older fiddling traditions connected to the square dances and community events more than those connected to bluegrass music and modern contest fiddling Some of the tunes in the collection are old standbys such as Bile Them Cabbage while others such as Finley Creek Blues are unique to the region The book is the result of years of work by two respected researchers Gordon McCann won the prestigious Missouri Arts Award in 2002 for his decades of work documenting studying and accompanying Ozarks fiddle music Drew Beisswenger a music librarian at Missouri State University with a Ph D in ethnomusicology has published three other works about fiddle music and is known for his strong transcription and analysis skills

The Original Hot Five Recordings of Louis Armstrong Gene Henry Anderson, 2007 Between 1925 and 1928 the Hot Five the incomparable Louis Armstrong and four seasoned practitioners of the burgeoning jazz style recorded fifty five performances in Chicago for the Okeh label Oddly enough the quintet immortalized on vinyl with recent technology rarely performed as a unit in local nightspots And yet like other music now regarded as especially historic their work in the studio summarized approaches of the past and set standards for the future Remarkable both for popularity among the members of the public and for influence on contemporary musicians these recordings helped make Satchmo a familiar household name and ultimately its bearer an adored public figure They showcased Armstrong's genius notably his leadership in transforming the practice of jazz as an ensemble improvisation into jazz as the art of the improvising soloist In his study Professor Anderson for the first time provides a detailed account of the origins of this pioneering enterprise relates individual pieces to existing copyright deposits and contextualizes the music by offering a reliable timeline of Armstrong's professional activities during these years All fifty five pieces moreover are described in informed commentary Publisher description
