Historicizing the Enlightenment, Volume 1 Michael McKeon, 2023-07-14 The Enlightenment has been blamed for some of the most deadly developments of modern life racism and white supremacy imperialist oppression capitalist exploitation neoliberal economics scientific positivism totalitarian rule These developments are thought to have grown from principles that are rooted in the soil of the Enlightenment abstraction reduction objectification quantification division universalization Michael McKeon's new book corrects this defective view by historicizing the Enlightenment by showing that the Enlightenment has been abstracted from its history From its past critics have ignored that Enlightenment thought is a reaction against deadly traditions that precede it From its present the Enlightenment extended its reactive analysis of the past to its own present through self analysis and self criticism From its future much of what's been blamed amounts to the failure of its posterity to sustain Enlightenment principles To historicize the Enlightenment requires that we conjure what it was like to live through the emergence of concepts and practices that are now commonplace society privacy the public the market experiment secularity representative democracy human rights social class sex and gender fiction the aesthetic attitude McKeon's book argues the continuity of Enlightenment thought its consistency and integrity across this broad range of conceptual domains It also shows how the Enlightenment has shaped our views of both tradition and modernity and the revisionary work that needs to be done in order to understand our place in the future In the process Historicizing the Enlightenment exemplifies a distinctive historiography and historical method Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press      Great Moments in Greek Archaeology Panos Valavanēs, 2007 This beautifully illustrated book offers a wide ranging overview of the greatest archaeological sites and discoveries from ancient Greece The contributors a veritable who's who of the most venerable names in Greek archaeology include both those who have excavated at the sites in question and scholars who have spent a lifetime studying the monuments about which they write Presented here are the legendary sites of ancient Greece including the Athenian Acropolis Olympia Delphi Schliemann's Mycenae and the Athenian Agora the most iconic sculptures in the Greek world such as the Aphrodite of Melos and the Nike of Samothrace and several fascinating chapters on underwater archaeology discussing the Kyrenia and Uluburun shipwrecks and the astonishing bronze masterpieces raised from the sea This is the first book to bring together the archaeological legacy of ancient Greece in a concise and accessible way while still preserving the excitement of discovery      Melmoth the Wanderer Vol. 1 (of 4) Charles Robert Maturin, 2020-08-06 Reproduction of the original Melmoth the Wanderer Vol 1 of 4 by Charles Robert Maturin      Humanomics Vernon L. Smith, Bart J. Wilson, 2019-01-24 While neo classical analysis works well for studying impersonal exchange in markets it fails to explain why people conduct themselves the way they do in their personal relationships with family neighbors and friends In Humanomics Nobel Prize winning economist Vernon L. Smith and his long time co author Bart J. Wilson bring their study of economics full circle by returning to the founder of modern economics Adam Smith Sometime in the last 250 years economists lost sight of the full range of human feeling thinking and knowing in everyday life Smith and Wilson show how Adam Smith's model of sociality can re humanize twenty first century economics by undergirding it with sentiments fellow feeling and a sense of propriety the stuff of which human relationships are built Integrating insights from The Theory of Moral Sentiments and the Wealth of Nations into contemporary empirical analysis this book shapes economic betterment as a science of human beings      Science and Sound in Nineteenth-Century Britain Edward J.
