Black Mosaic Richard Kenyada,2014-05-15 In Black Mosaic Essays for Post Racial America Richard Kenyada assesses

the progress we've made in our quest to find the key element that unites us as Americans and further as human beings. The term post-racial popped up after the first Obama victory but the mood of the country has not reflected that kind of hope. In many ways Americans seem to be drawing their own lines in the sand. But it's no longer the historic us against them of the Cold War era. The lines are being drawn between Americans' races, classes, genders, and sexual orientation. Ghosts of Chicago John McNally, 2010-09-30. In the seventeen vividly rendered stories in Ghosts of Chicago, John McNally captures the poignancy of both the shared experiences of a city and the interior details of his everyday characters. The Red Chill Sandman, 2009-12-31. The book is based on a little Maine town that never has anything happen. One day a child is found dead and pulled apart; the locals fear a wild dog or something larger did it. The local cops and his friends hunt down this animal and almost a few times became the hunted. The book is made to keep you guessing right till the end and will get you thinking in many different ways. The main character Dannie falls in love with a man and she has dreams that are bugging her until she finds they are a calling from God to save the little town and its people. Lots of thrills and chills will make you sad, happy, angry. The book was fun to write and even made me want to read it more than once. Borders and Belonging: A Memoir Mira Sucharov, 2020-09-01. In this gripping and honest memoir, Mira Sucharov shows what a search for political and emotional home looks like. Sucharov suffered from childhood phobias triggered by her parents' divorce and she sought emotional refuge in Jewish summer camp. But three years spent living in Israel in her twenties shook her to her core. Ultimately, encounters with colleagues, students, friends, and lovers force her to confront what it means to be able to write, advocate, and teach about Israel/Palestine in a way that balances affirmation with authenticity. Places I Never Meant to be Judy Blume, 1999. A collection of short stories accompanied by short essays on censorship by twelve authors whose works have been challenged in the past. Mating the Wolfman Kinsley Adams, 2022-08-22. Once a lone wolf. Now the leader of the pack. Now that Sam and I are together, we should be celebrating our happily ever after. Unfortunately, reality has other plans. Thanks to a legacy left by a father I barely knew, I'm now the new alpha of the Mississippi Pack. And if that's not enough, Corbin is still targeting the human-born werewolves. It's up to me to fix this mess. But it seems like everyone and their grandma wants a piece of me. Even my loved ones are in danger, and I'll kill anyone who lays a finger on Sam. Becoming an alpha was never on my to-do list yet here I am, thrown into the deep end with no choice but to learn how to swim. I may not have asked for this responsibility, but I refuse to let anyone else get hurt on my watch. So it's time to show the world what this newly turned alpha is capable of. The stakes are high, and who knows if I'll survive. But I do know one thing for sure: I'm not going down without a fight. I'm the Man Scott Ian, 2014-10-14. The long-awaited and vastly entertaining autobiography of Scott Ian, guitarist and co-founder of the legendary thrash metal band Anthrax.
