Rage To Live A Biography Of Richard And Isabel Burton:

A Rage to Live Mary S. Lovell, 2000 Describes the accomplishments of the British explorer and scholar and the relationship between him and his unconventional wife A Rage to Live: A Biography of Richard and Isabel Burton Mary S. Lovell, 2000-07-17 An extraordinary biography New York Times Book Review of a brilliant pair of adventurers Their marriage was both improbable and inevitable Isabel Arundell was a schoolgirl the scion of England's most distinguished Catholic family When she first saw him while walking at a seaside resort Richard Burton had already made his mark as a linguist he was fluent in twenty nine languages scholar soldier and explorer at once a symbol of Victorian England's vision of empire and an avowed rebel against its mores When she turned and saw him staring after her she decided that she would marry him By their next meeting Burton had become the first infidel to infiltrate Mecca as one of the faithful and in an expedition to discover the source of the Nile would soon be the first white man to see Lake Tanganyika After being married the Burtons traveled and experienced the world from diplomatic postings in Brazil and Africa to hair raising adventures in the Syrian desert In later life Richard courted further controversy as a self proclaimed erotologist and the translator of The Kama Sutra Based on previously unavailable archives Mary Lovell has written a compelling joint biography that sets Isabel in her proper place as Burton's equal in daring and endurance a fascinating figure in her own right And the Rest Is History Marlene Wagman-Geller, 2011-01-25 Did my heart love till now Forswear it sight For I ne'er saw true beauty till tonight Romeo and Juliet Antony and Cleopatra Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo Gertrude Stein and Alice B Toklas Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall Joe DiMaggio and Marilyn Monroe Elvis Presley and Priscilla Beaulieu John Lennon and Yoko Ono while we're familiar with all of these people as individuals we also associate them with the grand sometimes fiery passion they shared with their partners And the Rest Is History is an intriguing look at how these iconoclastic lovers first crossed paths whether it was through fate setups or blind luck From angry sparks flying to love at first sight the meetings shared in this book give us a look at what makes that one great love A Study Guide for Sir Richard Burton's "The Arabian Nights" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 The Highly Civilized Man Dane Kennedy, 2009-06-30 Though best remembered as an adventurer who entered Mecca in disguise and sought the source of the White Nile Richard Burton contributed so forcefully to his generation that he provides us with a singularly panoramic perspective on the world of the Victorians Engagingly written and vigorously argued this book is an important contribution to our understanding of a remarkable man and a crucial era Improbable Women William Woods Cotterman, 2013-10-22 Zenobia was the third century Syrian queen who rebelled against Roman rule Before Emperor Aurelian prevailed against her forces she had seized almost one third of the Roman Empire Today her legend attracts thousands of visitors to her capital Palmyra one of the great ruined cities of the ancient world In the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries during the time of Ottoman rule travel to the Middle East was almost impossible for Westerners That did not stop five daring women from abandoning their conventional lives and venturing into the heart of this inhospitable region Improbable Women explores the lives of Hester Stanhope Jane Digby Isabel Burton Gertrude Bell and Freya Stark narrating the story of each woman's pilgrimage to Palmyra to pay homage to the warrior queen Although the women lived in different time periods ranging from the eighteenth century to the mid twentieth century they all had middle to upper class British backgrounds and overcame great societal pressures to pursue their independence Cotterman situates their lives against a backdrop of the Middle Eastern history that was the setting for their adventures Divided into six sections one devoted to Zenobia and one on each of the five women Improbable Women is a fascinating glimpse into the experiences and characters of these intelligent open minded and free spirited explorers Literary Couples and 20th-Century Life Writing Janine Utell, 2019-11-14

Exposing how modernist and late modernist writers tell the stories of their intimate relationships though life writing this book engages with the process by which these authors become subjects to a significant other a change that subsequently becomes narrative within their works Looking specifically at partners in a couple Janine Utell focuses on such literary pairings as Virginia and Leonard Woolf Gertrude Stein and Alice B Toklas Sylvia Townsend Warner and Valentine Ackland Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy and Sylvia Plath and Ted Hughes Utell draws on the latest work in narrative theory and the study of intimacy and affects to shed light on the ethics of reading relationships in the modern period Focusing on a range of genres and media from memoir through documentary film to comics this book demonstrates that stories are essential for our thinking of love desire and sexuality Forgotten Warriors Sarah Percy, 2023-09-26

The definitive history of women in war revealing how women have always been an essential part of combat From Boudicca's rebellion to the war in Ukraine battlefields have always contained a surprising number of women Some formed all female armies like the Dahomey Mino of West Africa some fought disguised as men some mobilized in times of national survival like the Soviet flying aces known as the Night Witches International relations expert Sarah Percy unearths the stories of these forgotten warriors She sets the historical record straight revealing that women's exclusion from active combat in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries is a blip in a much longer narrative of female inclusion Deeply researched and brilliantly told Forgotten Warriors turns the notion of war as a man's game on its head and restores women to their rightful place on the front lines of history Marvellous Thieves Paulo Lemos Horta, 2017-01-16

Although many of its stories originated centuries ago in the Middle East the Arabian Nights is regarded as a classic of world literature by virtue of the seminal French and English translations produced in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Supporting the suspicion that the story collection is more Parisian than Persian some of its most famous tales including the stories of Aladdin and Ali Baba appear nowhere in the original sources Yet as befits a world where magic lamps may conceal a jinni and fabulous treasures lie just beyond secret doors the truth of the Arabian Nights is richer than standard criticism suggests Marvellous Thieves which draws on hitherto neglected sources is a brilliant fluent and original work of literary scholarship Robert Irwin Literary Review This fine book cogently probes an influential period in the knotted and at times sordid history of the Arabian

Nights serving as a fine example to those unraveling this promiscuous and forever malleable set of stories Charles Shafaieh Wall Street Journal Intelligent and engrossing The great merit of Horta s book is that its interest always lies in the story of the story in mapping out the complex network of the translators editors and travellers behind the Arabian Nights in ways that enrich our sense of this remarkable text Shahidha Bari Times Higher Education Translation and the Manipulation of Difference Tarek Shamma,2014-06-03 Translation and the Manipulation of Difference explores the question of difference in translation and offers an extended critique of the advocacy of foreignizing translation as a practice that does not minimize the alterity of the foreign text and could therefore serve as an antidote to ethnocentrism and cultural insularity Shamma examines the reception of Arabic literature especially the Arabian Nights in nineteenth century England and offers a detailed analysis of the period s major translations from Arabic by Edward Lane Richard Burton and Wilfred Blunt He demonstrates that the long complicated history of interaction often confrontation between Europe and the Arab World where mis representations of the Other were intricately embroiled with political struggles provides a critical position from which to examine the crucial role of context above and beyond the textual elements of the translation in shaping the political effects of translation Examining translation techniques and decisions in the context of the translators own goals as well as the conditions that surrounded the reception of their work the study shows how each translator manipulated his original in line with political positions that ranged from implicit acquiescence to steadfast resistance to colonialism In a carefully elaborated critique of totalizing positions the author argues that the foreignizing domesticating model is too limited to describe the social and political function of translation and calls for a more complex understanding of the sociopolitical dimensions of translation strategies Eastern Dreams Paul McMichael Nurse,2010-08-24 The 1001 Arabian Nights is perhaps the most famous story collection in the world It has transcended cultures languages and historical eras to become familiar and beloved not only in the Eastern world but also in the West where it is the only acknowledged classic of Western literature to have originated from outside the West itself Despite its prominent place in both Eastern and Western culture the history of the Nights remains tantalizingly elusive and difficult to define In Eastern Dreams author Paul Nurse discusses not only the history of this book but also the many fascinating people who become characters themselves responsible for bringing the Nights to the West and the wider world and how the Nights has influenced and continues to influence global culture

Encyclopedia of British Writers Christine L. Krueger,2014-07 This concise encyclopedic reference profiles more than 800 British poets Encyclopedia of Literature and Science Pamela Gossin,2002-08-30 Science and literature have always been strange bedfellows Like puzzle pieces they fit because they re different Some of the greatest works of world literature have been inspired by the marvels of the scientific world Scientists have written works of the imagination Even formal scientific writings have been known to employ rhetoric There is a tendency to think of literature and the humanities in general as having little to do with science Yet scholars have conducted fruitful studies of the history and philosophy of science With the rise of technology scholars have also applied scientific analysis to the study of literature and the creative process The intersection of scientific and humanistic inquiry is finally being mapped This volume includes more than 650 A Z entries on topics and themes in science and literature significant writers key scientists seminal works and important theories and methodologies This reference defines the rapidly emerging interdisciplinary field of literature and science An introductory essay traces the history of the field its growing reputation and the current state of research Broad in scope the volume covers world literature from its beginnings to the present day and illuminates the role of science in literature and literary studies A wide range of experts contributed entries to this volume each of which concludes with a brief bibliography The entire volume closes with a list of works for further reading

Women Adventurers, 1750-1900 Mary F. McVicker, 2015-05-07 The past quarter century has seen a number of biographies and anthologies on women travelers but to date there has been little comprehensive reference work done on the travelers themselves Some of the women were eccentric many were very adventurous some were in search of a different world British women make up the largest portion of the book s focus these particular adventurers being backed in many cases by family money scientific inquiry and the ready availability of the British seafaring tradition Entries include the woman s family background her educational history and a summary of her world travels with in many cases evocative extracts from their writings many are literary gems

The Dead Ladies Project Jessa Crispin, 2015-09-22 When Jessa Crispin was thirty she burned her settled Chicago life to the ground and took off for Berlin with a pair of suitcases and no plan beyond leaving Half a decade later she s still on the road in search not so much of a home as of understanding a way of being in the world that demands neither constant struggle nor complete surrender The Dead Ladies Project is an account of that journey but it s also much much more Fascinated by exile Crispin travels an itinerary of key locations in its literary map of places that have drawn writers who needed to break free from their origins and start afresh As she reflects on William James struggling through despair in Berlin Nora Barnacle dependant on and dependable for James Joyce in Trieste Maud Gonne fomenting revolution and fostering myth in Dublin or Igor Stravinsky starting over from nothing in Switzerland Crispin

The Routledge History of Death since 1800 Peter N. Stearns, 2020-10-13 The Routledge History of Death Since 1800 looks at how death has been treated and dealt with in modern history the history of the past 250 years in a global context through a mix of definite often quantifiable changes and a complex qualitative assessment of the subject The book is divided into three parts with the first considering major trends in death history and identifying widespread patterns of change and continuity in the material and cultural features of death since 1800 The second part turns to specifically regional experiences and the third offers more specialized chapters on key topics in the modern history of death Historical findings and debates feed directly into a current and prospective assessment of death as many societies transition into patterns of ageing that will further alter the death experience and challenge modern reactions Thus a final chapter probes this topic by way of introducing the links between historical experience and current trajectories ensuring that the book gives the reader a framework for assessing the ongoing process as well as an understanding of the past Global in focus and linking death to a variety of major developments in modern global history the volume is ideal for all those interested in the multifaceted history of how death is dealt with in different societies over time and who want access to the rich and growing historiography on the subject Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Hajj and Europe in the Age of Empire, 2016-10-05 The present volume focuses on the political perceptions of the Hajj its global religious appeal to Muslims and the European struggle for influence and supremacy in the Muslim world in the age of pre colonial and colonial empires In the late fifteenth century and early sixteenth century a pivotal change in seafaring occurred through which western Europeans played important roles in politics trade and culture Viewing this age of empires through the lens of the Hajj puts it into a different perspective by focusing on how increasing European dominance of the globe in pre colonial and colonial times was entangled with Muslim religious action mobility and agency The study of Europe's connections with the Hajj therefore tests the hypothesis that the concept of agency is not limited to isolated parts of the globe By adopting the tools of empires the Hajj in itself a global activity would become part of global and trans cultural history With contributions by Aldo D Agostini Josep Lluís Mateo Dieste Ulrike Freitag Mahmood Kooria Michael Christopher Low Adam Mestyan Umar Ryad John Slight and Bogusław R Zagórski
