City teachers attack board, ponder strike

Modesto teachers are attacking the city board of education and considering a strike over a proposed salary schedule. The teachers' union, the Modesto Education Association, says the board's proposal is "a slap in the face" of the teachers' profession. The union is demanding a 10% raise, while the board is offering only a 5% increase. The teachers are also concerned about the board's plan to hire more teachers without increasing the number of students. The union is planning a strike if the board does not meet their demands by June 1.
