediate and prolonged economic returns If grown up trees are not replaceable entity of our environment then what would be any immediate alternatives suitable and acceptable for us to keep the pace of growth intact This article also analyses the possibilities of establishing a suitable adjustment between resources technologies and human aspirations for enhancing the sustainable economic growth through stepping of renovation modernization and industrialisation

Demystifying Theories in Tourism Research Kelly Bricker,Holly Donohoe,2015-12-04 It often seems that there is more confusion than consensus regarding tourism theory Does tourism have theories it can truly own or does it just borrow from other academic disciplines It can be difficult to understand the theories and conceptual frameworks available and how to apply these ideas to a research endeavour This book reviews theoretical perspectives on tourism from planning and management through marketing and host communities to the tourism consumers themselves Covering issues such as tour guiding rural tourism development and destination image it provides a complete guide to the industry Including pedagogical features throughout this book is an accessible approach to a controversial subject Community-Based Health Interventions in an Institutional Context Steven L. Arxer,John W. Murphy,2019-09-13 Community Based Health Interventions in an Institutional Context examines challenges of institutionalizing community based health care While the community based or localized model is growing in popularity and importance in the United States in practice it must often be brought in to larger institutions in order to grow to scale The typical goals of an institution standardization formalization and control may be seen as antithetical to those of a community based healthcare provider such as spontaneity customization and flexibility The contributions to this work raise questions about how the community based model can be scaled up through institutions and how institutionalization can be rethought from a bottom up approach They provide not only an overview of community based organizations but also delve into practical topics such as establishing budgets training workers incorporating technology as well as more theoretical topics like goal setting policy effects like the ACA and relationships between patient and community This work will be of interest for researchers interested in exploring the community based health care model as well as practitioners in health care and health policy The Symbolism of Globalization, Development, and Aging Steven L. Arxer,John W. Murphy,2012-09-14 This book looks at the symbolic side of globalization development and aging Many of the dimensions that are discussed represent updates of past debates but some are entirely new In particular globalization is accompanied by subtle social imagery that profoundly shapes the way institutions and identities are imagined The process of aging and persons sense of identity is no exception The underlying assumptions that pervade globalization inform how critical dimensions of aging are discussed and institutionalized The application of marketplace imagery for example may impact attempts for holism in how aging is studied and the prospects for human agency during the aging process This book offers a special look into how temporality technology normativity and empiricism structure the symbolic side of globalization and influence dominant images of the aging process Current debates about globalization and aging are expanded by helping readers see the social imagery that is both subtly behind globalization and at the forefront of shaping the aging experience

When Death Goes Pop Charlton D. McIlwain, 2005 Scholars educators health professionals and activists from a variety of fields have struggled with one of the most significant questions of contemporary life How do we rescue the experience of death and dying from the mire of fear denial and secrecy that it has been associated with for the better part of a century In When Death Goes Pop Charlton D McIlwain describes a striking emerging shift in the way that death is represented in such omnipresent forms of media as television a shift that seems to be moving the American discourse on death and dying from the private sphere to the public The book surveys the past thirty years of death related television programming from daytime soaps to prime time dramas focusing primarily on Home Box Office s Six Feet Under and its innovative approach to the subject and from the Sci Fi Channel s Crossing Over to the genre of paranormal programming as a whole This book also discusses the increasing use of multimedia and the Internet in the funeral industry and how the new technologies change the way that we remember the dead as they create and sustain what we might call a virtual community of death Magic Words Craig Conley, 2008-10-01 Magic Words A Dictionary is a oneofakind resource for armchair linguists popculture enthusiasts Pagans Wiccans magicians and trivia nuts alike Brimming with the most intriguing magic words and phrases from around the world and illustrated throughout with magical symbols and icons Magic Words is a dictionary like no other More than sevenhundred essay style entries describe the origins of magical words as well as historical and popular variations and fascinating trivia With sources ranging from ancient Medieval alchemists to modern stage magicians necromancers and wizards of legend to miracle workers throughout time Magic Words is a must have for any scholar of magic language history and culture Communicating for Social Change Mohan Jyoti Dutta, Dazzelyn Baltazar Zapata, 2018-12-05 The book covers the trajectories and trends in social change communication engaging the key theoretical debates on communication and social change Attending to the concepts of communication and social change that emerge from and across the global margins the book works toward offering theoretical and methodological lessons that de center the dominant constructions of communication and social change The chapters in the book delve into the interplays of academic activist community negotiations in communication for social change and the ways in which these negotiations offer entry points into transformative communication processes of social change Moreover a number of chapters in the book attend to the ways in which Asian articulations of social change are situated at the intersections of culture structure and agency Chapters in the book are extended versions of research presented at the conference on Communicating Social Change Intersections of Theory and Praxis held at the National University of Singapore in 2016 organized under the umbrella of the Center for Culture Centered Approach to Research and Evaluation CARE
