Poison At The Source The Female Novel Of Self Development In The Early Twentieth Century:

The Poison at the Source P. Brown, 1992-03-10 An examination of a number of English women novelists who portrayed the crises and conflicts in the development of the female consciousness as a response to the anomalies of the rapidly changing world of the early twentieth century when opportunities for self expression and fulfilment were beginning to open up for women but nineteenth century values and prejudices still widely prevailed May Sinclair Radclyffe Hall Rosamond Lehmann Antonia White and Dorothy Richardson are seen as outspoken and innovative writers often marginalised or ignored by serious criticism

Writing Life Mhairi Pooler, 2015-12-01 Writers lives are endlessly fascinating for the reading public and literary scholars alike By examining the self representation of authors across the schism between Victorianism and Modernism via the First World War this study offers a new way of evaluating biographical context and experience in the individual creative process at a crucial point in world and literary history Writing Life explores how and why a select group of early twentieth century writers including Edmund Gosse Henry James Siegfried Sassoon and Dorothy Richardson adapted the model of the German Romantic Künstlerroman or artist narrative for their autobiographical writing Instead of misreading these autobiographies as historical documentation Pooler examines how these authors conduct a Romantic style conversation about literature through literature as a means of reconfirming the role of the artist in the face of shifting values and the cataclysm of the Great War

A New Matrix for Modernism Nelljean Rice, 2013-10-11 Many studies of poetic modernism focus on the avatars of High Modernism Eliot Pound and Yeats who created a critical coterie based on culture and class A New Matrix for Modernism introduces a matrilineage for modernism that traces a distinct women's poetic voice from the Brontë sisters through Alice Meynell to modernists Charlotte Mew and Anna Wickham who combine feminist content with an innovative exploration of formalist prosody Shifting emphasis from woman to child mother to daughter and urbs to suburb relocating modernism's matrilingua to the boundaries of London society and culture A New Matrix for Modernism ranges widely among architecture mental illness Fabianism Positivism Theosophy women's suffrage and education to a new house for modernism a woman's place of secret joys and sorrows Well researched yet passionate this book will appeal to both the scholar and the generalist interested in modernism poetry feminism culture and British literary history

May Sinclair Rebecca Bowler, 2016-12-05 May Sinclair was a bestselling author of her day whose versatile literary output including criticism philosophy poetry psychoanalysis and experimental fiction now frequently falls between the established categories of literary modernism In terms of her contribution to dominant modernist paradigms she was until recently best remembered for recasting the psychological novel as stream of consciousness narrative in a 1918 review of Dorothy Richardson's Pilgrimage This book brings together the most recent research on Sinclair and re contextualises her work both within and against dominant Modernist narratives It explores Sinclair's negotiations between the public and private the cerebral and the corporeal and the spiritual and the profane in both her fiction and non fiction

A History of the Bildungsroman Sarah

Graham,2019-01-03 This detailed analysis of the evolution of the Bildungsroman genre is unprecedented in its historical and geographical range Growing Up a Woman Milena Kaličanin, Soňa Šnircová,2015-10-13 This book explores contemporary transformations of the female Bildungsroman showing that the intersection of the genre and gender brought to critical attention in the context of second wave feminism remains of equal importance in the era of postfeminism The female Bildung narrative has acquired an important position in twentieth and twenty first century literature through its continuing depiction of female self discovery and emancipation as a process of negotiating the traditional divisions of female and male roles in relation to the private and public spaces Recognizing the seminal contribution of feminist criticism to the definition of the genre and the role of feminist cultural processes in its thematic developments this volume investigates more recent influences on the female Bildung narrative and the influence of the classic female Bildungsroman on contemporary cultural texts As a collection of fifteen essays written by international scholars the book offers a representative sample of the narratives of female development presenting a variety of genres including the novel the short story autobiography TV series and Internet video blogs and theoretical frameworks adopting hermeneutic postcolonial feminist and postfeminist perspectives In its diversity this volume reveals that despite the ongoing process of women s emancipation the heroine s struggle with the private public divide has remained throughout the twentieth century and in the first decades of the new millennium a central issue in stories about the female quest for self definition The book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of literary women and gender studies particularly those interested in the narratives of female development that represent American and British cultural contexts Unreal Country Glenn Willmott,2002-08-29 Modernism is one of the great manifold movements in literature and the arts Responding with magnificent independence to inherited values and tastes and with radical novelty to the future varieties of modernism anxiously express both the ends of the Enlightenment and the beginnings of Postmodernism and thus the feeling of a crisis that continues to haunt contemporary life Modernity in Canada stretching from the turn of the century to the 1950s is a period marked by unprecedented urban and industrial growth by urban and rural immigration from around the world and by unique changes in power between regions classes races and sexes At the same time it is a period profoundly aware of the colonial past and its persistence for good or ill in the fragile economy and volatile culture of a new nation Rosamond Lehmann and Her Critics Wendy Pollard,2017-11-28 This study of contemporary and later critical responses to the work of the novelist Rosamond Lehmann 1901 1990 offers an original approach to twentieth century literary history by foregrounding the cultural and commercial fields in which Lehmann s writing was situated Wendy Pollard examines the effect recent developments in literary theory and movements from modernism to feminism have had on Lehmann s literary reception She also considers the interpolation of a damning third category between te and popular culture namely middlebrow a widening gender divide in readership controversies within book reviewing changes in the publishing world and the introduction of popularist means of book marketing While considering the general privileging of male authors from the 1920s to the 1950s Lehmann's most prolific period Pollard argues that her novels have been unfairly subjected to specific forms of neglect and their exclusion from many academic comparative studies is due to a diversity of form and content that can also be considered their strength

Modernism, Feminism and the Culture of Boredom Allison Pease, 2012-08-27 Illustrates how boredom formed an important category of critique against the constraints of women's lives in British modernist literature The Modern Woman Revisited Whitney Chadwick, Tirza True Latimer, 2003 Between the two world wars Paris served as the setting for unparalleled freedom for expatriate as well as native born French women who enjoyed unprecedented access to education and opportunities to participate in public artistic and intellectual life Many of these women including Colette Tamara de Lempicka Sonia Delaunay Djuna Barnes Augusta Savage and Lee Miller made lasting contributions to art and literature
