Paddys Road Life Stories Of Patrick Dodson:

Paddy's Road Kevin Keeffe, 2005 Paddy's Road Kevin Keeffe, 2003 Frontispiece Roads meeting by Kimberley artist Rover Thomas The Children's Country Stephen Muecke, Paddy Roe, 2020-11-24 In North West Australia between 2009 and 2013 a major Indigenous environmentalist alliance waged a successful campaign to stop a huge industrial development a 45 billion liquefied gas plant proposed by Woodside and its partners The Western Australian government and key Indigenous institutions also pushed hard for this making the custodians of the Country the Goolarabooloo an embattled minority This experimental ethnography documents the Goolarabooloo s knowledge of Country their long history of struggle for survival and the alliances that formed to support them Written in a fictocritical style it introduces a new multirealist kind of analysis that focuses on institutions Indigenous or European their spheres of influence and how they organised to stay alive as alliances shifted and changed The Littoral Zone CA. Cranston, Robert Zeller, 2007 In this the first collection of ecocritical essays devoted to Australian contexts and their writers Australian and USA scholars settlers invaders temporary visa holders comment on the transliteration of sea land and interior through the works of major and minor authors and through their own experience with the bioregion The littoral zone is the starting point in this fresh approach to reading literature and is organised around the natural environment rainforest desert mountains coast islands Antarctica There s the beach where sexual and spiritual crises occur the Wheatbelt area the most visible clearance line on the planet desert literature camel trekking and the transformation of a salt flat into an inland island New Age literature that appropriates Aboriginals and their cultures as the healing poultice for an ailing and dispirited West a re examination of pastoralism and the feet of millions of sheep that have done unspeakable damage to soils an inquiry into whether Judith Wright s work can persuade us to rejoice in the world an investigation of the Limestone Plains home of the bush capital and the bogong moth of bananas cane toads and the Great Barrier Reef in tropic Queensland of national parks and guesthouses where the mountains meet the sea a discursive approach to temperate islands that covers sealing Soldier Settlement and sea country pastoral and finally to Antarctica where an initial utopian approach gives way to an emphasis on its stark timeless icescape as a minimalist backdrop for human dramas The author terrain is no less grand in its scope poets playwrights novelists and non fiction writers are discussed across the broad range of contexts that constitutes the littoral zone known as Australia Power and Love Adam Kahane, 2010-01-04 The two methods most frequently employed to solve our toughest social problems either relying on violence and aggression or submitting to endless negotiation and compromise are fundamentally flawed This is because the seemingly contradictory drives behind these approaches power the desire to achieve one s purpose and love the urge to unite with others are actually complementary As Dr Martin Luther King Jr put it Power without love is reckless and abusive and love without power is sentimental and anemic But how do you combine them For the last twenty years Adam Kahane of Reos Partners and the University of Oxford has worked around the world on many tough and vital challenges food security health care economic development judicial reform peacemaking climate change In this extraordinary book he draws on this experience to delve deeply into the dual natures of both power and love exploring their subtle and intricate interplay With disarming honesty Kahane relates how through trial and error he has learned to balance them and offers practical guidance for how others can learn that balance as well Post-Imperial Perspectives on Indigenous Education Peter Anderson,Koji Maeda,Zane M. Diamond,Chizu Sato,2020-10-05 This book explores the impact of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in Japan and Australia where it has heralded change in the rights of Indigenous Peoples to have their histories cultures and lifeways taught in culturally appropriate and respectful ways in mainstream education systems The book examines the impact of imposed education on Indigenous Peoples pre existing education values and systems considers emergent approaches towards Indigenous education in the post imperial context of migration and critiques certain professional development assessment pedagogical approaches and curriculum developments This book will be of great interest to researchers and lecturers of education specialising in Indigenous Education as well as postgraduate students of education and teachers specialising in Indigenous Education Liberating the Will of Australia Geoffrey Burn,2020-08-03 Why do many First People in Australia find themselves continually under siege Why do many interventions fail to produce what was hoped for Why is it that when there have been many positive developments at some deep level nothing seems to have changed Will the Uluru Statement from the Heart ensure the future security of the First Peoples in Australia By developing strands from Christian theology Liberating the Will of Australia answers these questions in a way that gets to the heart of the problem It is shown that the way that the First Peoples were treated by the first European in comers became an indelible part of what Australia currently is This explains why harm is often done even when good is intended and why some problems are too complex to solve But that does not mean that we need to be stuck in the past through deep repentance by the Subsequent Peoples much more than an apology we can take hold of the work of God to bring new things out of what is broken Ultimately this is profoundly hopeful Although focusing on Australia the theological tools developed can be applied in other colonial and post colonial contexts Anthology of Australian Aboriginal Literature Anita Heiss,Peter Minter,2014-11-30 In a political system that renders them largely voiceless Australia s Aboriginal people have used the written word as a powerful tool for over two hundred years Anthology of Australian Aboriginal Literature presents a rich panorama of Aboriginal culture history and life through the writings of some of the great Australian Aboriginal authors From Bennelong s 1796 letter to contemporary writing Anita Heiss and Peter Minter have selected works that represent the range and depth of Aboriginal writing in English Journalism petitions and political letters from both the nineteenth and twentieth centuries are brought together with major works of poetry prose and drama from the mid twentieth century onward These works voice not only the ongoing suffering of dispossession but the resilience of Australia s Aboriginal people their hope and joy Presenting some of the best most distinctive writing produced in Australia this groundbreaking anthology will captivate anyone interested in Aboriginal writing and culture

Indigenous Land Rights in Israel Morad Elsana, 2020-11-29 Introducing the Negev Bedouin land issue from the international indigenous land rights perspective this comparative study suggests options for the recognition of their land The book demonstrates that the Bedouin land dispossession like many indigenous peoples progressed through several phases that included eviction and displacement legislation and judicial decisions that support acts of dispossession and deny the Bedouin s traditional land rights Examining the Mawat legal doctrine on which the State and the Court rely on to deny Bedouin land rights this volume introduces the relevant international law protecting indigenous land rights and shows how the limitations of this law prevent any meaningful protection of Bedouin land rights In the second part of the work the Aborigines land in Australia is introduced as an example of indigenous peoples successful struggle for their traditional land rights The final chapter analyzes the basic elements of judicial recognition of the land and shows that the basic elements needed for Bedouin land recognition exist in the Israeli legal system Proposing practical recommendations for the recognition of Bedouin land this volume is a key resource to scholars and students interested in land rights international law comparative studies and the Middle East

A Theory for Indigenous Australian Health and Human Service Work Lorraine Muller, 2020-07-25 Winner of the 2015 Educational Publishing Awards Australia Scholarly Resource Most people of European background are not aware that they see the world through the lens of the Western tradition but for Indigenous people it can seem like a foreign language Indigenous ways of thinking and working are grounded in many thousands of years of oral tradition and continue among Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island people today Lorraine Muller shows that understanding traditional holistic approaches to social and emotional wellbeing is essential for practitioners working with Indigenous clients across the human services She explores core principles of traditional Indigenous knowledge in Australia including relatedness Country circular learning stories and spirituality She then shows how these principles represent a theory for Indigenous practice A Theory for Indigenous Australian Health and Human Service Work offers a deep insight into Indigenous Australian ways of working with people in the context of a decolonisation framework It is an invaluable resource for both Indigenous and non Indigenous practitioners and researchers in health social work community work education and related fields In today s global environment where Indigenous Peoples continue to fight for self determination Muller s work is an exemplary model of Indigenous self determination It is bound to be a foundational model of Indigenous practice in field of health and well being Michael Hart Canada Research Chair in Indigenous Knowledges and Social Work University of Manitoba Lorraine Muller s work covers some centrally important issues for those that work with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and who want to understand indigenous knowledge frameworks Dr Mark Wenitong Apunipima Cape York Health Council

Ireland's Farthest Shores Malcolm Campbell, 2022-01-20 Irish people have had a long and complex engagement with the lands and waters encompassing the Pacific world As the European presence in the Pacific intensified from the late eighteenth century the Irish entered this oceanic space as beachcombers missionaries traders and colonizers During the nineteenth century economic distress in Ireland and rapid population growth on the Pacific Ocean s eastern and western shores set in motion large scale migration that exerted a deep political social and economic impact across the Pacific Malcolm Campbell examines the rich history of Irish experiences on land and at sea offering new perspectives on migration and mobility in the Pacific world and of the Irish role in the establishment and maintenance of the British Empire This volume investigates the extensive transnational connections that developed among Irish immigrants and their descendants across this vast and unique oceanic space ties that illuminate how the Irish participated in the making of the Pacific world and how the Pacific world made them

Teaching ‘Proper’ Drinking? Maggie Brady,2017-12-12 In Teaching Proper Drinking the author brings together three fields of scholarship socio historical studies of alcohol Australian Indigenous policy history and social enterprise studies The case studies in the book offer the first detailed surveys of efforts to teach responsible drinking practices to Aboriginal people by installing canteens in remote communities and of the purchase of public hotels by Indigenous groups in attempts both to control sales of alcohol and to create social enterprises by redistributing profits for the community good Ethnographies of the hotels are examined through the analytical lens of the Swedish Gothenburg system of municipal hotel ownership The research reveals that the community governance of such social enterprises is not purely a matter of good administration or compliance with the relevant liquor legislation Their administration is imbued with the additional challenges posed by political contestation both within and beyond the communities concerned The idea that community or government ownership and management of a hotel or other drinking place would be a good way to control drinking and limit harm has been commonplace in many Anglophone and Nordic countries but has been less recognised in Australia Maggie Brady s book brings together the hidden history of such ideas and initiatives in Australia In an original and wide ranging set of case studies Brady shows that success in reducing harm has varied between communities largely depending on whether motivations to raise revenue or to reduce harm are in control Professor Robin Room Director Centre for Alcohol Policy Research La Trobe University

Veronica Brady in her Own Words ATF Press,2022-10-01 Veronica Brady in her Own Words is a collection of essays and papers by Veronica many unpublished and all without a date and cover a range of topics religion the arts politics and relations with Australian indigenous peoples

A History of Canberra Nicholas Brown,2014-09-29 Designed as an ideal city and emblem of the nation Canberra has long been a source of ambivalence for many Australians In this charming and concise book Nicholas Brown challenges these ideas and looks beyond the clichés to illuminate the unique layered and often colourful history of Australia s capital Brown covers Canberra s selection as the site of the national capital the turbulent path of Walter Burley Griffin s plan for the city and the many phases of its construction He surveys citizens diverse experiences of the city the impact of the Second World War on Canberra s growth and explores the city s political history with insight and wit A History of Canberra is informed by the interplay of three themes central to Canberra s identity government community and environment Canberra s distinctive social and cultural history as a centre for the public service and national institutions is vividly rendered Empire, Colony, Genocide A. Dirk Moses,2008-06-01 In 1944 Raphael Lemkin coined the term genocide to describe a foreign occupation that destroyed or permanently crippled a subject population In this tradition Empire Colony Genocide embeds genocide in the epochal geopolitical transformations of the past 500 years the European colonization of the globe the rise and fall of the continental land empires violent decolonization and the formation of nation states It thereby challenges the customary focus on twentieth century mass crimes and shows that genocide and ethnic cleansing have been intrinsic to imperial expansion The complexity of the colonial encounter is reflected in the contrast between the insurgent identities and genocidal strategies that subaltern peoples sometimes developed to expel the occupiers and those local elites and creole groups that the occupiers sought to co opt Presenting case studies on the Americas Australia Africa Asia the Ottoman Empire Imperial Russia and the Nazi Third Reich leading authorities examine the colonial dimension of the genocide concept as well as the imperial systems and discourses that enabled conquest Empire Colony Genocide is a world history of genocide that highlights what Lemkin called the role of the human group and its tribulations Seeking Racial Justice Jack Horner,2004 The author s personal account of his developing consciousness as a white player in the black theatre of Indigenous Australian affairs and in particular his work with FCAATSI The book is also a tribute to the diverse Aboriginal and non Aboriginal individuals and groups who dedicated themselves to the cause from 1938 to 1978 The Different aspects of Islamic culture Ali, Abdulrahim,Thiam, Iba Der,Talib, Yusof A.,2016-10-17 This series of volumes on the manifold facets of Islamic culture is intended to acquaint a very wide public with the theological bases of its faith the status of the individual and of society in the Islamic world its expansion since the Revelation its cultural manifestations in literature and the arts and finally Islam today between loyalty to its past and the new challenges of modernity The last 100 years of Islamic history are examined in the final volume although the approach is thematic rather than historical The period considered has seen European colonialism in most of the Islamic world and Islam has played a major role in the initiation and organization of resistance movements We survey the groupings and forms of co operation that have arisen since liberation from colonialism and investigate the political necessity and the moral stand that underlie the unity of the Islamic peoples Social and economic progress is reviewed and space is devoted to such topics as the ongoing problem of Palestine moves towards educational reform and the status of women in Islam As the Islamic world cannot be imagined in isolation this volume examines the attitude of contemporary Islam towards other religions and cultures and considers efforts aimed at achieving mutual understanding and coexistence in both Muslim and non Muslim countries Power and Love Jeff Barnum,Adam Kahane,2011-08-18 Using revealing stories from complex situations he has been involved in all over the world the Middle East South Africa Europe India Guatemala the Philippines Australia Canada and the United States Kahane reveals how to dynamically balance power and love Anthropology and the Economy of Sharing

Thomas Widlok, 2016-10-04 This book examines the economy of sharing in a variety of social and political contexts around the world with consideration given to the role of sharing in relation to social order and social change political power group formation individual networks and concepts of personhood Widlok advocates a refreshingly broad comparative approach to our understanding of sharing with a rich range of material from hunter gatherer ethnography alongside debates and empirical illustrations from globalized society helping students to avoid Western economic bias in their thinking Anthropology and the Economy of Sharing also demonstrates that sharing is distinct from gift giving exchange and reciprocity which have become dominant themes in economic anthropology and suggests that a new focus on sharing will have significant repercussions for anthropological theory Breaking new ground in this key topic this volume provides students with a coherent and accessible overview of the economy of sharing from an anthropological perspective The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution ShareAlike CC BY SA 4.0 license Open Access funding of this book was made possible through the Leo Spitzer Prize of the University of Cologne This generous funding is gratefully acknowledged Rob Riley Quentin Beresford, 2006 Set against the tumultuous background of racial politics in an conflicted nation this book explores Rob Riley's rise and influence as an Aboriginal activist Drawing on perspectives from history politics and psychology this work explores Rob's life as a moral protester and the challenges he confronted in trying to change the destiny of the country
