Resort City In The Sunbelt, Second Edition Eugene P.

Moehring, 2016-10-01 Resort City in the Sunbelt is a non sensationalistic scholarly account of Las Vegas from the building of the Hoover Dam to the construction of the MGM Grand Hotel Historian Eugene Moehring provides a balanced view of the city s urban development Although a unique city in many ways Las Vegas has displayed characteristics common to other sunbelt cities across the western United States including underfunded social services low density urbanization with a heavy reliance upon automobiles a sluggish response to problems within minority communities a preference for efficient business like government and a mania for low taxes The gaming and resort aspects are fully considered but Moehring emphasizes the city as part of the continually expanding sunbelt From this important study historians will conclude that despite some of its unusual traits Las Vegas is much like other western cities and therefore deserves recognition as one of the fastest growing centers in postwar America In a new and expanded epilogue to this edition Moehring looks at the major events of the three decades leading up to 2000 and their underpinnings

The Luxury Guide to Walt Disney World Resort , Resorts of Lake County Donna Hoberg, 2007 Beginning in the 1860s the first vestiges of the resorts of Lake County appeared around the sparkling pools of the region s many hot springs and upon the shores of Clear Lake Lured by the supposed medicinal qualities of the water people flocked to rustic campgrounds and cabins to take the cure for their ailments drink and bathe staying for long periods each summer Within a few years ambitious entrepreneurs bottled the springs mineral waters and built more luxurious accommodations and amenities Although the claims of curative waters lost sway over time resorts equipped with extensive recreational facilities dance floors live music bountiful food hunting fishing and children s entertainment continued to draw visitors in droves Families filled the resorts in summers and by the 1940s large group and society meetings as well as conventions began to utilize the resorts on spring and fall weekends Though few original resorts remain today in 2007 the region s business directory lists 51 Lake County resorts
