The Cambridge Companion to Modernism Michael Levenson, 1999-02-11 In The Cambridge Companion to Modernism ten eminent scholars from Britain and the United States offer timely new appraisals of the revolutionary cultural transformations of the first decades of the twentieth century Chapters on the major literary genres intellectual political and institutional contexts film and the visual arts provide both close analyses of individual works and a broader set of interpretive narratives A chronology and guide to further reading supply valuable orientation for the study of Modernism Readers will be able to use the book at once as a standard work of reference and as a stimulating source of compelling new readings of works by writers and artists from Joyce and Woolf to Stein Picasso Chaplin H D and Freud and many others Students will find much needed help with the difficulties of approaching Modernism while the essays original contributions will send scholars back to this volume for stimulating re evaluation Modernism: The Basics Laura Winkiel, 2017-03-16 Modernism The Basics provides an accessible overview of the study of modernism in its global dimensions Examining the key concepts history and varied forms of the field it guides the reader through the major approaches outlining key debates to answer such questions as What is modernism How did modernism begin Has modernism developed differently in different media How is it related to postmodernism and postcolonialism How have politics urbanization and new technologies affected modernism With engaging examples from art literature and historical documents each chapter provides suggestions for further reading histories of relevant movements and clear definitions of key terminology making this an essential guide for anyone approaching the study of modernism for the first time Cultures of Modernism Cristanne Miller, 2007 Examines the influences of location on the literary achievements of three modernist women writers Modernism Tim Armstrong, 2005-06-17 In this study aimed at a general and student audience Tim Armstrong seeks to define modernism not only by its aesthetics and literary genres but also by its links with broader cultural areas in which the modern is implicated and debated and which inform its representational modes Besedilo s hrbta knj Modernist Literature Rachel Potter, 2012-04-02 Introduces students to a wide range of modernist writers and critical debates in modernism studies Discussing canonical modernist writers such as James Joyce and T S Eliot alongside less familiar writers such as Mina Loy and Djuna Barnes the guide takes students through a wide ranging modernist literary landscape It considers how the publishing networks and collaborative projects which connected writers in the period were central to the creation of English language modernism It also introduces students to recent critical debates in modernism studies with separate chapters on modernism and the writing of geography and exile the relationship between modernism obscenity and literary censorship and modernism and mass culture with a particular focus on the modernist interest in film and modernism and politics The book also considers the changing meaning of the word modernism through twentieth and twenty first century criticism Edward Thomas and World Literary Studies Andrew Webb, 2013-07-15 Edward Thomas and World Literary Studies offers a revelatory re reading of Edward Thomas

Adapting Pascale Casanova's vision of world literature as a system of competing national traditions this study analyses Thomas's appropriation of Anglocentric British literary culture at key moments of historical crisis in the twentieth century after the First World War either side of the Second World War and with the resumption of war in Ireland in the 1970s It shows how the dominant assumptions underpinning the discipline of English Literature marginalise the Welshness of Thomas's work before combining this revised world literature model with fresh archival research to reveal how Thomas's reading of Welsh culture its bardic folk and literary traditions is central both to his creation of an innovative body of poetry and to his extensive and relatively neglected prose This study is groundbreaking in its contribution to recent debates about devolution and independence for Britain's constituent nations

Artistic Outlaws Sonja Samberger, 2005 The creator of the new composition in the arts is an outlaw until he is a classic Gertrude Stein wrote in 1926 Unlike male modernists such as T S Eliot or Ezra Pound the modernist women poets Edith Sitwell Amy Lowell Stein and H D never became high modernist models but remained artistic outlaws The present study shows how these women were present on the modernist scene but followed their own concepts and struggled to establish their position as modernist women poets Defying definition the four poets not only richly contributed to modernism but were indeed its developers

Virginia Woolf in Context Bryony Randall, Jane Goldman, 2012-12-17 As a paradigmatic modernist author Virginia Woolf is celebrated for the ways her fiction illuminates modern and contemporary life Woolf scholars have long debated how context whether historical cultural or theoretical is to be understood in relation to her work and how her work produces new insights into context Drawing on an international field of leading and emergent specialists this collection provides an authoritative resource for contemporary Woolf scholarship that explores the distinct and overlapping dimensions of her writings Rather than survey existing scholarship these essays extend Woolf studies in new directions by examining how the author is contextualised today The collection also highlights connections between Woolf and key cultural political and historical issues of the twentieth century such as avant gardism in music and art developments in journalism and the publishing industry political struggles over race gender and class and the bearings of colonialism empire and war

12th Conference on British and American Studies Marinela Burada, Raluca Sinu, Oana Tatu, 2016-01-14 This book represents a selection of papers presented by academics and researchers at the 12th Conference on British and American Studies They are grouped in two main theme clusters corresponding to the two chapters of the book Languages in Contact and Languages in Use and Multidisciplinarity and Multiculturalism in Literary Studies In the first section language is described in turn as subject to influence by other language systems as an object of learning and acquisition and as an instrument enabling users to bridge between cultures disciplinary domains and people The second part of the volume is mainly concerned with such notions as hybridity tolerance identity subversion and deconstruction as reflected in classical and contemporary Anglo American literary texts

Teaching Later British Literature Albert D. Pionke, 2019-04-05 Designed for both first time teachers of survey courses in later British literature and more experienced instructors seeking a new way to approach familiar material Teaching Later British Literature seeks to recapture the interconnectedness within and among Romantic Victorian and Modern literature Focusing on some of the defining historical intellectual and artistic preoccupations that individual works explore in common with their literary peers the book also invites teachers to help their students to rethink the criteria by which periods are defined and to reconceive the relationship between texts written within these periods Teaching Later British Literature is suitable for reading alongside any of the anthologies used in courses that survey the second half of British literature from the advanced high school classroom to the lower division university lecture hall and seeks to complement their already robust content by offering teachers a synthetic and highly adaptable framework for guiding students through British literary history from the 1780s through the 1940s

Out of Context Michaela Bronstein, 2018-04-03 How do novels travel through time How might they endure in a changing world and reach the readers of an unknowable future Modernist writers were eager to think of their books as reaching audiences they could not yet imagine In recent years however scholars of modernism have focused on pinning them down putting these books in their context and these authors in their place By looking to the future scholars fear that looking to the future will make literature disengaged irresponsible or apolitical the worry is that literature cannot escape its own moment without also evading the hard truths of history Out of Context suggests an alternative to this scholarship proposing that literature travels through time not by transcending history but by adapting to historical change The chapters of this book each pair a modernist author with a later reader In each case this future reader is also a novelist someone who reads with an eye to form and craft and who puts what they see to new use in their own novels James Baldwin adapts Henry James's modes of characterization Ngugi wa Thiong'o repurposes Joseph Conrad's nonchronological narratives and Ken Kesey builds on William Faulkner's use of multiple perspectives Reading the modernists through these authors' eyes offers a different perspective on them Literary forms in this history do not have intrinsic political meanings they have a multitude of political uses Rather than see modernist literary form in all its fragmentation and complexity as a source of disruption and doubt these later authors use modernist forms to distill doubts into conviction The experiments of modernist fiction stand revealed as tools not of political critique but of political commitment

readers respond to the invitation to think colour as they read poetry and art writing and explore paintings To what extent can critical thought on colour in visual media illuminate the textual life of colour These are some of the lines of enquiry pursued in this bold new study of modern poetry and art writing in French where colour Susan Harrow argues is integral to the exploration of ethics ekphrasis objects bodies landscape and interiority The question of colour in a variety of disciplines and media has provoked debate from Aristotle to Goethe and from Baudelaire to Derek Jarman If the past twenty years have witnessed a colour turn in contemporary cultural studies and screen research colour values in literary and textual media are often elided or simply overlooked Colourworks tackles this lacuna in the study of modern poetry and art writing in French revealing the integral role of colour in the work of three iconic French writers in the modern tradition Stéphane Mallarmé Paul Valéry and Yves Bonnefoy This book spans the broad modern period from the 1860s to the early twenty first century in taking an exploratory approach to the viscosity of the verbal medium through an adventurous reading of text and image Harrow uncovers how colour moves and morphs in texts as it challenges the traditionalist containments of chromatic symbolism Beyond its primary area of investigation in modern poetry and art writing in French this richly colour illustrated study has significant interdisciplinary implications conceptual methodological and practical for the study of viscosity in humanities research from literature studies to material and visual culture studies
