Conner, Julie Grossman, R. Barton Palmer, 2022-09-16 In this book each chapter explores significant Irish texts in their literary cultural and historical contexts With an introduction that establishes the multiple critical contexts for Irish cinema literature and their adaptive textual worlds the volume addresses some of the most popular and important late 20th Century and 21st Century works that have had an impact on the Irish and global cinema and literary landscape A remarkable series of acclaimed and profitable domestic productions during the past three decades has accompanied while chronicling Ireland's struggle with self-identity national consciousness and cultural expression such that the story of contemporary Irish cinema is in many ways the story of the young nation s growth pains and travails Whereas Irish literature had long stood as the nation's foremost artistic achievement it is not too much to say that film now rivals literature as Ireland's key form of cultural expression. The proliferation of successful screen versionings of Irish fiction and drama shows how intimately the contemporary Irish cinema is tied to the project of both understanding and complicating even denying a national identity that has undergone radical change during the past three decades This present volume is the first to present a collective accounting of that productive synergy which has seen so much of contemporary Irish literature transferred to the screen Earth Voices Whispering Gerald Dawe, 2008 In the first half of the 20th century the men and women of Ireland experienced the brutal realities of a succession of wars from the unrelenting casualties of WW1 to the domestic upheavals of the 1916 Rising and the Irish Civil War from the romantic idealism of the Spanish Civil War to the unimaginable horrors of WW2 Earth Voices Whispering gathers together for the very first time a wide range of poetic voices that chart the human experiences of these wars compiled and edited by Belfast born poet and senior lecturer in Trinity College Dublin Gerald Dawe Featuring over three hundred poems by celebrated poets such as C S Lewis AE W B Yeats Patrick Kavanagh and Seamus Heaney and including new poems by Derek Mahon and Eilean N Chuilleanain the anthology records the thoughts and experiences of poets as soldiers patriots observers protestors medics and mourners From patriotism to anger passion to compassion hope to regret this groundbreaking new anthology embraces the complex reality of a rich unique and historically overlooked period in Irish poetry
