Moghul Malerei:

The Art of Multiculturalism Roland Benedikter, Judith Hilber, 2018-11-28 This book describes what an art of multiculturalism could be and how in turn multiculturalism could be conceived as a form of art It focuses on the early and middle work of Indian born U S writer Bharati Mukherjee in particular on her understanding of the fusion of literature and painting as a tool to inspire the creation of a new global society by empowering minorities through fostering and multiplying differences in unity and unities in difference The book includes in condensed ways an explanation of Mukherjee s use of ancient Indian painting techniques for postmodern writing and it provides a short introduction to the relation between multiculturalism postmodernity and imaginal politics The book is written in an easy to read style accessible to all interested in the topic high school and university students and teachers those generally interested in the interface between literature the arts and politics and specialists in multicultural studies and global and international studies The book is particularly suited to use in teaching

The Rise of the Indo-Afghan Empire, c. 1710-1780 Jos J.L. Gommans, 2023-11-27 The Rise of The Indo Afghan Empire c 1710 1780 deals with the magnificent world of Afghan nomads horse dealers and mercenaries bridging the frontiers between the old metropolitan centres of India Iran and Central Asia During the eighteenth century they succeeded in establishing a vigorous new system of Indo Afghan states In Central Asia the Afghans created an imperial tradition on the basis of long standing Perso Islamic ideals In India along the caravan routes with Turkistan and Tibet they carved out thriving principalities in association with military service and the breeding and trade in war horses By fully incorporating this Afghan ascendancy into the fabric of Islamic and world history the author challenges the widely held notion of a gloomy Afghan past

During Caspers,2012-12-06 When in 1925 the initiative was taken by the Kern Institute Leiden to start the publica tion of an Annual Bibliography of Indian Archaeology the Board of the Institute could do so with confidence as it was sure of the assistance of scholars all over the world as to the supply of publications as well as of information With the help of this material a bibliography could be compiled by a small team of highly skilled archaeologists who could devote part of their time and attention to such a task for the benefit of their colleagues in all parts of the world Times since then have changed and circumstances have become less and less favourable To find classified labour for the compilation and editing of such a bibliography has become extremely difficult and this the more so as this work cannot be paid in accordance with the standards for this branch of classified documentation The work has to be done as a part of the daily routine work even a scholar in today s time is expected to perform and which he cannot but consider as being detrimental to the performing of those parts of his work that demand the use of those qualifications that actually make him the expert

Court Cultures in the Muslim World Albrecht Fuess, Jan-Peter Hartung, 2014-06-03 Courts and the complex phenomenon of the courtly society have received intensified interest in academic research over recent decades however the field of Islamic court culture has so far been overlooked This book provides a comparative perspective on the history of courtly culture in Muslim societies from the earliest times to the nineteenth century and presents an extensive collection of images of courtly life and architecture within the Muslim realm The thematic methodology employed by the contributors underlines their interdisciplinary and comprehensive approach to issues of politics and patronage from across the Islamic world stretching from Cordoba to India Themes range from the religious legitimacy of Muslim rulers terminologies for court culture in Oriental languages Muslim concepts of space for royal representation accessibility of rulers the role of royal patronage for Muslim scholars and artists to the growing influence of European courts as role models from the eighteenth century onwards Discussing specific terminologies for courts in Oriental languages and explaining them to the non specialist chapters describe the specific features of Muslim courts and point towards future research areas As such it fills this important gap in the existing literature in the areas of Islamic history religion and Islam in particular
