Marek Haltof, 2015-02-02 In 1902 scientist and inventor Kazimierz Pr szynski made the first Polish narrative film The Return of a Merry Fellow Since then the Polish film industry has produced a diverse body of work ranging from patriotic melodramas and epic adaptations of the national literary canon to Yiddish cinema and films portraying the corrupt side of communism Poland has produced several internationally known films including Andrzej Wajda's war trilogy A Generation 1955 Kanal 1957 and Ashes and Diamonds 1958 Roman Polanski's Knife in the Water 1962 and Andrzej Munk's The Passenger 1963 Often performing specific political and cultural duties for their nation Polish filmmakers were well aware of their role as educators entertainers social activists and political leaders This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Polish Cinema fills the gap in film scholarship presenting an extensive factual survey of Polish film Through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes a bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on films directors actors producers and film institutions a balanced picture of the richness of Polish cinema is presented Readers with professional interest in cinema will welcome this new work which will enhance senior undergraduate or postgraduate courses in film studies Polish Film and the Holocaust Marek Haltof, 2012 During World War II Poland lost more than six million people including about three million Polish Jews who perished in the ghettos and extermination camps built by Nazi Germany in occupied Polish territories This book is the first to address the representation of the Holocaust in Polish film and does so through a detailed treatment of several films which the author frames in relation to the political ideological and cultural contexts of the times in which they were created Following the chronological development of Polish Holocaust films the book begins with two early classics Wanda Jakubowska's The Last Stage 1948 and Aleksander Ford's Border Street 1949 and next explores the Polish School period represented by Andrzej Wajda's A Generation 1955 and Andrzej Munk's The Passenger 1963. Between 1965 and 1980 there was an organized silence regarding sensitive Polish Jewish relations resulting in only a few relevant films until the return of democracy in 1989 when an increasing number were made among them Krzysztof Kieślowski's Decalogue 8 1988, Andrzej Wajda's Korczak 1990, Jan Jakub Kolski's Keep Away from the Window 2000 and Roman Polański's The Pianist 2002. An important contribution to film studies, this book has wider relevance in addressing the issue of Poland's national memory.

Jews, Nazis and the Cinema of Hungary David Frey, 2017-02-28. Between 1929 and 1942 Hungary's motion picture industry experienced meteoric growth. It leapt into Europe's top echelon, trailing only Nazi Germany and Italy in feature output. Yet by 1944 Hungary's cinema was in shambles, internal and external forces having destroyed its unification experiments and productive capacity. This original cultural and political history examines the birth, unexpected ascendance, and wartime collapse of Hungary's early sound cinema by placing it within a complex international nexus. Detailing the interplay of Hungarian cultural and political elites, Jewish film professionals and financiers, Nazi officials and global film moguls, David Frey demonstrates how the transnational process of forging an industry designed to define a national culture proved particularly contentious and surprisingly contradictory in the heyday of racial nationalism and antisemitism.

Polish Cinema Marek Haltof, 2018-10-19. First published in 2002, Marek Haltof's seminal volume was the first comprehensive English language study of Polish cinema, providing a much needed survey of one of Europe's most distinguished yet unjustly neglected film cultures. Since then seismic changes have reshaped Polish society, European politics, and the global film industry. This thoroughly revised and updated edition takes stock of these dramatic shifts to provide an essential account of Polish cinema from the nineteenth century to today, covering such renowned figures as Kieślowski, Skolimowski, and Wajda, along with vastly expanded coverage of documentaries, animation, and television, all set against the backdrop of an ever more transnational film culture.

Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2009. Polish Cinema Today Helena Goscilo, Beth Holmgren, 2021-08-19. A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title. Structured according to key themes, Polish Cinema Today analyzes the remarkable innovations in Polish cinema emerging a decade after the 1989 dissolution of the Soviet bloc, once its film industry had evolved from a socialist state enterprise into a much more accessible system of film production with growing expertise in distribution and marketing. By the early 2000s, an impressive, diverse cohort of filmmakers broke through the gridlock of a small set of esteemed aging auteurs as well as the glut of imported Hollywood blockbusters empowered by the digital revolution and domestic audience appetite for independent work. Polish directors today challenge sacrosanct bromides about national and gender identity, Poland's historical martyrdom, the status of the influential Catholic Church, and the benevolent family, while investigating the phenomena of migration and sexuality in their full complexity. Each thematic chapter places these recent films within a historical, cultural context, nationally and transnationally, and designs its analyses of specific works to engage general audiences of film scholars students and cinephiles
