Wimbush,2015-07-16 Scripturalizing the Human is a transdisciplinary collection of essays that reconceptualizes and models scriptural studies as a critical comparative set of practices with broad ramifications for scholars of religion and biblical studies This critical historical and ethnographic project is focused on scriptures scripturalization scripturalizing as shorthand for the psycho cultural and socio political work we make language do for and to us Each essay focuses on an instance of or situation involving such work engaging with the Bible Book of Mormon Bhagavata Purana and other sacred texts artifacts and practices in order to explore historical and ongoing constructions of the human Contributors use the category of scriptures understood not simply as texts but as freighted shorthand for the dynamics and ultimate politics of language as tools for self illumination and self analysis The significance of the collection lies in the window it opens to the rich and complex view of the highs and lows of human un making as it establishes the connections between a seemingly basic and apolitical religious category and a set of larger social cultural phenomena and dynamics

Imperial Identity in the Mughal Empire Lisa Balabanlilar,2015-12-13 Having monopolized Central Asian politics and culture for over a century the Timurid ruling elite was forced from its ancestral homeland in Transoxiana at the turn of the sixteenth century by an invading Uzbek tribal confederation The Timurids travelled south establishing themselves as the new rulers of a region roughly comprising modern Afghanistan Pakistan and northern India and founding what would become the Mughal Empire 1526 1857 The last survivors of the House of Timur the Mughals drew invaluable political capital from their lineage which was recognized for its charismatic genealogy and court culture the features of which are examined here By identifying Mughal loyalty to Turco Mongol institutions and traditions Lisa Balabanlilar here positions the Mughal dynasty at the centre of the early modern Islamic world as the direct successors of a powerful political and religious tradition

Nature, Culture, and Race in Colonial Cuba Lee Sessions,2024-06-18 A new and necessary examination of how nineteenth century Cuban white elites viewed the natural world material culture and political power as intertwined In the decades before the Cuban wars of independence white elites exploited the island s natural history and culture to redefine racial identity and reassert authority These practices occurred in the face of challenges to their political power from Cubans of mixed race and as Cuba's dependence on sugar led to ecological and economic precarity Lee Sessions uses close visual analysis to investigate how white elites wielded power by manipulating material culture placing in conversation for the first time the natural history museums botanical gardens and thousands of paintings drawings and prints produced in and about Cuba from 1820 to 1860 This important and novel book explores how groups used material culture to imagine their own future at a moment when racial and political dynamics were changing rapidly while facing an ecological disaster of unimaginable scale

On the Scope and Truth of Theology Robert Cummings Neville, 2006-06-05 This is the first volume of Robert Cumming Neville's magnum opus Theology as Symbolic Engagement Neville is the premier American systematic theologian of our time His work is profoundly influenced by Paul Tillich Friedrich Schleiermacher and the American pragmatists John Dewey and Charles Sanders Pierce From Tillich he takes the notion of religion art and morality as symbol and the notion that religion is the substance of culture and culture the form of religion Thus theology is symbolic engagement with cultural forms and Neville explores the ways that such engagement occurs among various religious traditions One of the most important tasks in theology is to devise ways of testing correcting or affirming claims that we had been unable to question before This book will argue that system in theology is not merely correlating assertions but rather building perspectives from which we can render the various parts of theology vulnerable for assessment In fact one of the unique features of this book is its engagement with other religions Such dialogue has been a feature of Neville's work from the beginning Theology as Symbolic Engagement breaks the boundaries of systematic theology and moves away from the static character that characterizes such enterprises from Barth onward Instead Neville's book showcases the dynamic character of all theology The hallmark of this entire project is its effort to show theology to be hypothetical and to make it vulnerable to correction

Unnatural Horizons Allen S. Weiss, 1998 Unnatural Horizons presents a selective history of the last five centuries of landscape architecture at the intersection of poetics and science rhetoric and technology and philosophy and politics It investigates the relations between garden aesthetics and metaphysics discussing issues similar to those raised by Weiss's critically acclaimed Mirrors of Infinity The Western garden has always served as a setting for music dance theater sculpture and architecture as well as the minor arts of meditative contemplation and erotic seduction The history of landscape architecture is therefore inextricable from the histories of the other arts and must be studied from an interdisciplinary and polycultural point of view Some of the topics included in this book are the influence of neo Platonic philosophy on the Italian Renaissance garden erotic fantasies and the 18th century libertine garden the contrast between Thoreau's romantic notion of virgin nature and changes in perception due to increasing speed and mechanization and the limits of landscape architecture as art form in 20th century gardens

Michelangelo Red Antonioni Blue Murray Pomerance, 2011-03-15 Michelangelo Antonioni who died in 2007 was one of cinema's greatest modernist filmmakers The films in his black and white trilogy of the early 1960s L'avventura La Notte L'eclisse are justly celebrated for their influential gorgeously austere style But in this book Murray Pomerance demonstrates why the color films that followed are in fact Antonioni's greatest works Writing in an accessible style that evokes Antonioni's expansive use of space Pomerance discusses The Red Desert Blow Up Professione Reporter The Passenger Zabriskie Point Identification of a Woman The Mystery of Oberwald Beyond the Clouds and The Dangerous Thread of Things to analyze the director's subtle and complex use of color Infusing his open ended inquiry with both scholarly and personal reflection Pomerance evokes the full range of sensation nuance and equivocation that became Antonioni's signature
