Moments Of Freedom Anthropology And Popular Culture:

Moments of Freedom Johannes Fabian, 1998 Johannes Fabian was one of the first anthropologists to introduce the concept of popular culture into the study of contemporary Africa Drawing on his research in the Shaba region of Zaire now the Democratic Republic of Congo he has been writing for thirty years about the practices beliefs and objects that make up popular culture in an urban African setting labor and language religious movements theater and storytelling music and painting grassroots literacy and historiography In Moments of Freedom Fabian reflects on anthropological uses of the concept of popular culture He retraces how his explorations of popular culture in this urban industrial setting showed that classical culture theory did not account for large aspects of contemporary African life Popular culture draws on various genres of representation and performance and Fabian explores the notion of genre itself as it applies to Shaba religious discourse painting and the theater He also addresses the element of time and how spatial thinking about culture ethnicity and globalization acts as an obstacle to appreciating the contemporaneity of African popular culture The volume ends with a discussion of contestation in light of current calls for democratization In Moments of Freedom Johannes Fabian takes stock of decades of anthropological work on popular culture and examines the development of his own thought over time Throughout the volume he makes eloquent connections to other fields such as history folklore studies and cultural studies suggesting areas for further research in each

Popular Culture Raiford Guins, Omayra Zaragoza Cruz, 2005-05 The selection of essays here is outstanding The Reader is particularly strong in bridging between founding figures and cutting edge work by newer writers Henry Jenkins MIT An extraordinarily well considered selection of articles and essays arranged with skill and style Charlie Blake University College Northampton Popular Culture A Reader helps students understand the pervasive role of popular culture and the processes that constitute it as a product of industry an intellectual object of inquiry and an integral component of all our lives The volume is divided into 7 thematic sections and each section is preceded by an introduction which engages with and critiques the chapters that follow The book contains Classic writings from all the big names including Raymond Williams Stuart Hall Walter Benjamin Theodor Adorno Frederic Jameson Dick Hebdige Angela McRobbie Paul Gilroy and many more Contemporary cultural references throughout this is not simply an historical account Pieces drawing on diverse national disciplinary and subdisciplinary contexts Sensitivity to issues of gender race and sexuality This reader is a key resource for students of media and communication studies cultural studies and the sociology of the media

A History of African Popular Culture Karin Barber, 2018-01-11 Popular culture in Africa is the product of everyday life the unofficial the non canonical And it is the dynamism of this culture that makes Africa what it is In this book Karin Barber offers a journey through the history of music theatre fiction song dance poetry and film from the seventeenth century to the present day From satires created by those living in West African coastal towns in the era of the slave trade to the poetry and fiction of townships and mine compounds in South Africa and from today's East African streets where Swahili hip hop artists gather to the juggernaut of the Nollywood film industry this book weaves together a wealth of sites and scenes of cultural production In doing so it provides an ideal text for students and researchers seeking to learn more about the diversity specificity and vibrancy of popular cultural forms in African history Youth and Popular Culture in Africa Paul Ugor,2021 The edited collection focuses on the links between young people and African popular culture It explores popular culture produced and consumed by young people in contemporary Africa And by culture we mean all kinds of texts or representations visual oral written performative fictional social and virtual created by African youth mostly about their lives and their immediate societies and for themselves but also consumed by the larger public and shared locally and globally We proceed from the premise that cultural texts not only function as social facts as Karin Barber argues but that they double as commentaries upon and interpretations of social facts They are part of social reality but they also take up an attitude to social reality 2007 04 So the work focuses specifically on what African youth produce as popular culture under what conditions or contexts they produce such work how they produce those texts why they produce them the aesthetic dimensions of these texts as cultural artifacts and why these textual practices matter as social facts as interpretive acts and as cultural symbols of the general cultural activism of young people in a rapidly changing world a world where the global cultural economy is the prime terrain for the relentless struggles over the meanings that come to shape political economic and social systems China on Screen Christopher J. Berry,Mary Ann Farquhar,2006-04-04 In China on Screen Chris Berry and Mary Farquhar leaders in the field of Chinese film studies explore more than one hundred years of Chinese cinema and nation Providing new perspectives on key movements themes and filmmakers Berry and Farquhar analyze the films of a variety of directors and actors including Chen Kaige Zhang Yimou Hou Hsiao Hsien Bruce Lee Jackie Chan Maggie Cheung Gong Li Wong Kar wai and Ang Lee They argue for the abandonment of national cinema as an analytic tool and propose cinema and the national as a more productive framework With this approach they show how movies from China Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora construct and contest different ideas of Chinese nation as empire republic or ethnicity and complicated by gender class style transnationalism and more Among the issues and themes covered are the tension between operatic and realist modes male and female star images transnational production and circulation of Chinese films the image of the good foreigner all related to different ways of imagining nation Comprehensive and provocative China on Screen is a crucial work of film analysis Music, Performance and African Identities Toyin Falola,Tyler Fleming,2012-03-15 Cutting across countries genres and time periods this volume explores topics ranging from hip hop s influence on Maasai identity in current day Tanzania to jazz in Bulawayo during the interwar years using music to tell a larger story about the cultures and societies of Africa Regulating Romance Shanti Parikh,2016-04-11 Drawing on ten years of ethnographic research two hundred fifty interviews and over three hundred youth love letters author Shanti Parikh uses lively vignettes to provide a rare window into young people s heterosexual desires and practices in Uganda In chapters entitled Unbreak my heart I miss you like a desert missing rain and You re just playing with my head she invites readers into the world of secret longings disappointments and anxieties of young Ugandans as they grapple with everyday difficulties while creatively imagining romantic futures and possibilities Parikh also examines the unintended consequences of Uganda s aggressive HIV campaigns that thrust sexuality and anxieties about it into the public sphere In a context of economic precarity and generational tension that constantly complicates young people s notions of consumption based romance communities experience the dilemmas of protecting and policing young people from reputational and health dangers of sexual activity They arrested me for loving a school girl is the title of a chapter on controlling delinquent daughters and punishing defiant boyfriends for attempting to undermine patriarchal authority by asserting their adolescent romantic agency Sex education programs struggle between risk and pleasure amidst morally charged debates among international donors and community elders transforming the youthful female body into a platform for public critique and concern The many sides of this research constitute an eloquently executed critical anthropology of intervention

African Anthropologies Mwenda Ntarangwi, David Mills, Mustafa H. M. Babiker, 2006-05 Publisher Description Humor, Silence, and Civil Society in Nigeria Ebenezer Obadare, 2016 This work is an important contribution to the civil society debate in Africa and to the global literature on dissent

World Anthropologies Gustavo Lins Ribeiro, Arturo Escobar, 2020-07-12 Since its inception anthropology s authority has been based on the assumption that it is a unified discipline emanating from the West In an age of heightened globalization anthropologists have failed to discuss consistently the current status of their practice and its mutations across the globe World Anthropologies is the first book to provoke this conversation from various regions of the world in order to assess the diversity of relations between regional or national anthropologies and a contested power laden Western discourse Can a planetary anthropology cope with both the provincial cosmopolitanism of alternative anthropologies and the metropolitan provincialism of hegemonic schools How might the resulting world anthropologies challenge the current panorama in which certain allegedly national anthropological traditions have more paradigmatic weight and hence more power than others Critically examining the international dissemination of anthropology within and across national power fields contributors address these questions and provide the outline for a veritable world anthropologies project

Transnational Death Samira Saramo, Eerika Koskinen-Koivisto, Hanna Snellman, 2019-09-24 With so much of the global population living on the move away from their homelands and in diasporic communities death and mourning practices are inevitably impacted Transnational Death brings together eleven cutting edge articles from the emerging field of transnational death studies By highlighting European Asian North American and Middle Eastern perspectives the collection provides timely and fresh analysis and reflection on people s changing experiences with death in the context of migration over time First beginning with a thematic assessment of the field of transnational death studies readers then have the opportunity to delve into case studies that examine experiences with death and mourning at a distance from the viewpoints of Family Community and Commemoration

The chapters highlight complicated issues confronting migrants their families and communities including negotiations of burial preferences and challenges of corpse repatriation the financial costs of providing end of life care travel at times of death and arranging culturally appropriate funerals and religious services as well as the emotional and sociocultural weight of mourning and commemoration from afar Overall Transnational Death provides new insights on identity and belonging community reciprocity transnational communication and spaces of mourning and commemoration The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to African Religions Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2012-03-12 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to African Religions brings together a team of international scholars to create a single volume resource on the religious beliefs and practices of the peoples in Africa Offers broad coverage of issues relating to African religions considering experiences in indigenous Christian and Islamic traditions across the continent Contributors are from a variety of fields ensuring the volume offers multidisciplinary perspectives Explores methodological approaches to religion from anthropological philosophical and historical perspectives Provides insights into the historical developments in African religions as well as contemporary issues such as the development of African initiated churches neo traditional religions and Pentecostalism Discusses important topics at the intersection of culture and religion in Africa including the arts health politics globalization gender relations and the economy Chewing Over the West , 2009-01-01 The orientation of academic institutions has in recent years been moving away from highly specialized area studies in the classical sense towards broader regional and comparative studies Cultural studies points to the limitation of Western approaches to non Western cultures a development not yet reflected in actual research and data collections Bringing together scholars from all over the world with specialized knowledge in both Western and non Western languages literatures and cultures this collection of essays provides new insights into the agency of non Western literatures in relation to the West a term used with critical caution and like other common binary dualisms challenged here Inter cultural expertise seldom applied in the combination of Asian African and oriental perspectives makes this compilation of essays an important contribution to the study of colonialism and postcoloniality Topics covered include postcolonial Arabic writing T S Eliot in contemporary Arabic poetry Algerian and Berber literature the English language and narratives in Kenyan art characterization dialogism gender and Western influence in modern Hindi fiction Naya drama in India modern Burmese theatre and literature under Western influence Remarque's All Quiet on the Western Front and the Vietnamese Novel Without a Name Western Marxism and vernacular literature in colonial Indonesia hybridity in Komedi Stambul and Sherlock Holmes in and the crime fiction of Siam and Indonesia Contributors Amina Azza Bekkat Thomas de Bruijn Matthew Isaac Cohen Rasheed El Enany Keith Foulcher Saddik M Gohar Rachel Harrison Doris Jedamski Ursula Lies Daniela Merolla Evan Mwangi Guzel Vladimirovna Strelkova Anna Suvorova U Win Pe Animated by Uncertainty Joshua D. Rubin, 2021-09-28 In Animated by Uncertainty Joshua D Rubin analyzes South African rugby through the lens of aesthetic politics Building on 17 months of ethnographic research with rugby coaches players and administrators the author argues that rugby is a form of performance and further that the qualities that define rugby shape the political ends to which the sport can be put In this respect Animated by Uncertainty demonstrates that theories of sporting politics cannot afford to overlook the qualities of the sports themselves and it provides a theoretical approach to illustrate how these qualities can be studied The book also analyzes the ways that apartheid and colonialism inhere in South African institutions and practices Drawing inspiration from the observation that South Africans could always abandon rugby if they chose to do so Rubin highlights how the continuing significance of rugby as a form of performance brings traces of South Africa's apartheid and colonial past into the country's contemporary political moment
