Resource Manual for a Living Revolution Virginia Coover,1977 Resource Manual for a Living Revolution Virginia Coover,1985-01-01 Covers group dynamics strategy planning meetings group decision making conflict resolution personal growth community support and training and organizing skills for those seeking nonviolent social change Resource Manual for a Living Revolution Virginia Coover,1985 Covers group dynamics strategy planning meetings group decision making conflict resolution personal growth community support and training and organizing skills for those seeking nonviolent social change Resource Manual for a Living Revolution Virginia Coover,1981 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1979 Sharing the Harvest Elizabeth Henderson,Robyn Van En,2007-11-01 To an increasing number of American families the CSA community supported agriculture is the answer to the globalization of our food supply The premise is simple create a partnership between local farmers and nearby consumers who become members or subscribers in support of the farm In exchange for paying in advance at the beginning of the growing season when the farm needs financing CSA members receive the freshest healthiest produce throughout the season and keep money jobs and farms in their own community In this thoroughly revised and expanded edition of a Chelsea Green classic authors Henderson and Van En provide new insight into making CSA not only a viable economic model but the right choice for food lovers and farmers alike Thinking and buying local is quickly moving from a novel idea to a mainstream activity The groundbreaking first edition helped spark a movement and with this revised edition Sharing the Harvest is poised to lead the way toward a revitalized agriculture Education, Modernity, and Fractured Meaning Donald W. Oliver,Kathleen Waldron Gershman,1989-07-18 An indictment of the ideology of modernity which has resulted in our leading incoherent and fragmented lives Oliver and Gershman s book explores the profound paradigmatic differences that exist among the world s people and describes a rich theory of knowing and being commonly called process philosophy The promise of process philosophy is in its potential to allow us to participate more fully in the flow of all of time and nature But what does it mean for a teacher and student in the learning situation to have a process point of view The authors also discuss many of the various implications in regard to language space power relationships and time as they place process philosophy in the educational context Anarchy Alive! Uri Gordon,2007-11-20 Anarchist politics are at the heart of today s most vibrant and radical social movements From squatted social centres and community gardens to acts of sabotage and raucous summit blockades anarchist groups and networks are spreading an ethos of direct action non hierarchical organizing and self liberation that has redefined revolutionary struggle for the 21st century Anarchy Alive is a fascinating in depth look at the practice and theory of contemporary anarchism Uri Gordon draws on his activist experience and on interviews discussions and a vast selection of recent literature to explore the activities cultures and agendas shaping today s explosive anti authoritarian revival Anarchy Alive also addresses some of the most tense debates in the contemporary movement using a theory based on practice to provocatively reshape anarchist discussions of leadership violence technology and nationalism This is the ideal book for anyone looking for a fresh informed and critical engagement with anarchism as a mature and dynamic political force in the age of globalisation

Ordinary Ecstasy John Rowan,2015-12-22 Humanistic Psychology ranges far and wide into education management gender issues and many other fields Ordinary Ecstasy first published in 1976 is widely regarded as one of the most important books on the subject Although this new edition still contains much of the original material it has been completely rethought in the light of postmodern ideas with more emphasis on the paradoxes within humanistic psychology and takes into account changes in many different areas with a greatly extended bibliography Ordinary Ecstasy is written not only for students and professionals involved in humanistic psychology anyone who works with people in any way will find it valuable and interesting

The Effectiveness of Domestic Human Rights NGOs Scott Calnan,2008-11-30 Although human rights NGOs and especially domestic human rights NGOs have become crucial to the human rights movement over the years very little literature exists which describes their operations or sets out a framework in which they can be critically examined This book sets out to begin to fill this gap by focusing on how NGOs mobilise the law and how their effectiveness could be measured Focusing on case studies of actual domestic human rights NGOs and using a comparative methodology this book focuses its analysis on the real life problems of human rights NGOs The result is a revealing snapshot of the legal work of human rights NGOs and a vision of how they could become even more important in the future

OPPORTUNITIES EMERGING: Social Change in a Complex World Bruce Meder,2017-04-10 The world is chaotic and complex and becoming more so How do you work for social justice or community development in such an environment Bruce Meder asks the reader to embrace chaos and complexity and to work with emergence He also suggests you have a cup of coffee

The Handbook of Organizing Economic, Ecological and Societal Transformation Elke Weik,Chris Land,Ronald Hartz,2024-08-19 This handbook gathers contributors from different disciplines of the social sciences such as organization and management studies sociology anthropology and political science to constructively discuss the kinds of transformations we need to see in coming years These transformations concern the way we work produce and consume but also the way in which we think about work production and consumption In an explicit rejection of the demand that the social sciences provide quick fixes the contributors of this handbook discuss possible solutions in a critical and comprehensive manner and with an eye to both their environmental and societal implications The handbook is divided into four parts Opening up futures Techno economic transformations at work Sustainable environmental transformation and Radical democratic futures The handbook is of interest to all critical academics interested in constructive suggestions regarding necessary societal transformations

Bioregionalism and Civil Society Mike Carr,2004 Bioregionalism and Civil Society addresses the urgent need for sustainability in industrialized societies The book explores the bioregional movement in the US Canada and Mexico examining its vision values strategies and tools for building sustainable societies Bioregionalism is a philosophy with values and practices that attempt to meld issues of social and economic justice and sustainability with cultural ecological and spiritual concerns Further bioregional efforts of democratic social and cultural change take place primarily in the sphere of civil society Practically Carr argues for bioregionalism as a place specific community movement that can stand in diverse opposition to the homogenizing trends of corporate globalization Theoretically the author seeks lessons for civil society based social theory and strategy Conventional civil society theory from Europe proposes a dual strategy of developing strong horizontal communicative action among civic associations and networks as the basis for strategic vertical campaigns to democratize both state and market sectors However this theory offers no ecological or cultural critique of consumerism By contrast Carr integrates both social and natural ecologies in a civil society theory that incorporates lessons about consumption and cultural transformation from bioregional practice Carr's argument that bioregional values and community building tools support a diverse democratic socially just civil society that respects and cares for the natural world makes a significant contribution to the field of green political science social change theory and environmental thought Feminist Evaluation and Research Sharon Brisolara, Denise Seigart, Saumitra SenGupta, 2014-03-31 This thought provoking book explores the whats whys and hows of integrating feminist theory and methods into applied research and evaluation practice Illustrative cases drawn from U S and international studies address a range of social and health issues The book provides an overview of feminist theory and research strategies as well as detailed discussions of how to use a feminist lens practical steps and challenges in implementation and what feminist methods contribute to research and evaluation projects Reflections at the close of each section invite the reader to consider key questions and common themes across the chapters With a focus on social justice models the book covers ways to conduct feminist research and evaluation in effective innovative and culturally competent ways in diverse social and cultural contexts Facilitating Group Learning George Lakey, 2010-09-03 Praise for Facilitating Group Learning In this engaging and accessible book George Lakey draws on a lifetime's experience to provide a highly practical resource to anyone seeking to understand and respond to the complexities of group work The book will be invaluable to anyone trying to effect social change through groups while striving to stay simultaneously sane and employed Stephen D Brookfield Distinguished University Professor University of St Thomas I've been working with forms of direct education for many decades and I found new ideas and inspirations in every chapter For anyone involved in teaching training sharing skills or leading groups this book is an invaluable resource Starhawk author The Earth Path Dreaming the Dark and Webs of Power George Lakey has inspired our union to engage in education in a way that challenges us to redefine social justice and equality in new and exciting ways This book helps us to continue our journey to touch the souls of union members Denis Lemelin national president Canadian Union of Postal Workers Facilitating Group Learning will ease the way of all who venture into the white waters of facilitation George clarifies the most basic complex and nagging challenges of facilitation while honoring the realities of individual and social power dynamics and providing real life examples from the path of continued growth and mastery A rare gift Niyonu D Spann founding president TRV Consulting and Beyond Diversity 101 This book is a must read for people who teach adults of any age no matter what the subject and care about doing it in ways that yield deep and abiding learning Wonderfully well written and rich with psychological and spiritual insights as well as practical strategies it represents the fruits of a lifetime of transformational teaching and learning by one of the foremost adult educators of our time Parker J Palmer author The Courage to Teach Let Your Life Speak and The Heart of Higher Education A Theory of Nonviolent Action Stellan Vinthagen, 2015-11-15 In this ground breaking and much needed book Stellan Vinthagen provides the first major systematic attempt to develop a theory of nonviolent action since Gene Sharp's seminal The Politics of Nonviolent Action in 1973 Employing a rich collection of historical and contemporary social movements from various parts of the world as examples from the civil rights movement in America to anti Apartheid protestors in South Africa to Gandhi and his followers in India and addressing core theoretical issues concerning nonviolent action in an innovative penetrating way Vinthagen argues for a repertoire of nonviolence that combines resistance and construction Contrary to earlier research this repertoire consisting of dialogue facilitation normative regulation power breaking and utopian enactment is shown to be both multidimensional and contradictory creating difficult contradictions within nonviolence while simultaneously providing its creative and transformative force An important contribution in the field A Theory of Nonviolent Action is essential for anyone involved with nonviolent action who wants to think about what they are doing To Make a Difference, 1984 Full Spectrum Resistance, Volume One Aric McBay, 2019-05-28 A guide to direct action for those disillusioned with the posturing of liberal activism The radical left is losing but it doesn't have to be that way Here is the radical's guide to activist work the manual we need at this crucial moment to organize for universal human rights a habitable earth and a more egalitarian society Thoroughly exploring the achievements and failures of radical movements throughout history from 19th century anti colonial rebellions in China and the environmental actions of First Nations and Native American tribes throughout the 20th century to Black Lives Matter and the fight for Gay Liberation the two volumes of Full Spectrum Resistance candidly advocate for direct action not just risk averse models of protest marches and call ins With in depth histories and case studies of social justice and environmental movements noted writer activist and farmer Aric McBay explains why passive resistance alone cannot work and how we must be prepared to do whatever it takes to create substantial social change In Volume 1 Building Movements and Fighting to Win McBay describes the need for resistance movements and paints a portrait of what a thriving resistance movement might look like today Citing successful movements such as the Deacons of Defense of the American Civil Rights Movement the anti colonial revolutions in Guinea and Cape Verde and activist groups like Act UP McBay deftly illustrates how to organize activist groups and encourage enlistment while also noting the necessary precautions one must take to secure these radical circles from infiltration and collapse

Conflict Regulation Paul Wehr, 2019-03-01 This volume examines conflict and conflict regulation processes The author reviews theories of conflict and techniques of conflict management and then presents case studies of self limiting conflict in Gandhi s India Nazioccupied Norway and at a nuclear weapons plant in Colorado to illustrate unconventional approaches to conflict regulation He
