Political Economy of Agrarian Reform in Central and Eastern Europe Johan F.M Swinnen, 2018-08-10 First published in 1997 this volume responds to the challenges faced in post Communist Eastern Europe in the privatization and decollectivisation of agriculture The contributors feature specialists in agriculture finance economics and political science They begin with discussions on the political economy of privatization and a historical overview and continue with thoughts on agricultural decollectivization in twelve countries across Eastern Europe including Albania the Baltic countries Bulgaria Slovakia and Hungary The project reflects the basic framework of endogenous institutional change and policy analysis and uses a political economy framework to explain and interpret these agricultural trends

The Political Economy of Germany under Chancellors Kohl and Schröder Jeremy Leaman, 2009-07-01 While unification has undoubtedly had major effects on Germany's political economy the pattern of current policy making preferences was established at an earlier stage in particular at the beginning of the Kohl era in 1982 This essentially neo liberal pattern can be seen to have dominated the modalities chosen to guide Germany through the process of unification and was mirrored in developments in other OECD countries and in particular within the EU This book demonstrates that the three policy imperatives neo liberal structural reform European monetary integration and unification produced a policy mix which together with other structural economic and demographic factors has had disappointing results in all three areas and hampered Germany s overall economic development International Privatisation Thomas Clarke,2011-07-20 No detailed description available for International Privatisation Political Economy of Transition Jozef M. van Brabant,2012-11-12 This book addresses the policy questions surrounding the challenge of transforming eastern European economies from their planned administrative past to vibrant market based entities Jozef van Brabant considers in turn the wider set of challenges facing these economies stabilization privatization liberalization institution building and developing and maintaining the sociopolitical consensus before examining the evolving role of the state Using concrete examples from the eastern European countries throughout including the Czech Republic and Bulgaria this work systematically examines in a society wide context the initial conditions of transformation the policy tasks ahead and the manner in which policies have been pursued Political Economy of Palestine Alaa Tartir,Tariq Dana,Timothy Seidel,2021-05-18 This book explores the political economy of Palestine through critical interdisciplinary and decolonial perspectives underscoring that an approach to economics that does not consider the political a de politicized economics is inadequate to understanding the situation in occupied Palestine A critical interdisciplinary approach to political economy challenges prevailing neoliberal logics and structures that reproduce racial capitalism and explores how the political economy of occupied Palestine is shaped by processes of accumulation by exploitation and dispossession from both Israel and global business as well as from Palestinian elites A decolonial approach to Palestinian political economy foregrounds struggles against neoliberal and settler colonial policies and institutions and aids in the de fragmentation of Palestinian life land and political economy that the Oslo Accords perpetuated but whose histories of de development over all of Palestine can be traced back for over a century The chapters in this book offer an in depth contextualization of the Palestinian political economy analyze the political economy of integration fragmentation and inequality and explore and problematize multiple sectors and themes of political economy in the absence of sovereignty
