Modernization Crisis:

The Challenge of Revolution Vladimir Mau, Irina Starodubrovskaya, 2001-02-22 This volume provides an challenging and controversial explanation of the recent events in Russia It examines the causes processes and consequences of Russia's recent political development Drawing on and criticizing the existing literature the book also shows how the recent Russian experience casts light on general theories of revolution and comparative political developments The transformation in Russia is usually compared with transformations in other post communist countries The authors argue that the Russian transformation should be explained in the logic of the great revolutions of the past such as the English Civil War the French Revolution and the Bolshevik Revolution The difficulties and inconsistency of Russian reforms are usually explained as a result of mistakes made by reformers This book argues however that these problems should be considered as a natural consequence of the weak state In revolution the weakness of state power is inevitable resulting from social fragmentation property rights transformation changes in the interests of different social groups Hence the authors argue that most of the transitional problems in Russia were unavoidable The authors go on to argue that revolutions are usually considered as rapid change made through violence However the spontaneous character of change in the situation of a weak state is a much more important feature of any revolution than violence The book contains unique interviews with four leaders of the Russian transformation Mikhail Gorbachev Alexander Yakovlev Yegor Gaidar and Gennadii Burbulis as well as the personal experience of the authors who were deeply involved in the practical process of Russian transformation

Routes Into the Abyss Helmut Konrad, Wolfgang Maderthaner, 2013-06-01 Examining the 1930s and the different reactions to the crisis this volume offers a global comparative perspective that includes a comparison across time to give insight into the contemporary global recession Germany Italy Austria and Spain with their antidemocratic authoritarian or fascistic answers to the economic crisis are compared not only to an opposite European perspective the Swedish example but also to other global perspectives and their political consequences in Japan China India Turkey Brazil and the United States The book offers no recipe for economic social or political action in today's recession but it shows a wide range of reactions in the past some of which led to catastrophe

Salvaging Modernity: A Social Contract for the Age of Permacrisis Domonkos Sik, 2025-09-25 Modernity is stuck on an unsustainable course which poses a challenge to both critical theory and praxis My book develops a comprehensive diagnosis of the times by reviewing the rapidly growing field of critical theories that focus on structural paradoxes and social suffering To address the complex challenges of the era of permacrisis various emancipatory praxes are elaborated from the perspective of intersubjective e g mimetic violence technological e g algorithmic reification and discursive e g cynical justification distortions In order to provide a synthetic framework a new social contract is proposed based on responsibility towards the particularistic other instead of universal justice

Islam, the Middle East, and the New Global Hegemony Simon Murden, 2002 Murden strategic studies and international affairs Britannia Royal Naval College examines how the remorseless march of the globalized Western hegemony is changing Muslim politics and culture and how Muslim peoples are reacting to it After critically examining the West's cultural discourse about Islam he discusses the way that U S projects military power in the Middle East and looks at varying responses by Muslim states and Islamic activists Islamic engagement with the global economic order is also explored The tensions between Islamists and authoritarian secular states is examined with special attention paid to the democratization attempts taking place in Iran Finally the possibilities for the Islamic countries to push counterhegemonic plans is negatively evaluated Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Islam Instrumentalized Jean-Philippe Platteau, 2017-06-06 In this book economist Jean Philippe Platteau addresses the question does Islam the religion of Muslims bear some responsibility for a lack of economic development in the countries in which it dominates In his nuanced approach Platteau challenges the widespread view that the doctrine of Islam is reactionary in the sense that it defends tradition against modernity and individual freedom He also questions the view that fusion between religion and politics is characteristic of Islam and predisposes it to theocracy He disagrees with the substantivist view that Islam is a major obstacle to modern development because of a merging of religion and the state or a fusion between the spiritual and political domains But he also identifies how Islam's decentralized organization in the context of autocratic regimes may cause political instability and make reforms costly

Social Economy in China and the World Ngai Pun, Ben Hok-bun Ku, Hairong Yan, Anita Koo, 2015-08-20 Thirty years of economic transformation has turned China into one of the major players in the global capitalist economy However its economic growth has generated rising problems in inequality alienation and sustainability with the agrarian crises of the 1990s giving rise to real social outcry to the extent that they became the object of central government policy reformulations Contributing to a paradigm shift in the theory and practices of economic development this book examines the concept of social economy in China and around the world It offers to rethink space economy and community in a trans border context which moves us beyond both planned and market economies The chapters address theoretical issues critical reflections and case studies on the practice of social economy in the context of globalization and its attempt to create an alternative modernity Through this the book builds a platform for further cross disciplinary and cross boundary dialogue on the future of social economy in China and the world With examples from Asia North America Latin America and Europe this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese and Asian social policy and development but also those of social economy from an international perspective Hill-Burton Is--, 1971 Russian Energy in a Changing World Jakub M.

Godzimirski, 2016-03-23 For a long time Russia's position as a key global energy player has enhanced Moscow's international economic and political influence whilst causing concern amongst other states fearful of becoming too dependent on Russia as an energy supplier The Global Financial Crisis shook this established image of Russia as an indispensable energy superpower immune to negative external influences and revealed the full extent of Russia's dependence on oil and gas for economic and political influence This led to calls from within the country for a new approach where energy resources were no longer regarded wholly as an asset but also a potential curse resulting in an over reliance on one sector thwarting modernization of the economy and the country as a whole In this fascinating and timely volume leading Russian and Western scholars examine various aspects of Russian energy policy and the opportunities and constraints that influence the choices made by the country's energy decision makers Contributors focus on Russia's energy relations with the rest of the world alongside internal debates about the need for diversification and modernisation in a changing economy country and world system where overdependence on energy commodities has become a key concern for customer and supplier alike China Under the Four Modernizations United States.
