Researching Visual Arts Education in Museums and Galleries brings together case studies from Europe Asia and North America in a way that will lay a foundation for international co operation in the future development and communication of practice based research The research in each of the cases directly stems from educational practice in very particular contexts indicating at once the variety and detail of practitioners concerns and their common interests Rethinking

Research in the Art Museum Emily Pringle, 2019-07-16 Rethinking Research in the Art Museum presents an original and radical perspective on how research can function as an agent of change in art museums today The book analyses a range of art organisations and draws on numerous interviews with museum professionals to outline the limitations of existing models of museum research Arguing for a more democratic formulation in tune with the current needs and ambitions of the art institution Emily Pringle puts forward a framework for practitioner led co produced research that redefines how knowledge is created in the museum Recognising that museums today negotiate multiple agendas the book outlines the value of constructing the art museum professional as a practitioner researcher and their work as a mode of practice based research be they educators archivists curators or conservators Locating these arguments within the framework of new museology critical pedagogy professional and organisational studies and epistemology the book offers insights and guidance for those interested in how art museums function and the role research plays within these complex institutions Rethinking Research in the Art Museum provides a timely and important resource for museum professionals and scholars students artists and community members It should be of particular interest to those invested in exploring how art museums can continue to make the most of their unique resources whilst becoming more collaborative inclusive and relevant to the twenty first century

Museums and Design Education Rebecca Reynolds, 2016-04-15 How can museum educators and higher education tutors enhance the way HE students use museums There are many examples in the UK of museums and universities working together in productive and innovative ways but these relationships tend to be based on individual enthusiasm and opportunistic arrangements Despite the growing importance of museum education departments higher education tends to be overlooked by museums This book looks at the interaction between design students and museums and explores issues projects and emerging ideas about how museums can better support HE students It illustrates the general lessons that can be learnt both strategic and practical which can help to bring about long term and constructive relationships between museums and universities in order to enable effective student learning The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4 Volume Set Sharon Macdonald, Helen Rees Leahy, 2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work that represents a state of the art survey of the burgeoning field of museum studies Featuring original essays by leading international museum experts and emerging scholars readings cover all aspects of museum theory practice debates and the impact of technologies The four volumes in the series divided thematically offer in depth treatment of all major issues relating to museum theory historical and contemporary museum practice mediations in art design and architecture and the transformations and challenges confronting the museum In addition to invaluable surveys of current scholarship the entries include a rich and diverse panoply of examples and original case studies to illuminate the various perspectives Unprecedented for its in depth topic coverage and breadth of scholarship the multi volume International Handbooks of Museum Studies is an indispensable resource for the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society Emerging Technologies and the Digital Transformation of Museums and Heritage Sites Maria Shehade, Theopisti Stylianou-Lambert, 2021-08-02 This book constitutes the post conference proceedings of the First International Conference on Emerging Technologies and the Digital Transformation of Museums and Heritage Sites RISE IMET 2020 held in Nicosia Cyprus in June 2021 The 23 revised full papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 38 submissions The papers are organized in the following topical sections digital curation and visitor engagement in museums and heritage sites VR AR MR mobile applications and gamification in museums and heritage sites digital storytelling and embodied characters for the interpretation of cultural heritage emerging technologies difficult heritage and affective practices participatory approaches crowdsourcing and new technologies digitization documentation and digital representation of cultural heritage The conference was held virtually due to the COVID 19 pandemic International Handbook of Research on Environmental Education Robert B. Stevenson, Michael Brody, Justin Dillon, Arjen E.J. Wals, 2013-05-02 The environment and contested notions of sustainability are increasingly topics of public interest political debate and legislation across the world Environmental education journals now publish research from a wide variety of methodological traditions that show linkages between the environment health development and education The growth in scholarship makes this an opportune time to review and synthesize the knowledge base of the environmental education EE field The purpose of this 51 chapter handbook is not only to illuminate the most important concepts findings and theories that have been developed by EE research but also to critically examine the historical progression of the field its current debates and controversies what is still missing from the EE research agenda and where that agenda might be headed Published for the American Educational Research Association AERA Engaging the Senses: Object-Based Learning in Higher Education Helen J. Chatterjee, Leonie Hannan, 2016-03-09 The use of museum collections as a path to learning for university students is fast becoming a new pedagogy for higher education Despite a strong tradition of using lectures as a way of delivering the curriculum the positive benefits of active and experiential learning are being recognised in universities at both a strategic level and in daily teaching practice As museum artefacts specimens and art works are used to evoke provoke and challenge students engagement with their subject so transformational learning can take place This unique book presents the first comprehensive exploration of object based learning as a pedagogy for higher education in a broad context An international group of authors offer a spectrum of approaches at work in higher education today They explore contemporary principles and practice of object based learning in higher education demonstrating the value of using collections in this context and considering the relationship between academic discipline and object based learning as a teaching strategy Museum Practice Conal McCarthy,2020-11-19 MUSEUM PRACTICE Edited by CONAL MCCARTHY Museum Practice covers the professional work carried out in museums and art galleries of all types including the core functions of management collections exhibitions and programs Some forms of museum practice are familiar to visitors yet within these diverse and complex institutions many practices are hidden from view such as creating marketing campaigns curating and designing exhibitions developing fundraising and sponsorship plans crafting mission statements handling repatriation claims dealing with digital media and more Focused on what actually occurs in everyday museum work this volume offers contributions from experienced professionals and academics that cover a wide range of subjects including policy frameworks ethical guidelines approaches to conservation collection care and management exhibition development and public programs From internal processes such as leadership governance and strategic planning to public facing roles in interpretation visitor research and community engagement and learning each essential component of contemporary museum practice is thoroughly discussed

Art Museums in Modern Society Elena Polyudova,2021-03-08 This volume explores the process of transformation that is affecting art museums and their role in the modern world It considers art museums from the perspectives of their social disposition pedagogical practices and the education they offer The book embraces modern perspectives as a part of the international process where museums activities are transforming from the established traditional approach to more innovative methods such as the digital environment websites development and social activities among others The volume is divided into three parts wherein museums are considered as agents of different spheres in society pedagogy and education The transformation that modern museums have to accept is rooted in new challenges that society offers and the book offers various examples that could be inspirational for developing new strategies for museums It also features interviews with museum educators throughout the world in which they share their experience and vision on the questions presented here
