Political Capital:

Multimodal Political Networks David Knoke, Mario Diani, James Hollway, 2021-05-27 Theories and methods for analyzing multimodal relations connecting political entities including voters politicians parties events and nations Private Groups and Public Life Jan W. van Deth, 2003-12-16 This book focuses on the changing relationship between social and political involvement in Western Europe Empirical case studies examine how new social movements interact with conventional political structures as individuals and groups experiment with new forms of political expression The results indicate not a declining but a changing democratic culture Women in Mexican Politics Fernanda Vidal Correa, 2016-12-12 This book offers an analysis of how women's participation is conducted in Mexico's political sphere Federalization and decentralization processes can have a significant impact on women's participation and discrimination By questioning the form in which a democratic state is built that is the degree of decentralization the book looks to a set of forms and processes affecting women's political life A decentralized form of state government implies three levels of government in which women or any other group of people can have active participation central federal government state regional province government and local municipalities government This book offers an analysis of how gender discrimination operates in a different way in each of these levels of government and the corresponding political activity Policies that fight against gender discrimination and promote women's participation in both administration and political parties do not always operate cooperatively and often exist in contradiction with each other Crises and Disruptions in International Business Murad A. Mithani, Rajneesh Narula, Irina Surdu, Alain Verbeke, 2022-04-25 Crises and disruptions can lead to important changes in economic social and institutional environments This collection of influential JIBS articles and original commentaries highlights that MNEs are affected by and respond to crises and disruptions differently than domestic firms due to their geographically dispersed operations and wider range of experiences from being active in diverse environments MNEs can exhibit greater flexibility to avoid locations characterised by crises and disruptions and when affected they can deploy a more refined set of responses relative to domestic firms Each article is accompanied by a brand new editorial piece bringing the research right up to date and reflecting on the impact of the article today In this way the book offers an integrated perspective on the antecedents outcomes and potential opportunities associated with a variety of crises and disruptions such as disease outbreaks natural disasters climate change and political unrest An ideal resource for students and researchers this book offers new perspectives policy and practical recommendations as well as a discussion of future trends The volume concludes with a novel analysis on how businesses can move forward in a post Covid world College Success for Students of Color Francisco A. Rios, Jacquelyn Bridgeman, Angela M. Jaime, Kevin Roxas, Caskey Russell, 2024-09 This one of a kind how to guide is designed to help Indigenous and Students of Color ISOC to thrive in post secondary education It spotlights the personal and cultural capital ISOCs bring with them on their postsecondary educational journey This book helps students identify strengthen and use these assets so that success in higher education is not only possible but inevitable Written by faculty and administrators of color from a wide range of backgrounds and experiences this guide contains insider advice and strategies to help ISOCs successfully navigate the challenges they might face wherever their postsecondary journey takes them Through stories and relatable vignettes that help readers envision themselves in the book this easy to use interactive resource includes features such as Professional Tips Think Alone Think Together discussion prompts and skill building end of chapter activities that help students to develop their assets and hone their skills Designed to help ISOCs thrive in post secondary education as their full authentic selves this book is a guide that can be returned to at any point along one s postsecondary journey Book Features Perspectives ideas and advice that address the unique experiences that Indigenous and Students of Color are likely to have in post secondary institutions Written collaboratively by a diverse group of faculty and administrators of color representing a variety of academic disciplines including law education ethnic and women studies and English A user friendly format that students can easily navigate to address their needs as they plan and attend post secondary education Appropriate for students attending or considering a variety of postsecondary options including technical schools community college or a 4 year college or university

In His Father's Shadow Stanley A. Renshon,2015-03-10

From a pampered son who showed little promise to his rise to the presidency George W Bush has transformed himself through acts of will and faith Stanley Renshon examines the psychological transformation of Bush and identifies those pivotal changes that allowed him to achieve success in his personal life and in the political arena and shows how Bush s personal transformation has come to shape his political policies The man who battled and defeated his own inner demons has become a president determined to battle the demons of terrorism and extremism that prevent democracy from flourishing around the world This psychological portrait provides a much needed antidote to prevailing critiques that ridicule Bush s values and policies as it celebrates his resolve and strong leadership

The Power of Creative Reasoning Lual A. Deng,2013 Seventy two percent of South Sudan s population is under thirty years of age It is this generation that must create a new South Sudanese identity that is inclusive of all its nationalities In The Power of Creative Reasoning author Lual A Deng shows how the ideas and concepts touted by Dr John Garang could facilitate the advancement of the ideals of freedom liberty and human dignity The Power of Creative Reasoning provides an insider s perspective on Garang a visionary leader who used a combination of strategic thinking and a path goal approach to resolve complex societal problems Deng has coined the term Garangism as the pursuit of Sudanese commonality with conviction courage consistency and creativity to end all forms of marginalization Deng shows how Garang employed symbolic logic in the form of Venn Diagrams to articulate the vision of New Sudan and presents ten power ful ideas to help the Sudanese as they are facing serious challenges of leadership democratic governance sustained peace economic growth poverty and corruption The Power of Creative Reasoning communicates that the leadership of the new Sudan can manage these challenges by internalizing Garang s ideas

Social

Inequality in Vietnam and the Challenges to Reform Philip Taylor, 2004 This book illustrates the changing ways in which people have accumulated wealth social and cultural capital in Vietnam's move from a socialist to a market oriented society

The Political Economy of Change Norman T. Uphoff, Warren F. Ilchman, 2018-04-17 Ilchman and Uphoff believe that political science has failed in the past to meet its own standards of rigor and cogency and does not meet standards of usefulness and relevance set by others The Political Economy of Change attempts to remedy these shortcomings by expanding the limits of social science analysis to deal with problems of allocation and productivity in all spheres of public choice not just the economic sphere
