Modernist Patterns Lit Visual Arts:

Modernist Patterns M. Roston, 1999-12-07 In this stimulating study the author explores how Conrad T S Eliot Woolf Joyce Faulkner Hemingway Huxley and others responded to the immediate challenges of their time to the implications of Freudian psychology molecular theory relativist theory and the general weakening of religious faith Assuming that artists and writers in coping with those problems would develop techniques in many ways comparable even where there was no direct contact he positions Modernist literature within the context of contemporary painting architecture and sculpture thereby providing some fascinating insights into the nature of the literary works themselves Modernist Soundscapes Angela Frattarola, 2018-11-12 This study questions how early twentieth century auditory technologies altered sound perception and how these developments shaped the modernist novel Without polarizing vision and audition this book reveals how modernists tend to use auditory perception to connect characters shifting the subject from a distanced judgmental observer to a reverberating body attuned to the moment Sacred and Secular in Medieval and Early Modern Cultures L.

Besserman, 2006-02-04 This book illuminates the pervasive interplay of sacred and secular phenomena in the literature history politics and religion of the Middle Ages and Early Modern periods The essays gathered here constitute a new way of applying a classic dichotomy to major cultural phenomena of the pre modern era The Search for Selfhood in Modern Literature M. Roston, 2001-09-05

The scientific achievements of the modern world failed to impress the leading writers of this century leaving them instead profoundly disturbed by a sense of lost values and of the insignificance of the individual in a universe seemingly indifferent to human concerns In The Search for Selfhood in Modern Literature Roston explores the strategies adopted by such mid century authors as Greene Salinger Osborne Baldwin and others in their attempt to cope with the spiritual vacuity strategies including the emergence of the anti hero and of literary existentialism and offer in the course of the investigation fascinatingly new insights into their work Graham Greene's Narrative Strategies M.

Roston, 2006-07-31 In Narrative Strategies Roston focuses upon the Greene s texts themselves and their manipulation of reader response highlighting the innovative strategies that Greene developed to cope with the mid century invalidation of the traditional hero The result is a stimulating new reading of the major novels Cultures of Modernism Cristanne Miller, 2007

Intertexts Patsy Stoneman, Ana María Sánchez-Arce, Angela Leighton, 2005 European Intertexts is the first fruit of an ongoing collaborative study aiming to challenge the isolationism of much critical work on English literature by exploring the interdependence of English and continental European literatures in writing by women While later volumes will deal with specific texts this introductory volume provides a descriptive framework and a theoretical basis for studies in the field Covering issues such as the role of English as a world language the definition of Europe and the current state of Translation Studies the book also surveys theories of intertextuality and demonstrates intertextual links between written and visual and film texts This book is itself pioneering in making a systematic approach to women's writings in English in the context of other European cultures Although Europe is a political reality this cultural interpenetration remains largely unexamined and these essays represent an important first step towards revealing that unexplored richness Russian Literature, Modernism and the Visual Arts Catriona Kelly, Stephen Lovell, 2000-03-09 In the Russian modernist era literature threw itself open to influences from other art forms most particularly the visual arts Collaborations between writers artists designers and theatre and cinema directors took place more intensively and productively than ever before or since Equally striking was the incursion of spatial and visual motifs and structures into verbal texts Verbal and visual principles of creation joined forces in an attempt to transform and surpass life through art Yet willed transcendence of the boundaries between art forms gave rise to confrontation and creative tension as well as to harmonious co operation This collection of essays by leading British American and Russian scholars first published in 2000 draws on a rich variety of material from Dostoevskii to Siniavskii from writers doodles to cabarets from well known modernists such as Akhmatova Malevich Platonov and Olesha to less well known figures to demonstrate the creative power and dynamism of Russian culture on the boundaries The Ethical Foundations of Postmodernity Nina Michaela von Dahler, Nina Michaela Von Dahler, 2013-07 A re turn to ethics which began in the 1980s and 1990s and is still predominant today has been ascribed to literary studies and theory In this book theoretical issues within ethics are discussed based on the examples of literary analyses The authors examined are Margaret Atwood Jeffrey Eugenides and Robert M Pirsig The main questions concern the foundation on which ethical concepts are based and the way in which such concepts function These topics are evidently connected to matters of human concepts and human nature in general which are understood to be fundamentally communicative Contrary to popular conclusions of relativity the need for a realist foundation of ethics implying universal validity will be revealed It is not only possible but also necessary to develop such an idea of ethics within a postmodern relativist framework A communicative foundationalist ethics will thus be designed With regard to literature an increasing emergence of first person narrative can be witnessed in addition to a new focus on a realist and more mimetic style after a peak of pluralist conceptions at the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twenty first centuries The analysis of such narrative situations will reveal the significance of the narrative generation of individual personalities for an understanding of ethical questions The conflict between relativist and realist points of view centers on the postmodern critique of the individual The study of the literary generation of individuals will elucidate means of confronting this critique The theoretical background includes the poststructuralist and communicative concepts of Judith Butler and Seyla Benhabib as well as Ernst Tugendhat's analytical approach Nina von Dahler studied English language and literature philosophy sociology and educational sciences at the Universities of Hamburg and Heidelberg This book is based on her Ph D thesis Iconotopism Ellen Spolsky, 2004 The essays in this collection expand the boundaries of inter art studies claiming that human beings have evolved to draw nourishment from pictures Ellen Spolsky argues in a polemical introduction that the recognition of our embodied need for pictures that is our human iconotropism provides a fresh way of understanding the relationship of works of art to their historical contexts Jacket Angels of Modernism S.

Hobson,2011-10-26 The angel can be viewed as a signal reference to modernist attempts to accommodate religious languages to self consciously modern cultures This book uses the angel to explore the relations between modernist literature and early twentieth century debates over the secular and or religious character of the modern age Modern and

Nabokov at the Limits Lisa Zunshine,2013-06-17 The eleven contributors to this volume investigate the connections between Nabokov s output and the fields of painting music and ballet E.E. Cummings: Poetry and Ecology Etienne

Terblanche,2012-01-01 By employing the modernist devices of fragmentation recombination and accentuated blank space E E Cummings engages singularly with being on earth This ecological achievement was largely ignored by the New Critics and the subsequent semiotic spirit which has been holding that the sign hardly has to do with concrete existence on earth

ironically perpetuated the neglect In this book Etienne Terblanche shows that Cummings s ecology relocates his oeuvre and status in contemporary discourse For the poet follows mimes and connects with the unfolding changes of earthly existence and growth what he views as the Tao of being in his lyricism sex poems satire and visual verbal poems This is true especially of the elusive manner or how of his poetry overall Careful ecocritical reading of this active culture nature integrity in his poetry brings about an imperative new understanding and placement of his project It further serves to show that in their different ways T S Eliot and Ezra Pound engage with nature in a similar way thus again accentuating the importance of Cummings s poetic project to the neglected and vital ecocritical perception of modernism in poetry Navigating the

Transnational in Modern American Literature and Culture Tara Stubbs,Doug Haynes,2017-03-16 This study develops the important work carried out on American literature through the frameworks of transnational transatlantic and trans local studies to ask what happens when these same aspects become intrinsic to the critical narrative Much cultural criticism since the 1990s has sought to displace perceptions of American exceptionalism with broader notions of Atlanticism transnationalism world system and trans localism as each has redefined the US and the world more generally This collection shows how the remapping of America in terms of global networks and as a set of particular localities or even glocalities now plays out in Americanist scholarship reflecting on the critical consequences of the spatial turn in American literary and cultural studies Spanning twentieth and twenty first century American poetry fiction memoir visual art publishing and television and locating the US in Caribbean African Asian European and other contexts this volume argues for a re modelling of American-ness with the transnational as part of its innate rhetoric. It includes discussions of travel, migration, disease, media, globalization, and countless other examples of inflowing. Essays focus on subjects tracing the contemporary contours of the transnational, such as the role of the US in the rise of the global novel, the impact of Caribbean history on American thought, and vice versa, transatlantic cultural and philosophical genealogies and correspondences, and the exchanges between the poetics of American space and those of other world spaces. Asking questions about the way the American eye has traversed and consumed the objects and cultures of the world, but how that world is resistant, this volume will make an important contribution to American and Transatlantic literary studies.

The Reception of Joseph Conrad in Europe Robert Hampson, Véronique Pauly, 2022-05-05. Born and brought up in Poland, bilingual in French and Polish but living for most of his professional life in England and writing in English, Joseph Conrad was from the start as much a European writer as he was a British one, and his work, from his earliest fictions through Heart of Darkness, Nostromo, and The Secret Agent to his later novels, has repeatedly been the focal point of discussions about key issues of the modern age. With chapters written by leading international scholars, this book provides a wide-ranging survey of the reception, translation, and publication history of Conrad's works across Europe. Covering reviews and critical discussion, and with some attention to adaptations in other media, these chapters situate Conrad's works in their social and political context. The book also includes bibliographies of key translations in each of the European countries covered and a timeline of Conrad's reception throughout the continent.

The Cambridge Companion to Modernism Michael Levenson, 2011-09-15. Circular Narratives in Modern European Literature Juan Luis Toribio

Vazquez, 2022-06-16 Breaking with linearity the ruling narrative model in the Jewish Christian tradition since the ancient world many 20th century European writers adopted circular narrative forms Juan Luis Toribio Vazquez shows this trend was not a unified nor conscious movement but rather a series of works arising sporadically in different countries at different times using a variety of circular structures to express similar concerns and ideas about the world This study also shows how the renewed understanding of narrative form leading to this circular trend was anticipated by Nietzsche's critiques of truth knowledge language and metaphysics and especially by his related discussions of nihilism and the eternal recurrence Starting with an analysis of the theory and genealogy of linear narrative the author charts the emergence of Nietzsche's idea of eternal return before then turning to the history of the circular narrative trend This history is explored from its inception in the works of August Strindberg Gertrude Stein and Azorín through its development in the interwar years by writers such as Raymond Queneau and Vladimir Nabokov to its full flowering in the work of authors James Joyce or Samuel Beckett among others and its later employment by post war writers including Alain Robbe-Grillet Italo Calvino and Maurice Blanchot Through a series of close readings the book aims to highlight the various ways in which narrative circularity serves to break with an essentially teleological and theological thinking Finally Toribio Vazquez concludes by proposing a new typology of non linear narratives which builds on the work of recent narratologists
