Restorative Justice for Juveniles Lode Walgrave,1998 A selection of papers presented at the international conference Leuven May 12 14 1997 Nurturing Pillars of Society Francis Wing-lin Lee,2010-11-01 The younger generation those under the age of 25 account for more than a quarter of Hong Kong s population A much misunderstood group these people have special characteristics and needs and some are particularly vulnerable Substance abuse among young people is on the rise and juveniles make up a third of total arrests every year Extra effort and attention is required of policy makers educators and social workers to help this group make a positive contribution to society This book seeks to promote understanding of Hong Kong s younger generation and offers strategies for working with them and their families towards healthy and productive development Divided into three parts youth in general youth at risk and young offenders the book draws on international literature and empirical studies from within Hong Kong Its focus is on action always stressing the practical question of how to build a new model for working effectively with them This book will be essential reading for seasoned professionals as well as undergraduate students in criminology social policy and social work and postgraduates intending to practise in these areas Francis Wing lin Lee is an associate professor in the Department of Social Work and Social Administration in the University of Hong Kong The younger generation today has to face complex and diverse life challenges ranging from dysfunctional family systems unemployment hurdles of social mobility stressful school life and the bombardments of the new social media To help young people cope with these challenges they have to be given opportunities and choices for holistic growth and to acquire independent thinking and global vision This book provides thorough analysis and practical reference for youth workers that can enhance their understanding to work with our young people Christine Fang Chief Executive The Hong Kong Council of Social Service Criminological Theories Ronald L. Akers,2013-07-04 In Criminological Theories the noted criminologist Ronald Akers provides thorough description discussion and appraisal of the leading theories of crime delinquent behavior and law criminal justice the origin and history of each theory and its contemporary developments and adherents Akers offers a clear explanation of each theory the central concepts and hypotheses of each theory as well as critical criteria for evaluating each theory in terms of its empirical validity Researchers and librarians as well as general readers will find this book a very useful tool and will applaud its clear and understandable exposition of abstract concepts Violent Juvenile Offender Research and Development Program ,1981 In Response to Aggression Arnold P. Goldstein,Edward G. Carr,William S. Davidson,2013-10-22 In Response to Aggression Methods of Control and Prosocial Alternatives describes and evaluates comprehensively what has been done in response to aggression with emphasis on aggression controls and alternatives The book is organized into four major parts These parts deal with aggression controls and alternatives specific for individual small group community and societal levels of intervention The book will lead to enhanced utilization of methods for aggression controls and alternatives and hence to widespread prosocial and constructive behaviors in response to aggression

Juvenile Delinquency Donald J. Shoemaker, 2009 Juvenile Delinquency offers a timely and comprehensive look at the issues of criminal behavior and justice related to young persons In this highly readable text Donald J Shoemaker grounds his readers with a historical perspective then presents a series of sharply focused chapters on schooling religion and family as well as sections on drug use gangs and female delinquency With a strong emphasis on the importance of theory and practice Juvenile Delinquency is a must read for understanding crime and youth culture

Taking Sides in Social Research Martyn Hammersley, 2005-08-12 In the past it was generally taken for granted that the goal of social research was the production of objective knowledge and that this required a commitment to value neutrality In more recent times however both these ideals have come to be challenged and it is often argued that all research is inevitably political in its assumptions and effects In this major contribution to the debate Martyn Hammersley assesses the arguments from the classic and still influential contributions of C Wright Mills Howard Becker and Alvin Gouldner to the present day He concludes that the case for partisanship is not convincing and that an intelligent and sceptical commitment to the principles of objectivity and value neutrality must remain an essential feature of research

Juvenile Delinquency: An Integrated

Approach James Burfeind, Dawn Jeglum Bartusch, 2010-02-26 Juvenile Delinquency An Integrated Approach Second Edition offers a comprehensive introduction to juvenile delinquency Now in a more concise and accessible format this text cultivates an understanding of juvenile delinquency by examining and linking key sociological and criminological theories and research Biological and psychological approaches to delinquency are covered as well as responses to delinquent behavior including prevention early intervention and contemporary juvenile justice

Juvenile Delinquency Jack E. Bynum, William Edwin Thompson, 1992 Juvenile delinquency is one of the most complex interesting and challenging phenomena in the US Newspapers television and radio bombard us with accounts of juvenile misbehavior and crime which range from truancy to first degree murder Consequently youths who violate the law receive considerable attention from law enforcement officials social agencies criminologists and social and behavioral scientists This book is guided by the basic premise that juvenile delinquency is inherently social in nature Thus any meaningful discussion of delinquency must be expressed in a sociological framework More specifically this book approaches delinquency as it relates to and emerges from the youth s family neighborhood school peer group social class and overall culture and environment This edition includes current and controversial topics such as community policing gun control hate crimes the impact of TV violence boot camps and capital punishment for juveniles Sociologists social workers law enforcers teachers and administrators
