Points... Jacques Derrida, 1995 A collection of 23 interviews given over the last 2 decades illustrating the extraordinary breadth of Derrida's concerns writings Horrors of a Voice (object a) Tristram Adams, 2024-07-11 This book reframes the Lacanian object a voice as a horrific register of alterity The object gaze has received as it does in Jacques Lacan's work more commentary than voice Yet recently voice has garnered interest from multiple disciplines The book intervenes in the Slovenian school's commentary of the object voice in terms of two questions audition and corporeality This intervention synthesizes psychoanalysis with recent theorizing of the horror of philosophy In this intervention the object a voice is argued to resonate in lacunae epistemological voids that evoke horror in the subject Biological and evolutionary perspectives on voice genre horror film and literature music videos close readings of Freudian and Lacanian case studies and textual analysis of ancient philosophy texts all contribute to an elucidation of the horrors of the object a voice Vox Exo Untold Tales

Hope in a Secular Age David Newheiser, 2019-12-19 Uses premodern theology and postmodern theory to show the endurance of religious and political commitments through the practice of hope Adorno's Nonidentical and Derrida's Différance - For a Resurrection of Negative Dialectics Stefan Zenklusen, 2020-11-06 The virulent anti-Hegelianism of French poststructuralism and its difficult confrontation with Jürgen Habermas has long obscured the closeness of Jacques

Derrida's difference to Theodor W Adorno's Nonidentical Taking the overarching theme of identity and difference as a guide we can peel apart what unites and separates these two thinkers In so doing certain de-realizing effects of Derrida's entrapment in signs reveal themselves By contrast Adorno's social and cultural diagnosis when extrapolated to a post-Fordian context is astonishingly fruitful Attempts to trivialize negative dialectics as a model of intellectual self-understanding from a past age or as an esthetic reserve of ways of life are untenable

Changing Subjects, 2001-01-01 Coming from a strong gender critical and post colonial theoretical stance Runions takes up important questions of the reading process that arise from literary ideological critical and cultural studies approaches to the Bible She examines readers negotiations with the ambiguous configurations of gender nation and future vision in the book of Micah using the theoretical work of Homi Bhabha with Louis Althusser Jacques Lacan Slavoj Žižek all key figures in cultural studies Her book confronts the problem of the determined subject reading an indeterminate text and suggests that liminal identifications with the ambiguities of the book of Micah might reconfigure the reader's own ideological positions

Without Alibi Jacques Derrida, Peggy Kamuf, 2002 This book brings together for the first time five recent essays by Jacques Derrida which advance his reflections on many issues lying perjury forgiveness confession the profession of faith and most recently cruelty sovereignty and capital punishment Strongly linked by their attention to performatives and the as if the essays show the necessity of thinking beyond the category of acts that are possible for a subject Derrida argues forcefully that thought must engage with the impossible that is the order of the unforeseeable event the absolute future still to come This acute awareness of the limits of performative programs informs the essays throughout and attunes them closely to events of a world undergoing globalization The first essay History of the Lie reviews some classic and modern definitions of the lie Augustine Rousseau Kant Koyr Arendt while renewing questions about what is called lying as distinguished from other forms of non-truth This inventive analysis is followed by Typewriter Ribbon which examines at length the famous lie recounted by Rousseau in his Confessions when he perjured himself by accusing another of his own crime Paul de Man's reading of this textual event is at the center of Derrida's patient at times seriously funny analyses Le parjure Perhaps engages with a remarkable novel by Henri Thomas that fictionalizes the charge of perjury brought against Paul de Man in the 1950s Derrida's extraordinary fineness as a reader and thinker of fiction here treats to profound effect the fatal experience of perjury The two final essays The University Without Condition and Psychoanalysis Searches the States of Its Soul address the institutions of the university and of psychoanalysis as sites from which to resist and deconstruct the non-truth or phantasm of sovereignty For the university the principle of truth remains at the core of its resistance for psychoanalysis there is the obligation to remain true to what may be Derrida suggests its specific insight into psychic cruelty Resistance to the sovereign cruelty of the death penalty is just one of the stakes indicated by the last essay which is the text of a keynote address to the States General of Psychoanalysis held in Paris July 2000 Especially for this volume Derrida has written Provocation Forewords which reflects on the title

Without Alibi while taking up questions about relations between deconstruction and America This essay foreword also responds to the event of this book which Peggy Kamuf in her introduction presents as event of resistance Without Alibi joins two other books by Derrida that Kamuf has translated for Stanford University Press Points Interviews 1974 1994 1994 and Resistances of Psychoanalysis 1998
