Photography between Poetry and Politics Hilde van Gelder, Helen Westgeest, 2008 Lieven Gevaert Series 7 Does photography have a hybrid or chameleonic character because it can be part of entirely different mixed media works of art Photography as a medium is faced with the challenge of escaping from its too frequent use as rather noncommittal and poetic visual imagery How best might photographers proceed to maintain the integrity of their art A distinguished group of art historians art theorists and specialists in contemporary photography address these issues in Photography between Poetry and Politics They suggest that by raising a critical debate on the internal workings of the artistic system itself or on broader social problems photographers might be able to transcend both political and aesthetic concerns and so revitalize their art form and regain its autonomy

Documenta X Catherine David, Jean-François Chevrier, 1997 This book seeks to indicate a political context for the interpretation of artistic activities at the close of the twentieth century through a montage of images and documents from the immediate postwar period to the present

The Politics of Contemporary Art Biennials Panos Kompatsiaris, 2017-03-31 Contemporary art biennials are sites of prestige innovation and experimentation where the category of art is meant to be in perpetual motion rearranged and redefined opening itself to the world and its contradictions They are sites of a seemingly peaceful cohabitation between the elitist and the popular where the likes of Jeff Koons encounter the likes of Guy Debord where Angela Davis and Frantz Fanon share the same ground with neoliberal cultural policy makers and creative entrepreneurs Building on the legacy of events that conjoin art critical theory and counterculture from Nova Convention to documenta X the new biennial blends the modalities of protest with a neoliberal politics of creativity This book examines a strained period for these high art institutions a period when their politics are brought into question and often boycotted in the context of austerity crisis and the rise of Occupy cultures Using the 3rd Athens Biennale and the 7th Berlin Biennale as its main case studies it looks at how the in built tensions between the domains of art and politics take shape when spectacular displays attempt to operate as immediate activist sites Drawing on ethnographic research and contemporary cultural theory this book argues that biennials both denunciate the aesthetic as bourgeois category and simultaneously replicate and diffuse an exclusive sociability across social landscapes

The Politics and Poetics of Cinematic Realism Hermann Kappelhoff, 2015-08-11 Hermann Kappelhoff casts the evolution of cinema as an ongoing struggle to relate audiences to their historical moment Appreciating cinema's unique ability to bind concrete living conditions to individual experience which existing political institutions cannot he reads films by Sergei Eisenstein and Pedro Almodóvar by the New Objectivity and the New Hollywood to demonstrate how cinema situates spectators within society Kappelhoff applies the Deleuzian practice of thinking in images to his analysis of films and incorporates the approaches of Jacques Rancière and Richard Rorty who see politics in the permanent reconfiguration of poetic forms This enables him to conceptualize film as a medium that continually renews the audiovisual spaces and temporalities through which audiences confront reality Revitalizing the reading of films by Visconti Fassbinder Kubrick Friedkin and others Kappelhoff affirms cinema's historical significance while discovering its engagement with politics as a realm of experience Biennials, Triennials, and Documenta Anthony Gardner, Charles Green, 2016-05-16 This innovative new history examines in depth how the growing popularity of large scale international survey exhibitions or biennials has influenced global contemporary art since the 1950s Provides a comprehensive global history of biennialization from the rise of the European star curator in the 1970s to the emergence of mega exhibitions in Asia in the 1990s Introduces a global array of case studies to illustrate the trajectory of biennials and their growing influence on artistic expression from the Biennale de la Mediterranée in Alexandria Egypt in 1955 the second Havana Biennial of 1986 New York's Whitney Biennial in 1993 and the 2002 Documenta 11 in Kassel to the Gwangju Biennale of 2014 Explores the evolving curatorial approaches to biennials including analysis of the roles of sponsors philanthropists and biennial directors and their reshaping of the contemporary art scene Uses the history of biennials as a means of illustrating and inciting further discussions of globalization in contemporary art Postdramatic Theatre and the Political Karen Jürs-Munby, Jerome Carroll, Steve Giles, 2013-12-19 Is postdramatic theatre political and if so how How does it relate to Brecht's ideas of political theatre for example How can we account for the relationship between aesthetics and politics in new forms of theatre playwriting and performance The chapters in this book discuss crucial aspects of the issues raised by the postdramatic turn in theatre in the late twentieth and early twenty first century the status of the audience and modes of spectatorship in postdramatic theatre the political claims of postdramatic theatre postdramatic theatre's ongoing relationship with the dramatic tradition its dialectical qualities or its eschewing of the dialectic questions of representation and the real in theatre the role of bodies perception appearance and theatricality in postdramatic theatre as well as subjectivity and agency in postdramatic theatre dance and performance Offering analyses of a wide range of international performance examples scholars in this volume engage with Hans Thies Lehmann's theoretical positions both affirmatively and critically relating them to other approaches by thinkers ranging from early theorists such as Brecht Adorno and Benjamin to contemporary thinkers such as Fischer Lichte Rancière and others Trespasses Masao Miyoshi, 2010-04-07 Trespasses presents key writings of the cultural critic Misao Miyoshi including eleven previously published selections and a major new essay in which he calls for a global environmental protection studies The Cultures of Entanglement Suzanne Anker, Sabine Flach, 2024-03-04 The symbolic meaning of plants their relevance to religion and the metaphorical provocations in the order of knowledge culture and political power underline the role of plants as something more than passive objects Current theoretical and artistic discourses have been seeking access to the world independently of man by focusing on the nonhuman other The contributors to this volume examine the historical philosophical and scientific findings that generate this idea In what way are such perspectives manifest in contemporary art Do artists develop a particular approach that enables nonhuman life forms like plants insects or animals to have an impact

Performance on the Edge Johannes Birringer,2002-06-01 Performance on the Edge takes the reader on a journey across geographical borders and conceptual boundaries in order to map out the new territory of contemporary theatre dance media arts and activism Working across social cultural and political fault lines the book explores performance as both process and contact as the commitment to political activism and the reconstruction of community as site specific intervention into the social and technological structures of abandonment and as the highly charged embodiment of erotic fantasies Performance on the Edge addresses the politics of community oriented and reconstructive artmaking in an era marked by the AIDS crisis cultural and racial polarization warfare separatism and xenophobia Provocatively illustrated with work from North and Central America and Eastern and Western Europe the book challenges our assumptions about the relations between media and activism technological imperatives and social processes and bodily identities and virtual communities

Contemporary Art: A Very Short Introduction Julian Stallabrass,2006-03-23 Bloodied toy soldiers gilded shopping carts and Lego concentration camps Contemporary art is supposed to be a realm of freedom where artists shock break taboos and switch between confronting viewers with works of great profundity and jaw dropping triviality But away from shock tactics in the gallery there are many unanswered questions What is contemporary about contemporary art What effect do politics and big business have on art And who really runs the art world Previously published as Art Incorporated this controversial and witty Very Short Introduction is an exploration of the global art scene that will change the way you see contemporary art BOOK JACKET
