Modernist Women Writers And Narrative Art:

'Modernist' Women Writers and Narrative Art Kathleen Wheeler, 1994-09 This book is an examination of the narrative strategies and stylistic devices of modernist writers and of earlier writers normally associated with late realism In the case of the latter Edith Wharton Kate Chopin and Willa Cather are shown to have engaged in an ironic critique of realism by exploring the inadequacies of this form to express human experience and by revealing hidden and contradictory assumptions By drawing upon insights from feminist theory deconstruction and revisions of new historicism and by restoring aspects of formalist analysis Kathleen Wheeler traces the details of these various dialogues with the literary tradition etched into structural stylistic and thematic elements of the novels and short stories discussed These seven writers are not only discussed in detail they are also related to a literary tradition of dozens of other women writers of the twentieth century as Jean Rhys Katherine Mansfield Stevie Smith and Jane Bowles are shown to take the developments of the earlier three writers into full modernism

'Modernist' Women Writers and Narrative Art K. Wheeler, 1994-08-16 This book is an examination of the fiction of Edith Wharton Willa Cather Kate Chopin Jean Rhys Stevie Smith Katherine Mansfield and Jane Bowles with a view to clarifying the narrative strategies these women adopt to establish in varying degrees a critique of realism and its hidden dualistic patriarchal assumptions about life literature and society While examining the literary conventions and the innovations of various texts Kathleen Wheeler is careful to respect the particularity and individuality of each of these writers

H.D. and the Public Sphere of Modernist Women Writers, 1913-1946 Georgina Taylor, 2001 This book places H D Hilda Doolittle in the context of the wider network of women writers in which she participated It examines the structures through which they exchanged ideas such as the little magazines and anthologies charting changes in focus by the network and the ways that new ideas emerged and were developed

A Window on the Italian Female Modernist Subjectivity Rossella M. Riccobono, 2013-09-17 This collection of essays surveys some of the artistic productions by female figures who stood at the forefront of Italian modernity in the fields of literature photography and even the theatre in order to explore how artistic engagement in women informed their views on and reactions to the challenges of a changing society and a disinhibiting intellectual landscape However one other objective takes on a central role in this volume that of opening a window on the re definition of the subjectivity of the self that occurred during an intriguing and still not fully studied period of artistic and societal changes In particular the present volume aims to define a female Italian Modernism which can be seen as complementary and not necessarily in opposition to its male counterpart

Deviant Modernism Colleen Lamos, 1998-12-10 This original study re evaluates central texts of the modernist canon Eliot s early poetry including The Waste Land Joyce s Ulysses and Proust s Remembrance of Things Past by examining sexual energies and identifications in them that are typically regarded as perverse According to modern cultural discourses and psychosexual categorizations these deviant desires and identifications feminize men or tend to render them homosexual Colleen Lamos s analysis of the operations of gender and sexuality in these texts reveals conflicts concerning the definition of masculine heterosexuality which cut across the aesthetics of modernism She argues that canonical male modernism far from being a monolithic entity with a coherently conservative political agenda is in fact the site of errant impulses and unresolved struggles What emerges is a reconsideration of modernist literature as a whole and a recognition of the heterogeneous forces which formed and deformed modernism The Oxford English Literary History: Volume 10: 1910-1940: The Modern Movement Chris

Baldick,2005-11-10 This exciting new volume provides a freshly inclusive account of literature in England in the period before during and after the First World War Chris Baldick places the modernist achievements of Virginia Woolf T S Eliot and James Joyce within the rich context of non modernist writings across all major genres allowing high literary art to be read against the background of low entertainment Looking well beyond the modernist vanguard Baldick highlights the survival and renewal of realist traditions in these decades of post Victorian disillusionment Ranging widely across psychological novels war poems detective stories satires and children s books The Modern Movement provides a unique survey of the literature of this turbulent time A Portrait of the Lady in Modern American Literature Aimee Pozorski,2018-10-23 A

Portrait of the Lady in Modern American Literature is a collection of fifteen original essays and a reprint of a classic essay that reconsiders the figure of the woman in distress in canonical American texts Approached from the method of close reading and the theoretical perspective of gender theory these essays look at the forgotten women at the heart of such beloved works as The Tragic Muse The Awakening The Age of Innocence The Great Gatsby Machinal Passing The Sound and the Fury Their Eyes Were Watching God and The Hours In taking up the famous question What does a woman want this collection finds some answers in artistic endeavour political agency freedom and above all independence Under English

Eyes Jopi Nyman,2021-10-18 British fictions of the early twentieth century appear obsessed with Europe Various texts from E M Forster and D H Lawrence to Bram Stoker and the period s travel writing explore European spaces constructing the European as an Other threatening the position of the English What they constantly repeat is England s difference and the secondary role of European spaces whose representation resembles that of colonial lands By reading selected texts both canonized and popular published between 1894 and 1916 this study argues that this xenophobic construction is a sign of the pervading presence of concerns related to the maintenance of English national identity Englishness allegedly threatened by the European Other By drawing on current postcolonial theory the case studies in the volume show that the discourse on the Other produced in British writings on Europe contributes more than has been understood to the making and promoting of Englishness The authors studied include D H Lawrence Katherine Mansfield Anthony Hope Arnold Bennett Mrs Alec Tweedie Erskine Childers and Joseph Conrad The study will renew our understanding of the role of Europe in the period s cultural imagination showing that the identities of the English are formed in encounters with different internal and external Others

Ritual, Myth, and Mysticism in the Work of Mary Butts Foy Roslyn,Roslyn Reso Foy,2000-01-01 Mary Butts wrote and lived among notable modernist writers such as T S Eliot Ford Madox Ford Jean Cocteau H D and Ezra Pound and was on her way to becoming one of the most respected British female writers of the twentieth century Yet after her death in 1937 at the age of forty six her reputation suffered a decline Butt s idiosyncratic spirituality did not lend itself to easy critical examination modernism was generally considered a masculine endeavor and her papers were not made public for over fifty years The recent acquisition of those papers by the Beinecke Library at Yale University however has brought about a resurgence of interest in her unique writings Mary Butts confronts and reinterprets reality in extraordinary ways and her modernist vision recalls the natural origins and powers of the female divine Her intense dedication to ancient rites and myth and her dabbling in the occult became embedded in her fiction and led to her own brand of mysticism Indeed the Butts heroine is at once healer sacred priestess earth goddess lover and daimon demon In presenting her characters this way Butts valorizes what she calls the soul living at its fullest capacity Roslyn Reso Foy gives us the first sustained critical study of Butts exploring the significance of feminism mysticism and magic in her life and writings Foy s thoughtful analysis combining scholarship with straightforward discussion will serve as an introduction to and foundation for further critical studies of this remarkable female modernist whose work coincides with contemporary concerns and who can no longer be ignored

Modernism Peter Childs, 2007-11-05 The modernist movement radically transformed the late nineteenth and early twentieth century literary establishment and its effects are still felt today Modernism introduces and analyzes what amounted to nothing less than a literary and cultural revolution In this fully updated and revised second edition charting the movement in its global and local contexts Peter Childs details the origins of the modernist movement and the influence of thinkers such as Darwin Marx Freud Nietzsche Saussure and Einstein explores the radical changes which occurred in the literature drama art and film of the period traces modernism at work in Anglophone literatures especially in writings by a range of key figures including James Joyce Virginia Woolf Samuel Beckett Nella Larsen Gertrude Stein Katherine Mansfield T S Eliot and many others reflects upon the shift from modernism to postmodernism At once accessible and critically informed Modernism guides readers from first steps in the field to an advanced understanding of one of the most important cultural movements of the last centuries

The Fictional Minds of Modernism Ricardo Miguel-Alfonso, 2020-02-20 Challenging the notion that modernism is marked by an inward turn a configuration of the individual as distinct from the world this collection delineates the relationship between the mind and material and social systems rethinking our understanding of modernism s representation of cognitive and affective processes Through analysis of a variety of international novels short stories and films all published roughly between 1890 and 1945 the contributors to this collection demonstrate that the so called inward turn of modernist narratives in fact reflects the necessary interaction between mind self and world that constitutes knowledge and therefore precludes any radical split between these categories The essays examine the cognitive value of modernist narrative showing how the perception of objects and of other people is a relational activity that requires an awareness of the constant flux of reality The Fictional Minds of Modernism explores how modernist narratives offer insights into the real historical world not as a mere object of contemplation but as an object of knowledge thus bridging the gap between classical narratology and modernist experimentation

Cather Studies, Volume 10 Cather Cather Studies,2015-08-01 Willa Cather and the Nineteenth Century explores with textual specificity and historical alertness the question of how the cultures of the nineteenth century the cultures that shaped Willa Cather s childhood animated her education supplied her artistic models generated her inordinate ambitions and gave embodiment to many of her deeply held values are addressed in her fiction In two related sets of essays seven contributors track within Cather s life or writing the particular cultural formations emotions and conflicts of value she absorbed from the atmosphere of her distinct historical moment their ten colleagues offer a compelling set of case studies that articulate the manifold ways that Cather learned from built upon or resisted models provided by particular nineteenth century writers works or artistic genres Taken together with its Cather Studies predecessor Willa Cather and Modern Cultures this volume reveals Cather as explorer and interpreter sufferer and master of the transition from a Victorian to a Modernist America

The Power of a Woman's Voice in Medieval and Early Modern Literatures Albrecht Classen,2012-02-13 The study takes the received view among scholars that women in the Middle Ages were faced with sustained misogyny and that their voices were seldom heard in public and subjects it to a critical analysis The ten chapters deal with various aspects of the question and the voices of a variety of authors both female and male are heard The study opens with an enquiry into violence against women including in texts by male writers Hartmann von Aue Gottfried von Stra burg Wolfram von Eschenbach which indeed describe instances of violence but adopt an extremely critical stance towards them It then proceeds to show how women were able to develop an independent identity in various genres and could present themselves as authorities in the public eye Mystic texts by Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France and Margery Kempe the medieval conduct poem known as Die Winsbeckin the Devout Books of Sisters composed in convents in South West Germany but also quasi historical documents such as the memoirs of Helene Kottaner or Anna Weckerin s cookery book demonstrate that far more women were in the public gaze than had hitherto been assumed and that they possessed the self confidence to establish their positions with their intellectual and their literary achievements

And in Our Time Antony Shuttleworth,2003 This book brings together essays which in diverse ways not only revise existitng views on thirties writing but also provide ways of accounting for its critical neglect The essays examine f0orm a variety of theoretical and critical perspectives a body of work that reflects the true diversity of the literary and cultural contexts of the thirties and includes studies on the work of Louis MacNeice Frank Sheed Christopher Dawson Alick West Christopher Caudwell Stevie Smith Storm Jameson Phyllis Bottome Ivy Compton Burnett Graham Greene Eric Ambler George Orwell Christina Stead Randall Swingler and Ralph Fox

Katherine Mansfield and the Bloomsbury Group Todd Martin,2017-06-01 The New Zealand born writer Katherine Mansfield associated intimately with many members of the

Bloomsbury group but her literary aesthetics placed her at a distance from the artistic works of the group With chapters written by leading international scholars Katherine Mansfield and the Bloomsbury Group explores this conflicted relationship Bringing together biographical and critical studies the book examines Mansfield's relationships personal and literary with such major Modernist figures as Virginia Woolf T S Eliot Aldous Huxley and Walter de la Mare as well as the ways in which her work engaged with and reacted against Bloomsbury In this way the book reveals the true extent of Mansfield's wider influence on 20th century modernist writing Kate Chopin Harold Bloom,2007 A collection of critical essays on Kate Chopin's work Stevie Smith and Authorship William May,2010-08-12 This book is a full length study of the British novelist poet and illustrator Stevie Smith 1902-1971 It draws on extensive archival material to offer new insights into her work challenging conventional readings of her as an eccentric It reveals the careful control with which she managed her public persona reassesses her allusive poetry in the light of her own conflicted response to written texts and traces her simultaneous preoccupation with and fear of her reading public William May considers the influence of artists such as George Grosz and Aubrey Beardsley on her apparently artless illustrations and explores her use of fiction and book reviews as a way of generating contexts for her poetry offering readers a fascinating in depth study that not only radically alters our understanding of Smith and her work but provides new perspectives on British twentieth century poetry and its reception

Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier,2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Virginia Woolf's Narration and the Influence of Painting: Mrs. Dalloway and To the Lighthouse Ahmed ouagandar,2020-05-19 The book explores the influence of painting on the narrative style of Virginia Woolf especially in two of her most famous novels Mrs Dalloway and To the Lighthouse Woolf was known for her experimental approach to storytelling The text argues that her interest in the visual arts particularly painting significantly shaped her writing style The author discusses how Woolf's use of stream of consciousness and how she weaves multiple perspectives together can be seen as analogous to the techniques used by painters to create a cohesive image out of multiple perspectives The book also examines specific examples from the novels where Woolf's writing is directly influenced by visual art such as her use of the symbol of the lighthouse in To the Lighthouse Overall the essay demonstrates how Virginia Woolf's love of painting and visual art shaped her unique narrative style and how her writing can be read in dialogue with the visual arts of her time The Modern Movement Chris Baldick,2004 A major new survey of literature in England during the first half of the twentieth century Chris Baldick places modernist with non modernist writings high art with low entertainment The Modern Movement ranges broadly covering psychological novels war poems detective stories satires children s books and other literary forms evolving in response to the new anxieties and exhilarations of twentieth century life
