Radical Criminology International Library Of Criminology Criminal Justice And Penology:

Radical Criminology Michael J. Lynch, 1997 This text contains a variety of works that represent the radical tradition within criminology and criminal justice The essays provide some background into radical assumptions feature contemporary advances include empirical examinations and illustrate substantive issues

Radical and Marxist Theories of Crime Paul B. Stretesky, 2017-03-02 The essays selected for this volume show how radical and Marxist criminology has established itself as an influential critique since it emerged in the late 1960s Unlike orthodox criminology which emphasizes individual level explanations of criminal behavior radical and Marxist criminology emphasizes power inequality and structures especially those related to class as key factors in crime law and justice This collection of essays draws attention to the way in which structural forces shape and influence both individual and institutional for example governmental behavior highlights neglected crime corporate governmental state corporate and environmental which causes more extensive damage than the street crimes examined by orthodox criminology and discusses the ways in which law and criminal justice processes reinforce power structures and contribute to class control

Critique and Radical Discourses on Crime George Pavlich, 2019-07-12 This title was first published in 2000 Critique and Radical Discourses on Crime develops a unique line of thought in contemporary criminology re examining an under researched dimension of radical discourse In particular it focuses attention on the distinguishing feature of radical discourses their allegiance to various visions of critique The book reassesses the genres of critique evident in previous forms of radical criminology formulates a different genre of critique appropriate to the uncertainties of postmodern conditions and shows how these genres can be articulated to differently conceived radical discourses on crime

Perspectives on Crime Reduction Tim Hope, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 The papers in this volume are concerned with the prevention of crime Like other books in the International Library the text is intended primarily for reference by those who need to reflect upon what criminology has had to say about important contemporary concerns of criminal policy The papers present a kind of history of ideas which together trace the emergence of some key components of contemporary thinking about reducing crime

The Fear of Crime Jason Ditton, Stephen Farrall, 2017-07-05 Studies of the fear of crime have constituted what is undeniably the fastest growing research area within criminology in the last decade and this shows no sign of diminishing The editors have a distinguished record of innovative research in the field being responsible for a number of seminal empirical and theoretical articles In this volume they have collected together and for the first time all the most significant contributions to the field The collection includes an introductory essay by the editors and articles reflecting an overview of the field the causes of vulnerability the sources of information on victimisation the methods used to survey fear the theoretical models employed to explain it and the nature of policies designed to reduce fear

Cyberspace Crime D.S Wall, 2017-11-30 This book was published in 2003 This book is a collection of key texts that have contributed towards or have reflected the various debates that have taken place over crime and the internet during that past decade The texts are organised into three parts The first contains a number of viewpoints and perspectives that facilitate our broader understanding of cyberspace crime cybercrimes The second part addresses each of the major types of cybercrime trespass hacking cracking thefts deceptions obscenities pornography violence and illustrate their associated problems of definition and resolution The third and final part contains a selection of texts that each deal with the impact of cyberspace crime upon specific criminal justice processes the police and the trial process

Chronicles of a Radical Criminologist Gregg Barak, 2020-05-15 Coming of age at the Berkeley School of Criminology Life as a young criminologist Academic activism Doing public criminology Doing newsmaking criminology Doing multidisciplinary criminology Academic praxis Integrating criminology Globalizing criminology

Information Sources in the Social Sciences David Fisher, Sandra Price, Terry Hanstock, 2018-02-19 No detailed description available for Information Sources in the Social Sciences

The Termination of Criminal Careers Stephen Farrall, 2017-07-05 Recent years have witnessed an increase in the attention given to the later stages of criminal careers Research upon this topic has charted the main factors associated with the termination of criminal careers outlined some of the possible reasons behind these relationships and started to develop theoretical explanations for such relationships Collected together for the first time are some of the most important contributions to this field of research The collection focuses upon the initial explorations into this topic the most commonly observed findings the cessation of offending by specific offender types and theoretical matters An introductory essay by the editor provides a thorough overview of the work in this area and highlights the reasons why the termination of criminal careers will become increasingly important to criminologists and criminal justice policy makers alike

Occupational Crime Gerald Mars, 2018-02-05 This title was first published in 2001 Occupational crime is found in the whole range of occupations and at all levels Despite the fact that activities are widespread and well known the area is blurred by contradictory perceptions denials and arguments over definition This volume presents influential essays on the topic

Work Place Sabotage Gerald Mars, 2019-03-25 This title was first published in 2001 The examples cited in this study of sabotage in the working environment range from sophisticated tricks played in Western factories to natural reactions to inferior or unhealthy working practices in for example Malaysia and India The book contains articles from various contributors which cover numerous topics within the subject including crime and punishment in the factory employee and organizational sabotage and management techniques to prevent sabotage

International Criminal Law and Procedure John Dugard, Christine van den Wyngaert, 1996 Criminal Law Forum 5 pp 1 55

Criminal Justice and the Mentally Disordered Jill Peay, 1998 The International library of Criminology Criminal Justice and Penology is an important publishing initiative that brings together the most significant contemporary published journal essays in current criminology criminal justice and penology

Recent Developments in Criminological Theory Scott A. Lukas, 2017-07-05 This volume contains recent and cutting edge articles from leading criminological theorists The book is organized into ten sections each representing the latest in the multi disciplinary orientations representing a cross section of contemporary criminological theory These sections include 1 Classical and Rational Choice 2 Biological and Biosocial 3 Psychological 4 Social Learning and Neutralization 5 Social Control 6 Social Ecology Sub cultural and Cultural 7 Anomie and Strain 8 Conflict and Radical 9 Feminist and Gender 10 Critical Criminologies Anarchist Postmodernist Peacemaking The articles were selected based on their contributions to advancing the field including ways in which the authors of each chapter understand the current theoretical tendencies of their respective approaches and how they envision the future of their theories Because of this the articles focus on theory rather than empirical research Of particular note is the tendency toward integration of different perspectives as described by editors Henry and Lukas in their original introduction to this volume Integrative Criminology Gregg Barak,1998 The essays collected together in this volume explore a development in criminology the emerging paradigm of integrative study The integrative wave covers both mainstream and critical criminologies and is part of a larger and emerging paradigm of interdisciplinarity that transcends East West and North South relations This book is essentially devoted to the value and practice of interdisciplinary criminology The contributions aim to represent the full array of integrative thinking and analysis and are divided into five parts Criminal Detection and the Psychology of Crime David V. Canter,Laurence J. Alison,1997 Using Daniel as an example to demonstrate investigative psychology this book examines various areas of criminal detection such as interviewing detecting deception evaluating testimony juvenile offenders and offender typologies Russian and Post-Soviet Organized Crime Mark Galeotti,2002 Diverse perspectives including comparative structural and ethnic frameworks ensure a balanced treatment of a pervasive element of modern Russia Criminology, Penology and Police Science Abstracts ,1994 Criminal Policy Making Andrew Rutherford,1997 This volume presents a wide ranging collection of critical essays which address aspects of criminal policy A central purpose is to illuminate those processes which determine the shape and direction of criminal policy within liberal and democratic states Issues in Comparative Criminology Piers Beirne,David Nelken,1997 Gathering together work in comparative criminology this text focuses on issues of theory explanation and measurement The articles have been selected because of their cross cultural attention to crime rather than to the processes and institutions of criminal justice
