Jacob,2022-05-30 This book is about the challenges women face when they have interpersonal clashes with female coworkers based on mutual dislike or differences in personal style attitudes or preferences The many conversations that were held with women across the U S illustrate why women often find it so difficult to properly handle these types of disputes and the actions they believe are necessary to resolve them effectively This book presents women s personal stories in their own words about challenging interpersonal conflicts with female coworkers how they handled the situation and the lessons they learned Women's ability to resolve tough interpersonal conflicts with other women at work is crucial. Why? Because research has shown that people tend to believe that women's interpersonal conflicts with female coworkers are more problematic than those of men with male coworkers. As a result, that creates the general perception that women do not work well together. In their personal stories, women share the important lessons they learned, as well as their top dos and don'ts and constructive tips for dealing with interpersonal conflicts with female coworkers. Thanks to the many in-depth conversations with women across the U.S., this book offers an effective model consisting of key steps that women believe are necessary to successfully resolve interpersonal conflicts. By using the conflict resolution model that evolved from the research conducted for this book, women can ensure that both they and their colleagues feel heard, no grudges will be held, and the conflict will be over for good. Not only does this model work for women, but it can also work for anyone.

Keeping the Blues Away Cate Howell, 2010. Keeping the Blues Away is a clinically tested programme to help prevent depression from returning; it has also shown efficacy in reducing depression severity. It includes information and exercises to teach coping, cognitive, behavioural, and interpersonal skills and strategies to prevent relapses, drawing on a wide array of evidence-based techniques. The ten-step programme aims to support the patient as a whole person and includes free access to supporting relaxation audio material. The programme is designed for use by GPs or mental health professionals in supporting patients involving family members or carers, where possible, and accommodating medication and the management of co-existing medical problems where necessary. Keeping the Blues Away will be a key relapse prevention tool for primary care healthcare professionals.
