Modernity and the Millennium Juan Ricardo Cole,1998 Includes bibliographical references and index Studies in Bābī and Bahā'ī History: Modernity and the millennium: the genesis of the Baha'i faith in the nineteenth-century Middle East Moojan Momen,1982 Modernity and Culture Leila Tarazi Fawaz,Christopher Alan Bayly,Robert Ilbert,2002 Between the 1890s and 1920s cities in the vast region stretching from the Mediterranean Sea to the Indian Ocean were experiencing political social economic and cultural changes that had been set in motion at least since the early nineteenth century Avoiding such dichotomies as East West and modernity tradition this book provides a comparative analysis of contested versions of the concept of modernity examining not only the high culture of scholars and the literati but also popular music the visual arts and journalism Islam and the Baha'i Faith Oliver Scharbrodt,2008-04-25 This book explores the development of Islam and the Baha i faith in the nineteenth century via the examination of two key reformers The Baha'i Faith in Africa Anthony Lee,2011-10-28 One million Baha is live in africa This is the first academic volume to explore the history of this movement on the continent The book discusses the diverse and contractivory American Iranian British and African contributions to this new religious movement Jewish Identities in Iran Mehrdad Amanat,2011-04-30 The nineteenth century was a time of significant global socioeconomic change and Persian Jews like other Iranians were deeply affected by its challenges For minority faith groups living in nineteenth century Iran religious conversion to Islam both voluntary and involuntary was the primary means of social integration and assimilation However why was it that some Persian Jews who had for centuries resisted the relative security of Islam instead embraced the Baha i Faith which was subject to harsher persecution than Judaism Baha ism emerged from the messianic Babi movement in the mid nineteenth century and attracted large numbers of mostly Muslim converts and its ecumenical message appealed to many Iranian Jews Many converts adopted fluid multiple religious identities revealing an alternative to the widely accepted notion of religious experience as an oppressive rigidly dogmatic and consistently divisive social force Mehrdad Amanat explores the conversion experiences of Jewish families during this time Many converted sporadically to Islam although not always voluntarily The most notorious case of forced mass conversion in modern times occurred in Mashhad in 1839 when in response to an organized attack the entire Jewish community converted to Shi i Islam A contrast is offered by a Tehran Jewish family of court physicians who nominally converted to Islam and yet continued to openly observe Jewish rituals while also remaining intellectually sympathetic to Baha ism Many petty merchants and pedlars in a position to benefit from Iran s expanding market migrated from ancient communities to thriving trade centres which proved fertile grounds for the spread of new ideas and often conversion to Christianity or Baha ism This is an important scholarly contribution which also provides a fascinating insight into the personal experiences of Jewish families living in nineteenth century Iran Making and Remaking Empire in Early Qajar Iran Assef Ashraf,2024-02 Uses political practices and a socially oriented approach to explain imperial formation

under the Qajars in early nineteenth century Iran

Poverty and Charity in Middle Eastern Contexts Michael Bonner, Mine Ener, Amy Singer, 2012-02-01 Offering insights and analysis in a field that has only recently come into existence this book explores the ideals and institutions through which Middle Eastern societies from the rise of Islam in the seventh century C E to the present day have confronted poverty and the poor By introducing new sources and presenting familiar ones with new questions the contributors examine ideas about poverty and the poor ideals and practices of charity and state and private initiatives of poor relief over this extensive time span They avoid easy generalizations about Islam and the Middle East as they seek to set the ideals and practices in comparative perspective The Baha'is of Iran , The Baha'is of Iran Dominic Parviz Brookshaw, Seena B. Fazel, 2012-10-02 The Baha i community of Iran is the country s largest non Muslim religious minority This collection of essays presents a comprehensive study of the social and historical development of the Baha i community and its role in shaping modern Iran Central to this study is the pioneering character of the Baha i community in the late 19th and early 20th century with chapters examining the role of women in the Baha i community the impact of Baha i run schools on Iranian society Baha i contributions to public health initiatives and the influence of Baha i thought and the actions of individual Baha is on the Constitutional Revolution of 1906 1911 Conversion to the Baha i Faith is another important theme as contributors investigate the phenomenon of large scale conversion to the Baha i Faith from the Jewish and Zoroastrian communities Finally although persecution of the Baha is has drawn the attention of the Western media until now few scholars working in the field of Iranian studies have chosen to write on the history or details of this persecution Here five prominent figures in the field redress this balance and look at different aspects of this persecution including its historical background the attitude of secular Iranians persecution before and after the Islamic Revolution of 1979 and human rights perspectives This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Iranian studies Middle Eastern studies and comparative religion and with many chapters authored by leading academics in Iranian studies The Baha is of Iran addresses both a gap in academic literature on the Baha i Faith and in the study of modern Iran in general Holy People of the World Phyllis G. Jestice, 2004-12-15 A cross cultural encyclopedia of the most significant holy people in history examining why people in a wide range of religious traditions throughout the world have been regarded as divinely inspired The first reference on the subject to span all the world s major religions Holy People of the World A Cross Cultural Encyclopedia examines the impact of individuals who through personal charisma and inspirational deeds served both as glorious examples of human potential and as envoys for the divine Holy People of the World contains nearly 1 100 biographical sketches of venerated men and women Written by religious studies experts and historians each article focuses on the basic question How did this person come to be regarded as holy In addition the encyclopedia features 20 survey articles on views of holy people in the major religious traditions such as Islam Buddhism and African religions as well as 64 comparative articles on aspects of holiness and veneration across cultures such as awakening and conversion experiences heredity gender asceticism and persecution Whether exploring by religion culture or historic period this extensively cross referenced resource offers a wealth of insights into one of the most revealing and least explored common denominators of spiritual traditions Baha'i and Globalisation Annika Hvithamar,Margit Warburg,Morten Warmind,2005-12-01

Globalisation has become a buzzword that typically refers to the intensifying integration of the world economy especially as midwifed by technological advances It also implies a growing political and cultural sense that all humanity is globally interdependent There have always been individuals of course who have advocated such awareness one of them being the founder of the Baha i faith who formulated a spiritual equivalent as the religion s central doctrine in the late 19th century Ye are the fruits of one tree and the leaves of one branch Its emphasis on global unification made Baha i an obvious candidate for a case study on new religions and globalisation The chapters in this volume fall into two sections diachronic and synchronic The first part is organised chronologically beginning with the emergence of the globalist tendency in the messianic vision of Babism the precursor to Baha i and concluding with an analytic history of its leaders changing attitudes to international politics The second part considers a variety of global themes in contemporary Baha i practice including global thought in Baha i writings the impact of the internet and the triumphalist and secular strains in Baha i identity Though five million members make it one of the world s most successful new religions Baha i has attracted little scholarly attention Most of the academics concentrating on Baha i have contributed to this volume which will appeal not only to students of modern religious movements but to anyone interested in the ways religions can adapt to and embrace the modern world Bombay

Islam Nile Green,2011-03-21 As a thriving port city nineteenth century Bombay attracted migrants from across India and beyond Nile Green s Bombay Islam traces the ties between industrialization imperialism and the production of religion to show how Muslim migration fueled demand for a wide range of religious suppliers as Christian missionaries competed with Muslim religious entrepreneurs for a stake in the new market Enabled by a colonial policy of non intervention in religious affairs and powered by steam travel and vernacular printing Bombay s Islamic productions were exported as far as South Africa and Iran Connecting histories of religion labour and globalization the book examines the role of ordinary people mill hands and merchants in shaping the demand that drove the market By drawing on hagiographies travelogues doctrinal works and poems in Persian Urdu and Arabic Bombay Islam unravels a vernacular modernity that saw people from across the Indian Ocean drawn into Bombay s industrial economy of enchantment A History of Islam in America Kambiz

GhaneaBassiri,2010-04-19 Muslims began arriving in the New World long before the rise of the Atlantic slave trade Kambiz GhaneaBassiri s fascinating book traces the history of Muslims in the United States and their different waves of immigration and conversion across five centuries through colonial and antebellum America through world wars and civil rights struggles to the contemporary era The book tells the often deeply moving stories of individual Muslims and their lives as immigrants and citizens within the broad context of the American religious experience showing how that experience has been integral to the evolution of American Muslim institutions and practices This is a unique and intelligent portrayal of a diverse religious community and its relationship with America It will serve as a strong antidote to the current politicized dichotomy between Islam and the West which has come to dominate the study of Muslims in America and further afield The End of the Ottoman Empire and the Forging of the Modern Middle East Andrew Wender, Martin Bunton, 2025-02-18 In one hundred and twenty pages this book provides a compelling account of the shaping of the modern Middle East and the critical part played in that process by the Ottoman Empire even as it fell apart It offers a mine of background information for anyone wishing to understand the current scene Thirty four well chosen documents mainly culled from the archives buttress and illuminate the story Jonathan Schneer Georgia Institute of Technology author of The Balfour Declaration The Origins of Arab Israeli Conflict Prohibited Identities Human Rights Watch (Organization), Hossam Bahgat, 2007 And introduction Recommendations Religious and national identity in Egypt Egypt's Baha'is and the policy of erasure Conversion and freedom of religion No return Official obstacles to re-converting to Christianity In the name of the Father Involuntary Conversions Freedom of religion and Human Rights Law Methodology Exile and the Nation Afshin Marashi, 2020-06-08 Groundbreaking There is little doubt this book will become foundational reading for any student of Iranian modernity and nationalism Diaspora A Journal of Transnational Studies In the aftermath of the seventh century Islamic conquest of Iran Zoroastrians departed for India Known as the Parsis they slowly lost contact with their ancestral land until the nineteenth century when steam powered sea travel the increased circulation of Zoroastrian themed books and the philanthropic efforts of Parsi benefactors sparked a new era of interaction between the two groups Tracing the cultural and intellectual exchange between Iranian nationalists and the Parsi community during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Exile and the Nation shows how this interchange led to the collective reimagining of Parsi and Iranian national identity and the influence of antiquity on modern Iranian nationalism which previously rested solely on European forms of thought Iranian nationalism Afshin Marashi argues was also the byproduct of the complex history resulting from the demise of the early modern Persianate cultural system as well as one of the many cultural heterodoxies produced within the Indian Ocean world Crossing the boundaries of numerous fields of study this book reframes Iranian nationalism within the context of the connected transnational and global history of the modern era Well written clearly argued Transnational history at its best Middle East Journal Marashi's engaging biographies highlight the significance of Parsi Zoroastrians to the related restoration of Iranian authenticity Journal of Asian Studies A richly textured study Peyk Magazine Exile and the Nation is as important a contribution to colonial Indian history as it is to understanding the origins of the modern Middle East Los Angeles Review of Books Modernity's Classics Sarah C. Humphreys, Rudolf G Wagner, 2013-02-11 This book presents critical studies of modern reconfigurations of conceptions of the past of the classical and of national heritage Its scope is global China India Egypt Iran Judaism the Greco Roman world and interdisciplinary textual philology history of art and architecture philosophy gardening Its emphasis is on the complexity of the modernization process and of reactions to it ideas and technologies travelled from India to Iran and from Japan to China while reactions show tensions between museumization and the recreation of presence It challenges readers to rethink the assumptions of the disciplines in which they were trained

Citizens of the World Margit Warburg, 2018-08-14 Citizens of the World deals with the Baha is and their religion While covering the historical development in sufficient detail to serve as a general monograph on Baha i emphasis is laid on examining contemporary Baha i with the Danish Baha i community as a recurrent case The book discusses Baha i religious texts rituals economy everyday life demographic development mission strategies leadership and international activism in analyses based on primary material such as interview studies among the Baha is fieldwork data from the Baha i World Centre in Israel and field trips around the world The approach is a combination of history of religions and sociology of religion within a theoretical framework of religion and globalisation Several general topics in the study of new religions are covered The book contributes to the theoretical study of globalisation by proposing a new model for analysing globalisation and transnational religions

The Modern Middle East Ilan Pappé, 2013-09-13 This hugely successful ground breaking book is the first introductory textbook on the Modern Middle East to foreground the urban rural cultural and women s histories of the region over its political and economic history Ilan Papp begins his narrative at the end of the First World War with the Ottoman heritage and concludes at the present day with the political discourse of Islam Providing full geographical coverage of the region The Modern Middle East opens with a carefully argued introduction which outlines the methodology used in the textbook provides a thematic and comparative approach to the region helping students to see the peoples of the Middle East and the developments that affect their lives as part of a larger world includes insights gained from new historiographical trends and a critical approach to conventional state and nation centred historiographies includes case studies debates maps photos an up to date bibliography and a glossarial index This second edition has been brought right up to date with recent events and includes a new chapter on the media revolution and the effect of media globalization on the Middle East and a revised and expanded discussion on modern Iranian history
