influenced by her own experiences in youth organizations and outdoor activities Her background in education and her passion for empowering young girls through engaging stories undoubtedly shaped her desire to write this book As her personal experiences echo in the narratives she creates Vandercook s work reflects the values of independence and leadership she championed This engaging tale is a must read for those interested in early American literature and the depiction of youth culture during a transformative period Readers will appreciate Vandercook s ability to capture the essence of adventure and friendship making it an inspiring read for children and adults alike Report of the Auditor South

Dakota. Auditor's Office,1913 A Golden Haze of Memory Stephanie E. Yuhl,2006-03-08 Charleston South Carolina today enjoys a reputation as a destination city for cultural and heritage tourism In A Golden Haze of Memory Stephanie E Yuhl looks back to the crucial period between 1920 and 1940 when local leaders developed Charleston s trademark image as America s Most Historic City Eager to assert the national value of their regional cultural traditions and to situate Charleston as a bulwark against the chaos of modern America these descendants of old line families downplayed Confederate associations and emphasized the city s colonial and early national prominence They created a vibrant network of individual artists literary figures and organizations such as the all white Society for the Preservation of Negro Spirituals that nurtured architectural preservation art literature and tourism while appropriating African American folk culture In the process they translated their selective and idiosyncratic personal familial and class memories into a collective identity for the city The Charleston this group built Yuhl argues presented a sanitized yet highly marketable version of the American past Their efforts invited attention and praise from outsiders while protecting social hierarchies and preserving the political and economic power of whites Through the example of this colorful southern city Yuhl posits a larger critique about the use of heritage and demonstrates how something as intangible as the recalled past can be transformed into real political economic and social power Effectiveness of Different "appeals" in Road Safety Propaganda A.
