Cultural Erotics in Cuban America Ricardo L. Ortíz, 2006 Miami is widely considered the center of Cuban American culture However vital to the diasporic communities identity Miami is not the only or necessarily the most profound site of cultural production Looking beyond South Florida Ricardo L. Ortíz addresses the question of Cuban American diaspora and cultural identity by exploring the histories and self-sustaining practices of smaller communities in such U.S. cities as Los Angeles Chicago and New York In this wide-ranging work Ortíz argues for the authentically diasporic quality of postrevolutionary off-island Cuban experience Highlighting various forms of cultural expression Cultural Erotics in Cuban America traces underrepresented communities' responses to the threat of cultural disappearance in an overwhelming and hegemonic U.S. culture Ortíz shows how the work of Cuban American writers and artists challenges the heteronormativity of both home and host culture Focusing on artists who have had an ambivalent indirect or nonexistent connection to Miami he presents close readings of such novelists as Reinaldo Arenas Roberto G. Fernández Achy Obejas and Cristina García the playwright Eduardo Machado the poet Rafael Campo and musical performers Albita Rodríguez and Celia Cruz Ortíz charts the legacies of sexism and homophobia in patriarchal Cuban culture as well as their influence on Cuban revolutionary and Cuban exile ideologies Moving beyond the outdated cultural terms of the Cold War he looks forward to envision queer futures for Cuban American culture free from the ties to restrictive indeed oppressive constructions of nation place language and desire Ricardo L. Ortíz is associate professor of English at Georgetown University
