Atlantic Daron W. Olson, 2012-12-11 Around the year 1000 a Viking ship landed on the Atlantic coast of what would one day be North America Nearly a millennium later on June 7 1945 Norway's King Haakon VII returned from exile under guard of the American Ninety ninth or Viking Battalion In Vikings across the Atlantic Daron W Olson reveals how these two moments form narrative poles for the vision of a Greater Norway that expanded the boundaries of the Norwegian nation Looking at matters of religion literature media and ethnicity Olson explores how Norwegian Americans myths about themselves changed over time in relation to a broader Anglo American culture while at the same time influencing and being influenced by the burgeoning national culture of their homeland Beginning in the 1920s homeland Norwegian identity makers framed the concept of the Greater Norway which viewed the Norwegian nation as having two halves Norwegians who resided in the homeland and those who had emigrated from Norway especially those in America Far from being merely symbolic this idea Olson shows was actually tested by the ordeal of World War II when Norwegians the world over demonstrated their willingness to sacrifice and even die for the Greater Norway In its transnational approach Olson's book brings a new perspective to immigrant studies and theories of nationalism Vikings across the Atlantic depicts the nation as a larger community in which membership is constructed or imagined a status of belonging defined not by physical proximity but through qualities such as culture and shared traditions The Bizarre Truth Andrew Zimmern, 2009-09-08 Andrew

Zimmern the host of The Travel Channel's hit series Bizarre Foods has an extraordinarily well earned reputation for traveling far and wide to seek out and sample anything and everything that's consumed as food globally from cow vein stew in Bolivia and giant flying ants in Uganda to raw camel kidneys in Ethiopia putrefied shark in blood pudding in Iceland and Wolfgang Puck's Hunan style rooster balls in Los Angeles For Zimmern local cuisine bizarre gross or downright stomach turning as it may be to us is not simply what's served at mealtime It is a primary avenue to discovering what is most authentic the bizarre truth about cultures everywhere Having eaten his way around the world over the course of four seasons of Bizarre Foods Zimmern has now launched Bizarre Worlds a new series on the Travel Channel and this his first book a chronicle of his journeys as he not only tastes the taboo treats of the world but delves deep into the cultures and lifestyles of far flung locales and seeks the most prized of the modern traveler's goals The Authentic Experience Written in the smart often hilarious voice he uses to narrate his TV shows Zimmern uses his adventures in culinary anthropology to illustrate such themes as why visiting local markets can reveal more about destinations than museums the importance of going to the last stop on the subway the most remote area of a place where its essence is most often revealed the need to seek out and catalog the last bottle of coca cola in the desert i.e disappearing foods and cultures the profound differences between dining and eating and the pleasures of snout to tail local fresh and organic food Zimmern takes readers into the back of a souk in Morocco where locals are eating a whole roasted lamb along with a conch fisherman in Tobago who may be the last of his kind to Mississippi where he dines on raccoon and possum There he writes People said That's roadkill No it's not I said It's a cultural story Whether it's a session with an Incan witch doctor in Ecuador who blows fire on him spits on him thrashes him with poisonous branches and beats him with a live guinea pig or drinking blood in Uganda and cow urine tonic in India or eating roasted bats on an uninhabited island in Samoa Zimmern cheerfully celebrates the undiscovered destinations and weird wonders still remaining in our increasingly globalized world
