Policy Making In The European Union Conceptual Lenses And The Integration Process:

Policy-making in the European Union Laura Cram,1997 This book takes a fresh view at attempts to conceptualize the process of European integration It highlights the often neglected but crucial role of European institutions in understanding major constitutional decisions in the European Union

Constructing a Policy-Making State? Jeremy Richardson,2012-09-20 Constructing a Policy Making State sets out to examine the processes by which Europeanization takes place Europeanization is defined as the process by which the key decisions about public policies are gradually transferred to the European level or for new policy areas emerge at the European level This is in contrast to definitions of Europeanization which focus on the adaption of member states to European public policies Thus the main focus is whether a European Union policy making state is being created via changes in the distribution of power between member states and the European level institutions over time In addition to several overview chapters such as on agenda setting in the EU there are twelve sectoral studies which analyse the differing trajectories and outcomes of the Europeanization process and the extent to which the European Union can make authoritative allocations The case studies have been selected in order to illustrate the degree of cross sectoral variation in the process of Europeanization from sectors which have yet to see very much Europeanization such as health to sectors such as competition policy which are almost fully Europeanized The book is consciously multi theoretic in its approach drawing on a range of theories and concepts from theories of European integration to theories of public policy processes

Understanding Eu Policy Making Raj S. Chari,Sylvia Kritzinger,2006-08-20 EU policy shapes all areas of our lives from our money to our food to our welfare Yet we know little about how EU decisions are made and who benefits from them This book is a critical guide to the policies of the EU Raj Chari and Sylvia Kritzinger argue that there is an agenda that underlies EU policy making Some policies those that aim to create a competitive economy are prioritised while others are effectively ignored Setting the EU in a proper economic and theoretical context the authors analyse each of the EU s major policy areas Arguing that traditional accounts of EU integration are inadequate the authors develop an innovative new perspective

Globalisation and EU Policy-making Ian Bartle,2005 Assesses and contrasts the roles of globalisation institutions and ideas on policy making in the EU Views the creation of liberalised European single markets in the telecommunications and electricity supply sectors out of national monopolies as an example of the dramatic transformation of economic organisation across Europe in the last twenty years Connects micro policy making processes in two industrial sectors to macro international political economy Covers the period from the mid 1980s when the single market came on the agenda through the liberalising initiatives in the 1990s to the new regulatory framework in communications in 2002 and the 2003 directive on the full liberalisation of electricity by 2007 Will be of interest to anyone studying globalisation European integration and policy making regulation and policy in utility sectors

EU Railway Policy-Making H. Dyrhaug,2013-09-18 Through policy and intervention national governments in Europe
