Kapp,1972 Protection of Traditional Cultural Expressions in Latin America Anna Friederike Busch,2015-05-19 This book analyses the topic of protecting traditional cultural expressions TCEs in Latin America It questions classic legal approaches and involves the interface of anthropology and law The study analyses regional national and local particularities of law on paper and law in reality It includes personal fieldwork research in selected countries and puts light on the political socio economic and environmental dimension of the topic Based upon these insights the study gives recommendations for a more enhanced interdisciplinary understanding and protection of TCEs Latin America is still rich of cultural traditions and bio and sociodiversity This region is the cradle of the international discussion on protecting TCEs The national situations are diverse and allow conclusive comparisons Some countries have established concrete protection systems like Panama and made useful experiences It is time to resume What do TCEs really mean Should they be protected by law and if so how What can we learn from the practical experiences made so far The following is clear The true test for any new legislation in Latin America and elsewhere is its impact on the everyday life Mola Making Charlotte Patera,1984 Indiansk applikationssyning fra Panama Adventure Guide Patricia Katzman,2004 I am the travel editor for a national travel magazine and have recently had the privilege of using Patricia Katzmans excellent guide book to Panama First the cover is outstanding one of the best I have seen I loved all the pictures they added so much Second the print is readable Third and most important I found this guide to be extremely helpful to the average tourist planning a trip The various areas and activities and the way to reach each destination were well researched I consider many guide books to be useful only to those who know exactly where they are going probably with Art Projects that Dazzle & Delight Karen Trush,Karen Trush,Karen Backus,Linda Evans,Mary Thompson,2002 *Beach Ball Collage Patchwork Pets Symmetrical Smiles*Kids will love these creative and colorful no fail art activities that tie into popular themes such as seasons animals and friends Easy how to s guide you through each step from introducing the projects to displaying them Created and classroom tested by four art teachers these surefire activities are fun for every student For use with Grades 2 3 Indigenous Interfaces Jennifer Gómez Menjívar,Gloria Elizabeth Chacón,2019-05-07 Cultural preservation linguistic revitalization intellectual heritage and environmental sustainability became central to Indigenous movements in Mexico and Central America after 1992 While the emergence of these issues triggered important conversations none to date have examined the role that new media has played in accomplishing their objectives Indigenous Interfaces provides the first thorough examination of indigeneity at the interface of cyberspace Correspondingly it examines the impact of new media on the struggles for self determination that Indigenous peoples undergo in Mexico and Central America The volume s contributors highlight the fresh approaches that Mesoamerica s Indigenous peoples have given to new media from YouTubing Maya rock music to hashtagging in Zapotec Together they argue that these cyberspatial activities both maintain tradition and ensure its continuity Without considering the implications of new technologies Indigenous Interfaces argues twenty first century indigeneity in Mexico and Central America cannot be successfully documented evaluated and comprehended Indigenous Interfaces rejects the myth that indigeneity and information technology are incompatible through its compelling analysis of the relationships between Indigenous peoples and new media The volume illustrates how Indigenous peoples are selectively and strategically choosing to interface with cybertechnology highlights Indigenous interpretations of new media and brings to center Indigenous communities who are resetting modes of communication and redirecting the flow of information It convincingly argues that interfacing with traditional technologies simultaneously with new media gives Indigenous peoples an edge on the claim to autonomous and sovereign ways of being Indigenous in the twenty first century Contributors Arturo Arias Debra A Castillo Gloria Elizabeth Chac n Adam W Coon Emiliana Cruz Taj w D az Robles Mauricio Espinoza Alicia Ivonne Estrada Jennifer G mez Menj var Sue P Haglund Brook Danielle Lillehaugen Paul Joseph L pez Oro Rita M Palacios Gabriela Spears Rico Paul Worley Crafting

Kuna Art and Shamanism Paolo Fortis,2013-01-02 Known for their beautiful textile art the Kuna of Panama have been scrutinized by anthropologists for decades Perhaps surprisingly this scrutiny has overlooked the magnificent Kuna craft of nuchukana wooden anthropomorphic carvings which play vital roles in curing and other Kuna rituals Drawing on long term fieldwork Paolo Fortis at last brings to light this crucial cultural facet illuminating not only Kuna aesthetics and art production but also their relation to wider social and cosmological concerns Exploring an art form that informs birth and death personhood the dream world the natural world religion gender roles and ecology Kuna Art and Shamanism provides a rich understanding of this society s visual system and the ways in which these groundbreaking ethnographic findings can enhance Amerindian scholarship overall Fortis also explores the fact that to ask what it means for the Kuna people to carve the figure of a person is to pose a riddle about the culture s complete concept of knowing Also incorporating notions of landscape islands gardens and ancient trees as well as cycles of life including the influence of illness Fortis places the statues at the center of a network of social relationships that entangle people with nonhuman entities As an activity carried out by skilled elderly men who possess embodied knowledge of lifelong transformations the carving process is one that mediates mortal worlds with those of immortal primordial spirits Kuna Art and Shamanism immerses readers in this sense of unity and opposition between soul and body internal forms and external appearances and image and design The J. Paul Getty Museum Journal The J. Paul Getty Museum,1993-01-28 The J Paul Getty Museum Journal has been published annually since 1974 It contains scholarly articles and shorter notes pertaining to objects in the Museum s seven curatorial departments

Antiquities Manuscripts Paintings Drawings Decorative Arts Sculpture and Works of Art and Photographs The Journal also contains an illustrated checklist of the Museum's acquisitions for the previous year a staff listing and a statement by the Museum's Director outlining the year's most important activities Volume 19 of the J Paul Getty Museum Journal includes articles by Nicholas Penny Ariane van Suchtelen Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann and Virginia Roehrig Kaufmann Frits Scholten David Harris Cohen and Dawson W Carr Kuna Crafts, Gender, and the Global Economy Karin E. Tice, 2010-01-01

Brightly colored and intricately designed molas have become popular with buyers across the United States Europe and Japan many of whom have never heard of the San Blas Kuna of Panama who make the fabric pictures that adorn the clothing wall hangings and other goods we buy In this study Karin Tice explores the impact of the commercialization of mola production on Kuna society one of the most important yet least studied social changes to occur in San Blas in this century She argues that far from being a cohesive force commercialization has resulted in social differentiation between the genders and among Kuna women residing in different parts of the region She also situates this political economic history within a larger global context of international trade political intrigue and ethnic tourism to offer insights concerning commercial craft production that apply far beyond the Kuna case These findings based on extensive ethnographic field research constitute important reading for scholars and students of anthropology women's studies and economics They also offer an indigenous perspective on the twentieth century version of Columbus's landing the arrival of a cruise ship bearing wealthy souvenir seeking tourists
