Modernism Critical Concepts In Literary And Cultural Studies:

Modernism Tim Middleton,2003      Gender and Modernism Bonnie Kime Scott,2007 A broad collection spanning the last three decades of literary criticism alongside earlier key pieces written during the modernist period Modernism whether seen as a period designation a manifestation of formal experimentation or an aspect of modernity has since its inception been marked consciously or unconsciously by gender      Modernism Tim Middleton,2003      The Oxford Critical and Cultural History of Modernist Magazines Peter Brooker,Andrew Thacker,2009 The first full study of the role of little magazines and their contribution to the making of artistic modernism and the avant garde across Europe this volume is a major scholarly achievement of immense value to those interested in material culture of the twentieth century      Literary Research and the American Modernist Era Robert N. Matuoizzi,Elizabeth B. Lindsay,2008-07-31 Characterized by its move away from Romanticism and toward mundane every day subjects as well as incorporating such ideas as metanarrative stream of consciousness and disjointed timelines the American Modernist Era was at its heyday during the years 1914 1949 It produced such great authors as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner and F Scott Fitzgerald and memorable works like As I Lay Dying and The Great Gatsby Literary Research and the American Modernist Era offers the scholar and researcher a clear introduction to the best contemporary library resources and practices for researching American modernist writing Graduate students advanced undergraduates researchers and scholars specializing in American modernist writing will improve their information skills and fluency whether in the real or the virtual library Even those lacking access to some of the resources described here can profit from this overview of literary research because it will help them frame questions indicate where to go for answers and demonstrate useful connections between many of the secondary scholarly sources This guide offers a coherent account of how contemporary research skills and resources can complement one another in helping the scholar effectively deal with typical challenges they encounter in their work      Literary Research and the American Realism and Naturalism Period Linda L. Stein,Peter J. Lehu,2008-12-12 The American Realism and Naturalism literary period lasted from roughly 1861 to 1914 It was characterized by its response to the political economic and technological changes that transformed the nation during the Civil War and postbellum years Some of the most well known authors in American history wrote during this time including Mark Twain Henry James Edith Wharton Charles W Chesnutt and Upton Sinclair Literary Research and the American Realism and Naturalism Period Strategies and Sources will help those interested in researching this era Authors Linda L Stein and Peter J Lehu emphasize research methodology and outline the best practices for the research process paying attention to the unique challenges inherent in conducting studies of national literature Each chapter covers a different type of resource general and literary reference books library catalogs print and online bibliographies scholarly journals publishing history sources contemporary journals and newspapers microform and digital collections manuscript and archival material and websites The book offers a coherent account of how contemporary research skills and resources can complement one another in helping scholars effectively deal with typical challenges they encounter in their work

Modernism: Evolution of an Idea Sean Latham, Gayle Rogers, 2015-10-22 What exactly is modernism And how and why has its definition changed over time Modernism Evolution of an Idea is the first book to trace the development of the term modernism from cultural debates in the early twentieth century to the dynamic contemporary field of modernist studies Rather than assuming and recounting the contributions of modernism's chief literary and artistic figures this book focuses on critical formulations and reception through topics such as The evolution of modernism from a pejorative term in intellectual arguments through its condemnation by Pope Pius X in 1907 and on to its subsequent centrality to definitions of new art by T S Eliot Laura Riding and Robert Graves F R Leavis Edmund Wilson and Clement Greenberg New Criticism and its legacies in the formation of the modernist canon in anthologies classrooms and literary histories The shifting conceptions of modernism during the rise of gender and race studies French theory Marxist criticism postmodernism and more The New Modernist Studies and its contemporary engagements with the politics institutions and many cultures of modernism internationally With a glossary of key terms and movements and a capacious critical bibliography this is an essential survey for students and scholars working in modernist studies at all levels

Locating Gender in Modernism Geetha Ramanathan, 2012 This book visits modernism within a comparative gendered and third world framework questioning current scholarly categorisations of modernism and reframing our conception of what constitutes modernist aesthetics It describes the construction of modernist studies and argues that despite a range of interventions which suggest that philosophical and material articulations with the third world shaped modernism an emphasis on modernist universals persists Ramanathan argues that women and third world authors have reshaped received notions of the modern and revised orthodox ideas on the modern aesthetic Authors such as Bessie Head Josiane Racine T Obinkaram Echewa Raja Rao Gabriel Garcia Marquez Sembene Ousmane Salman Rushdie Ana Castillo Attia Hossain Bapsi Sidhwa and Sahar Khalifeh are visited in their specific cultural contexts and use some form of realism a mode that western modernism relegates to the nineteenth century A comparative methodology and extensive research on intersecting topics such as post coloniality and the articulation between gender and modernist aesthetics facilitates readings of the modern in twentieth century literature that fall outside standards of western modernism Considering the relationship between aesthetics and ideology Ramanathan lays out a critical apparatus to enhance our understanding of the modern thus suggesting that form is not universal but that the history of forms like the history of colonialism and of women indicates very specific modalities of the modern

The History of British Women's Writing, 1920-1945 M. Joannou, 2016-01-03 Featuring sixteen contributions from recognized authorities in their respective fields this superb new mapping of women's writing ranges from feminine middlebrow novels to Virginia Woolf's modernist aesthetics from women's literary journalism to crime fiction and from West

End drama to the literature of Scotland Ireland and Wales      Kafka's The Trial Espen Hammer,2018-03-23 Kafka's novel The Trial written from 1914 to 1915 and published in 1925 is a multi faceted notoriously difficult manifestation of European literary modernism and one of the most emblematic books of the 20th Century It tells the story of Josef K a man accused of a crime he has no recollection of committing and whose nature is never revealed to him The novel is often interpreted theologically as an expression of radical nihilism and a world abandoned by God It is also read as a parable of the cold inhumane rationality of modern bureaucratization Like many other novels of this turbulent period it offers a tragic quest narrative in which the hero searches for truth and clarity whether about himself or the anonymous system he is facing only to fall into greater and greater confusion This collection of nine new essays and an editor's introduction brings together Kafka experts intellectual historians literary scholars and philosophers in order to explore the novel's philosophical and theological significance Authors pursue the novel's central concerns of justice law resistance ethics alienation and subjectivity Few novels display human uncertainty and skepticism in the face of rapid modernization or the metaphysical as it intersects with the most mundane aspects of everyday life more insistently than The Trial Ultimately the essays in this collection focus on how Kafka's text is in fact philosophical in the ways in which it achieves its literary aims Rather than considering ideas as externally related to the text the text is considered philosophical at the very level of literary form and technique      Gender and Modernism Bonnie Kime Scott,2008 A broad collection spanning the last three decades of literary criticism alongside earlier key pieces written during the modernist period Modernism whether seen as a period designation a manifestation of formal experimentation or an aspect of modernity has since its inception been marked consciously or unconsciously by gender      Joseph Conrad Tim Middleton,2013-05-13 The popular yet complex work of Joseph Conrad has attracted much critical attention over the years from the perspectives of postcolonial modernist cultural and gender studies This guide to his compelling work presents an accessible introduction to the contexts and many interpretations of Conrad's texts from publication to the present an introduction to key critical texts and perspectives on Conrad's life and work situated in a broader critical history cross references between sections of the guide in order to suggest links between texts contexts and criticism suggestions for further reading Part of the Routledge Guides to Literature series this volume is essential reading for all those beginning detailed study of Joseph Conrad and seeking not only a guide to his works but also a way through the wealth of contextual and critical material that surrounds them      The Routledge Companion to Media and Race Christopher Campbell,2016-11-03 The Routledge Companion to Media and Race serves as a comprehensive guide for scholars students and media professionals who seek to understand the key debates about the impact of media messages on racial attitudes and understanding Broad in scope and richly presented from a diversity of perspectives the book is divided into three sections first it summarizes the theoretical approaches that scholars have adopted to analyze the complexities of media messages about race and ethnicity from the notion of representation to more recent concepts like Critical Race Theory Second the book reviews studies related to a variety of media including film television print media social media music and video games Finally contributors present a broad summary of media issues related to specific races and ethnicities and describe the relationship of the study of race to the study of gender and sexuality Chapters 1 3 and 11 of this book re freely available as downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Cosmo-Modernism and Theater in India Aparna Bhargava Dharwadker, 2025-08-05 Urban theater took shape in postindependence India as a large and complex field produced in more than sixteen major languages including Bengali Marathi Hindi Gujarati and Kannada The cosmopolitan engagement of leading playwrights with modernist and postcolonial literary movements around the world created distinctly new aesthetic and political approaches to Indian myth history and sociocultural experience which had become the most prominent subjects in modern Indian drama Yet even as critics and scholars of global modernism have increasingly turned their attention beyond North America and Europe they continue to focus on dominant world languages at the expense of multilingual cultures such as India's Despite their originality and significance modernist works written in Indian languages other than English remain neglected In Cosmo-Modernism and Theater in India Aparna Bhargava Dharwadker develops a new framework for understanding non Anglophone Indian modernisms by recovering crucial theoretical concepts and using them to analyze the writing staging and reception of major plays in multiple languages She argues that the output of prominent mid to late twentieth century playwrights such as Dharamvir Bharati Mohan Rakesh Badal Sircar Vijay Tendulkar Girish Karnad and Habib Tanvir registers a decisive rupture from nineteenth century forms of colonial modernity In representing the ancient Indian past the postcolonial urban present and the rich repertoire of precolonial performance traditions these authors works became highly inventive expressions of modernist classicism realism and traditionalism Dharwadker shows how a decommercialized performance economy and the incessant activity of translation further enhanced modernist production and she connects Indian modernisms to regional national and transnational networks Offering bold new insights into the theory and practice of modernist drama this book delivers a radical remapping of global modernisms

Historicizing Fiction/Fictionalizing History Nishevita J. Murthy, 2014-10-16 Historicizing Fiction/Fictionalizing History brings together two authors Umberto Eco and Orhan Pamuk not frequently studied in comparison By focusing on their non fictional works to present a unique study of the methods and concepts of representation Murthy uses contemporary historical novels to examine fictional depictions of reality and provides a fresh perspective on representation studies in literature Written in an accessible style and tapping into fields as varied as literary and critical theory the historical novel postmodernism and historiography Historicizing Fiction/Fictionalizing History considers the ways in which reality as discourse confronts a text external reality and how this confrontation affects the autonomy of the fictional space topics that remain persistently problematic areas within literary studies Eco's The Name of the Rose and Baudolino and Pamuk's My Name is Red and Snow with their topical concerns and methods of representation promise a rewarding comparative study This book provides an early critical framework for these four works placing them within the rubric of the postmodernist historical novel as creative works that also comment on the process of literary writing through their recreation of historical pasts In this respect Historicizing Fiction Fictionalizing History promises to be an engaging read in literary criticism and historiography as well as a handy companion for Eco and Pamuk enthusiasts

Woolf Editing / Editing Woolf Eleanor McNees, Sara Veglahn, 2018-08-30 Woolf Editing Editing Woolf focuses on Woolf as editor both of her own work and of the Hogarth Press and on editing Woolf on the conflation of textual and theoretical criticism of Woolf's oeuvre Since many contributors are editors creative writers and critics contributions highlight the intersections of those three roles The essays variously addressed the granite of close textual reading and the rainbow of theoretical approaches to Woolf's writings Several more flexible versions of editing emerge in the papers that discuss adaptations of Woolf to film theatre and music Brenda Silver's contribution in memory of Julia Briggs opens the volume and James Haule's contribution concludes it

Modernism: 1971-1984 Tim Middleton, 2003 Modernism Tim Middleton, 2003

Jewish Literatures and Cultures in Southeastern Europe Renate Hansen-Kokoruš, Olaf Terpitz, 2021-10-11 The volume offers an overview of the diverse Jewish experiences in Southeastern Europe from the 19th to the 21st centuries and the various forms and strategies of their representation in literature the arts historiography and philosophy Southeastern Europe is characterized by a high degree of ethnical religious and cultural diversity Jews whether Sephardim Ashkenazim or Romanians settling there in different periods experienced divergent life worlds which engendered rich cultural production Though recent scholarly and popular interest in this heterogeneous region has grown impressively Jewish cultural production is still an under researched area The volume offers an overview of the diverse Jewish experiences in Southeastern Europe from the 19th to the 21st centuries and the various forms and strategies of their representation in literature the arts historiography and philosophy thus creating a dialogue between Jewish studies Balkan studies and current literary and cultural theories
