Motivating Low Achieving Students A Special Focus On Unmotivated And Underachieving African American Students:

Motivating Low-achieving Students Gary L. Reglin, 1993 Tips for at-risk African American students Teaching Low Achieving and Disadvantaged Students Charles H. Hargis, 1997 The First Edition of Teaching Low Achieving and Disadvantaged Students was well received and so the author in this new edition has not altered the ideas expressed there What he has added are details and reactions in light of events and experiences of the intervening years These experiences come from the author's role in working with children who are casualties of the educational system as well as in his work in helping to develop a successful alternative public high school In this new edition he clearly explains the reasons behind learning and behavior problems of low achieving and disadvantaged students He outlines assessment procedures to separate real disabilities from school created ones and then describes the educational treatment of each This comprehensive volume offers classroom teachers and administrators new insight into the challenging task of teaching low achieving and disadvantaged children At Risk "parent and Family" School Involvement Gary L. Reglin, 1993 English Journal, 1996 Introduction to Recreational Service Jay Sanford Shivers, 1993 Middle School Journal, 1996 The Journal of At-risk Issues, 1994 Teaching the Dynamics of Exotic Species to At-risk High School Students Through the Use of Laboratory Investigations Stella Ann McCartney-Peters, 2000 Mentoring Students at Risk Gary L. Reglin, 1998 Research clearly shows that mentoring is a powerful alternative education dropout prevention strategy for students at risk and this text meets a demand from teachers and case workers in the juvenile justice systems for a comprehensive guide to establish mentoring programs The book is teacher friendly easy to read positive and full of suggestions The mentor application interest inventories and evaluation forms make it useful as a resource book Strategies on writing mission statements goals and objectives contribute to confidence in developing successful proposals to fund mentoring programs The recruitment strategies screening strategies process and outcome evaluation questions and the 20 Step Replicable Model help those who wish to enhance the effectiveness of existing mentoring programs Chapter One discusses the need to restructure classrooms programs and schools to better serve students and also delineates important facts about alternative education Chapter Two introduces two funded alternative education programs the Truancy Court Conference Program TCCP and the Mentoring and Tutoring Help MATH program Chapter Three discusses more important components of the MATH program and presents tips for recruiting screening and orienting mentors Chapter Four deals with what teachers can emphasize to mentors and the final chapter presents successful tips for teachers to build a mentoring program This text is designed to meet the needs of K 12 teachers K 12 school administrators case managers in the juvenile justice system and members of nonprofit organizations who work with students at risk Guide to Books on Black Americans G.
