Political Psychology A Special Issue Of The Journal Of Applied Psychology An International Review:

Political Psychology Klaus Boehnke, Daniel Bar-Tal, 1998 This special issue covers a wide range of topics in political psychology a growing field of applied psychology It includes contributions of prominent authors from four continents Graduate students of psychology political psychology and sociology as well as professionals will benefit from this issue

The Cambridge Handbook of Political Psychology Danny Osborne, Chris G. Sibley, 2022-02-24 This handbook reviews political psychology from an international perspective covering foundational approaches and contemporary challenges

The International Handbook of Psychology Kurt Pawlik, Mark R Rosenzweig, 2000-07-21 The International Handbook of Psychology is an authoritative resource covering all the main areas of psychological science and written by an outstanding set of authors from around the world The 31 chapters cover not only scientific but also applied cross disciplinary aspects Supervised by an International Editorial Advisory Board IEAB of 13 eminent psychologists and edited by Professors Kurt Pawlik and Mark R Rosenzweig it is being published under the auspices of the International Union of Psychological Science IUPsyS by SAGE Publications Ltd in London The International Handbook of Psychology will be invaluable to advanced undergraduates graduate students and academics in psychology and will also be of interest to students of education sociology political science humanities philosophy informatics cognitive sciences neuroscience legal sciences and criminology and will serve as a general resource reference text written at a level comparable to Scientific American This impressive volume covers a tremendous amount of work It is well organized authors have generally kept to a standard brief It is also truly international both in authorship and the origin of the work referenced This will provide a very useful reference book for undergraduate and post graduate students British Journal of Educational Psychology

Childhoods Gaile Sloan Cannella, Lourdes Diaz Soto, 2010 For the past 20 years a range of scholars educators and cultural workers have examined dominant discourses of childhood using critical feminist and other postmodern perspectives Located in a variety of disciplines these poststructural deconstructive and even postcolonial critiques have challenged everything from notions of the universal child to adult child dualisms to deterministic developmental theory The purpose of this volume is to acknowledge the profound contributions of that large body of literature while demonstrating the ways that critical analyses can be used to generate avenues actions that increase possibilities for social justice for those who are younger while at the same time avoiding determinism In this time of globalization hyper capitalism and discourses that would control and disqualify through constructions like accountability we believe that projects such as this are of utmost importance The volume is divided into four major sections to reflect the multiplicity of human voices and perspectives section I contemporary circumstances and dominant discourses within which we all attempt to function sections II and III and the generation of new possibilities for constructing relationships together section IV Finally a voice from the heart within a reconceptualist social science agenda for early childhood studies is presented The Oxford Handbook of Stress, Health, and Coping Susan Folkman, 2011 Few publications have changed the landscape of contemporary psychology more than Richard Lazarus and Susan Folkman's landmark work Stress Appraisal and Coping. Its publication in 1984 set the course for years of research on the dynamic processes of psychological stress and coping in human beings. Now more than a quarter century later, The Oxford Handbook of Stress, Health, and Coping pushes the field even further with a comprehensive overview of the newest and best work in this dynamic subject. Edited by Susan Folkman and comprising chapters by the field's leading scientists, this new volume details the expanded knowledge base that has emerged from extensive research on stress and coping processes over the last several decades. Featuring 22 topic-based chapters, including two by Folkman, this volume offers unprecedented coverage of the two primary research topics related to stress and coping: mitigating stress-related harms and sustaining well-being in the face of stress. Both topics are addressed within their relevant contexts, including chronic illness, calamity, bereavement, and social hardship. The Oxford Handbook of Stress, Health, and Coping is an essential reference work for students, practitioners, and researchers across the fields of health psychology, medicine, and palliative care.

Organizational Behaviour and the Physical Environment Oluremi B. Ayoko, Neal M. Ashkanasy, 2019-06-27 This book looks at how the physical environment of work shapes organizational behaviour, demonstrating that our physical surroundings at work can have a big influence on employee productivity, performance, and wellbeing. Drawing upon the latest research, Organizational Behaviour and the Physical Environment provides comprehensive coverage of the different aspects of the physical environment at work: the buildings, furnishings, equipment, lighting, air quality, and their configurations. From theories of psychological ownership and work design to cultural issues and technology in the workplace, its international range of contributors provides voices from Australasia, North America, Europe, and the Middle East. This book will be invaluable supplementary reading for advanced students, researchers, and practitioners across the fields of organizational behaviour, HRM, organizational and environmental psychology, and workspace design.

Politics in Organizations Gerald R. Ferris, Darren C. Treadway, 2012 First Published in 2012, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company.

Women in Public Administration of the American States Sharada Rath, 1998 The book analyses the administrative value of women state administrators in America. On the basis of this analysis, the author has drawn the conclusion that although upward career mobility of women in administration is less, due to the glass ceiling, gender variation does not exist so far as political acuity, efficiency, and managerial competency of women administrators are concerned.

Intercultural Relations In Asia: Migration And Work Effectiveness Chan-hoong Leong, John W. Berry, 2009-08-14 This book showcases some of the key thematic issues reported by Asian migrants and sojourners residing abroad, as well as non-Asians living in the Far East. The diverse range and scope of the papers demonstrate the interdisciplinary, convoluted, and intertwined perspectives in human transnational movement. The book comprises four thematic sections: Intercultural Relations and Social Integration, cross-national interactions, and the notion of rootedness and nation-state among individuals and their families form the nexus of discussion. On Cultural Competency in Workplace and Social Environment the individuals and their performance in the social and corporate spheres take center stage On one hand both Asians and non Asians share similar challenges across cultures but on the other they each reported different social and workplace dynamics as a consequence of their ethnic cultural background In Sociocultural Effectiveness and Emotional Adaptation the focus gravitates toward socio emotional adjustment of Asian and Western sojourners in cultures opposite their own In order to appreciate the cultural and emotive dimensions discursive examination and comparative analysis across geographic locations are needed The last thematic category in Understanding Asian Migration in Asia a ubiquitous challenge in Asian societies will be presented the rural urban labor migration movement in China

Why We Fight Christopher Blattman, 2023-04-18 Why We Fight reflects Blattman's expertise in economics political science and history Blattman is a great storyteller with important insights for us all Richard H Thaler winner of the Nobel Memorial Prize in Economic Sciences and coauthor of Nudge Engaging and profound this deeply searching book explains the true origins of warfare and it illustrates the ways that despite some contrary appearances human beings are capable of great goodness Nicholas A Christakis author of Blueprint The Evolutionary Origins of a Good Society Why did Russia attack Ukraine Will China invade Taiwan and launch WWII Why has the number of civil wars reached their highest level in decades Why are so many cities in the Americas plagued with violence And finally what can any of us do about it It feels like we're surrounded by violence Each conflict seems unique and insoluble With a reason for every war and a war for every reason what hope is there for peace Fortunately it's simpler than that Why We Fight boils down decades of economics political science psychology and real world interventions giving us some counterintuitive answers to the question of war The first is that most of the time we don't fight Around the world there are millions of hostile rivalries yet only a fraction erupt into violence Most enemies loathe one another in peace The reason is simple war is too costly to fight It's the worst way to settle our differences In those rare instances when fighting ensues that means we have to ask ourselves What kept rivals from the normal grudging compromise The answer is always the same It's because a society or its leaders ignored those costs of war or were willing to pay them Why We Fight shows that there are just five ways this happens From warring states to street gangs ethnic groups and religious sects to political factions Christopher Blattman shows that there are five reasons why violent conflict occasionally wins over compromise Through Blattman's time studying Medellin Chicago Liberia Northern Ireland and more we learn the common logics driving vainglorious monarchs dictators mobs pilots football hooligans ancient peoples and fanatics Why We Fight shows that war isn't a series of errors accidents and emotions gone awry There are underlying strategic ideological and institutional forces that are too often overlooked So how to get to peace Blattman shows that societies are surprisingly good at interrupting and ending violence when they want to even gangs do it The best peacemakers tackle the five reasons shifting incentives away from violence and getting rivals back to dealmaking And they do so through tinkering not transformation Realistic and optimistic this is a book that lends new meaning to the adage Give

peace a chance
