Disabling Policies? Gillian Fulcher, 2015-12-22 First published in 1989 this book is about integrating or mainstreaming policies looking specifically at how to improve circumstances for schoolchildren with disabilities or handicaps and their teachers The author draws on her experiences both within and outside the academic institution to conceptualise and theorise policy so as to place this policy in a political framework and locate it in a wider model of social life This model is then used to disentangle the nature and effects of policy practices surrounding integration and mainstreaming looking at practice in various parts of Europe the US and Australia at that time Although written at the end of the 1980s this book discusses topics that are still relevant today Graduate Research in Urban Education and Related Disciplines, 1978 Research in Education, 1972 Community Analysis and Practice Josefina Figueira-McDonough, 2013-05-13 Concentrating on three main themes environmental complexity community as the target of intervention and commitment to social justice Community Theory and Practice updates and expands the current boundaries of thinking about community organization This book is an important resource for social work students educators and practitioners as well as those who work in the areas of sociology urban studies community organization and development and criminology and other areas of social study and policy
