The Letters of Thom Gunn Thom Gunn, 2022-05-24 The Letters of Thom Gunn presents the first complete portrait of the private life reflections and relationships of a maverick figure in the history of British and American poetry I write about love I write about friendship remarked Thom Gunn I find that they are absolutely intertwined These core values permeate his correspondence with friends family lovers and fellow poets and they shed new light on one of the most singular and compelling poets in English during the past half century Hugh Haughton The Times Literary Supplement The Letters of Thom Gunn edited by August Kleinzahler Michael Nott and Clive Wilmer reveals the evolution of Gunn's work and illuminates the fascinating life that informed his poems his struggle to come to terms with his mother's suicide settling in San Francisco and his complex relationship with England his changing relationship with his life partner Mike Kitay the LSD trips that led to his celebrated collection Moly 1971 and the deaths of friends from AIDS that inspired the powerful unsparing elegies of The Man with Night Sweats 1992

Literature, Politics and Culture in Postwar Britain Alan Sinfield, 2007-03-15 Literature Politics and Culture in Postwar Britain is a landmark work in contemporary literary and cultural analysis It offers a provocative and brilliant account of political change since 1945 and how such change shaped the cultural output of our time It also looks at how and when literature intersects with other cultural forms including jazz and rock music television journalism commercial and mass cultures and the growth of American cultural dominance This edition includes a new foreword by the author

Double Lyric Merle E. Brown, 2025-07-01 Originally published posthumously in 1980 this book centres on 5 British poets Geoffrey Hill Philip Larkin Jon Silkin Thom Gunn and Charles Tomlinson and on the emergence in postwar British poetry of double lyrics poems which have according to the author become two persons two ways of expressing and attending critically in dramatic divisive conflict The nature and significance of the double lyric is first demonstrated by close readings of Silkin's Defence Tomlinson's Prometheus and Hill's In Piam Memoriam Further chapters focus on the impressive poems which have arisen out of the stress between ideological commitment and imaginative realization in Silkin's work the conflict between intuition and perception in the poetry of Tomlinson and the split between the texture of Gunn's language and the non verbal experience evoked in his poems Finally Merle Brown presents the last phase of F R Leavis collaborative literary and cultural criticism as strikingly close to the poetic achievements of Hill Silkin Tomlinson and Gunn

The Poetry of Thom Gunn Stefania Michelucci, 2008-12-24 Thom Gunn served as a mouthpiece for his time illustrating the social cultural and historical transformations that have characterized western civilization from World War II until today Starting with theoretical premises drawn from philosophy anthropology and sociology this work examines Thom Gunn's entire poetic career In Gunn's early poetry the author argues the predominant theme is the desire for freedom from the painful prison of the intellect and from the masks that the individual feels compelled to wear even in his sexual relationships In Gunn's later poetry the author notes a gradual opening to human relationships and to Nature which is also

Gunn's vindication and reevaluation of his own nature and the liberation of his long repressed and hidden homosexuality

Autobiographical Poetry in England and Spain, 1950-1980 Menotti Lerro, 2017-03-07 The volume traces the founding critical theories of the autobiographical genre from the Enlightenment period to the most recent developments which since the Sixties and the essays of Roy Pascal and Jean Starobinski have had a greater and greater influence It offers in contrast to the essential and by now classic definition of Philippe Lejeune an increased effectiveness of the poem to express the narrative purposes of autobiography recognizing poetic writing that has the extraordinary ability to say what the mortal language does not say to quote Leopardi The works of Seamus Heaney Thom Gunn Carlos Barral and Jaime Gil de Biedma are analyzed here and show an unveiling of the self through memories places and objects that often characterize them and that allow to whomever recalls one's own experience through writing the recovery and restoration of essential meanings to the reconstruction not only of subjective identity but also of one's own community Thom Gunn in

Conversation with James Campbell Thom Gunn, James Campbell, 2000 A 112 page volume whose publication is timed to coincide with the poet's latest collection Boss Cupid Faber March 2000 The book contains an extended interview a career sketch and an updated version of Hagstrom and Bixby's comprehensive 1979 bibliography It also contains several pages of quotations from Gunn's critics Also included is Gunn's recent poem Clean Clothes a Soldier's Song What the critics said This volume gives us an informative friendly 42 page Q A between Gunn and critic biographer and TLS eminence James Campbell conducted in January 1999 after Gunn had completed what's his new book Boss Cupid As usual Gunn comes across as admirable reserved about his private life thoughtful about his principles He's someone who's quite devoted to nightlife to sex of course to fun and yet he's articulated a liveable moral stringency and an entirely appealing way of connecting art to ethical choice It's dangerous to take anyone's life as exemplary that must be one of the differences between people and poems but Gunn's in some ways can seem so Stephen Burt Nightlife and Morality Poetry Review Summer 2000 Who's Who in
