Providing a fresh perspective on an important but underappreciated group of late nineteenth century French painters this is the first book to provide an in depth account of the Nabis practice of the decorative and its significance for twentieth century modernism Over the course of the ten years that define the Nabi movement 1890 1900 its principal artists included Edouard Vuillard Pierre Bonnard Maurice Denis Paul S sier and Paul Ranson The author reconstructs the Nabis relationship to Impressionism mass culture literary Symbolism Art Nouveau Wagnerianism and a revolutionary artistic tradition in order to show how their painterly practice emerges out of the pressing questions defining modernism around 1900 She shows that the Nabis were engaged nonetheless with issues that are always at stake in accounts of nineteenth century modernist painting issues such as the relationship of high and low art of individual sensibility and collective identity of the public and private spheres The Nabis and Intimate Modernism is a rigorous study of the intellectual and artistic endeavors that inform the Nabis decorative domestic paintings in the 1890s and argues for their centrality to painterly modernism The book ends up not only repositioning the Nabis to occupy a crucial place in modernism's development from 1860 to 1914 but also challenges that narrative to place more emphasis on notions of decoration totality and interiority Anna Corba, 2013-06-04 Take a trip to Paris without leaving your own backyard Learn to create line drawings of all things quintessentially French with this charming volume filled with easy to follow exercises Casual doodles will take on a Parisian je ne sais quoi as you render the majestic tiers of the Eiffel Tower sketch the playful outlines of a fleur de lys or learn to draw the perfect croissant Sure to delight Francophiles and lovers of vintage ephemera alike Anna Corba's evocative collages provide an alluring backdrop to her drawing instructions In a gorgeous little package as pretty as a French pastry including decorative blank pages in back that tear out so readers can doodle their own masterpieces this sweet book is an ideal gift for The New France Denvs Amiel, 1919 anyone longing for la belle vie French History from Caesar to Waterloo Agnes Robinson, 2018-03-15 When Julius Caesar invaded the country some fifty years before the birth of Christ he found it divided into three principal parts there was Aquitaine the land of springs and waters extending in the southwest from the ocean to the Garonne already a land of pleasant life rich in commerce and refinement there was Celtic Gaul the west which reached from the Atlantic to the Marne and the Seine and there was Belgian Gaul as Caesar calls it that north eastern space between the Seine and the Rhine an expanse which roughly corresponds to the provinces devastated by the Great War French History from Caesar to Waterloo Mary Robinson, 2017-12-03 When Julius Caesar invaded the country some fifty years before the birth of Christ he found it divided into three principal parts there was Aquitaine the land of springs and waters extending in the southwest from the ocean to the Garonne already a land of pleasant life rich in commerce and refinement there was Celtic Gaul the west which reached from the Atlantic to the Marne and the Seine and there was Belgian Gaul as Caesar calls it that north eastern space between the Seine and the Rhine an expanse which roughly corresponds to the provinces devastated by the Great War Copies of original letters from the French army in Egypt. E. Burton, 2018-10-18 The Terror of 1793 94 the Paris Commune of 1871 the Dreyfus Affair explosions of violence punctuated French history from the start of the Revolution until the Liberation at the close of World War II The distinguished scholar Richard D E Burton here offers a stunningly original account of these outbursts concluding that recourse to political violence was not occasional and abnormal but rather the usual pattern in French history Instead of adhering to conventional chronological lines Blood in the City is structured topologically around a number of major Parisian sites of memory including Place de la Concorde Sacr Coeur and the Eiffel Tower For thirty years Burton has visited and revisited Paris criss crossing the streets on foot and lived with great nineteenth and twentieth century literary depictions of the city Drawing on historical literary visual anthropological and psychological sources he develops a wide ranging account of violence in modern French politics In so doing he provides powerful insights into political violence scapegoating the idea of sacrifice and the widespread French obsession with conspiracy Burton demonstrates that time and again the same basic scenario has been acted out on the streets of Paris one or more people would be singled out from the community and imprisoned exiled or more often subjected to violence by the crowd or the state In particular he explores how Catholicism in its extreme ultrareactionary form shaped the worldviews of Parisians and how the killing of a sacrificial victim came to be seen as a reenactment of the crucifixion of Christ
