In a desperate bid to escape the spaceship Enkidu and its captain Heorest Holt carried its precious human cargo to a potential new paradise. Generations later this fragile colony has managed to survive eking out a hardy existence. Yet life is tough and much technological knowledge has been lost. Then strangers appear. The Memory Thief KATE D. GHOLSON,2025-11-01 When Kai awakens in a hospital with no memory of his past, he's horrified to learn he's the prime suspect in a series of brutal murders terrorizing the local werewolf pack. The only thing more unsettling than the blood on his hands is the inexplicable pull he feels toward Marcus, the pack's stern enforcer sent to interrogate him. Marcus should want nothing more than to see justice served, but the moment he looks into Kai's confused amber eyes, his carefully constructed walls begin to crumble. The accused killer standing before him isn't just any wolf; he's the mate Marcus lost three years ago under devastating circumstances. As fragmented memories surface, Kai discovers someone has been using dark magic to steal and manipulate his experiences, turning him into an unwilling weapon against his own kind. The most terrifying revelation he's been programmed to kill Marcus on the next full moon, the same man who, through recovered memories, he's falling in love with all over again. With only days until the full moon and a magical compulsion that grows stronger by the hour, Marcus and Kai must uncover who's behind the memory theft while fighting both their rekindling bond and the pack's demand for justice. But recovering the truth means confronting the painful reason they were separated in the first place and facing whether their love is strong enough to survive not just dark magic but the devastating secrets that tore them apart. In a race against time and a love that refuses to stay buried, some memories are worth dying for. The Encyclopedia of Fantasy John Clute, John Grant,1999-03-15 Like its companion volume The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction, this massive reference of 4 000 entries
