SA and GMG HEVECAM These investments come from Sinochem one of the largest Chinese state owned multinationals and involve the rehabilitation of existing rubber estates as well as expansion into new areas Since the initial investment from China exports of rubber from Cameroon to China increased from almost none to nearly half of total rubber exports in 2011 We conducted research into the nature and extent of China's investment in the Cameroonian rubber sector and assessed initial findings through the lens of socially responsible investments SRI Overall the picture shows that the two investments are subject to a number of governance challenges particularly in relation to land allocations

Annuaire Européen 1989 - European Yearbook 1989 Council of Europe/Conseil de L'Europe, 1991-06-14 The European Yearbook has expanded over the years in keeping with the role played by European institutions compared with national ones It is an indispensable work of reference for anyone dealing with these institutions which have become so numerous and varied that no one can possibly memorise all their acronyms or functions The European Yearbook provides aids for finding one's way through the labyrinth of these organisations which coordinate a variety of activities in over 20 countries One of the aids is an organisation chart at the beginning of the documentary section giving a clear picture of the general situation A perusal of the many contributions in the volume organisation by organisation shows the full diversity of the activities which Europe is gradually taking over from national governments with their consent and financial support Written in both of the Council of Europe's official languages English and French the European Yearbook also contains a general index by subject and name which constitutes a very valuable list of articles and provides direct access to the work's subject matter regardless of the particular organisation concerned offering a kind of cross section of the activities of European organisations

Les responsabilités sociétales des entreprises en Afrique francophone , Digital Resources, Creativity and Innovative Methodologies in Language Teaching and Learning Adriana Teresa Damascelli, 2017-06-20 The concept of university language centres has changed in recent decades Initially conceived as laboratories for practical and autonomous language learning they are now considered as places with more specific and complex functions in language teaching and learning University language centres now constitute networks for exchanging knowledge and know how in order to respond to ever changing multilingual and multicultural contexts At the same time the availability and acquisition of new technologies is contributing to the creation of new tools for the provision of appropriate services and training This collection covers a wide range of topics related to the activities experiences and applied research carried out in Italian university language centres It provides further evidence of the important role university language centres play in promoting language expertise developing tools and adopting digital resources and providing support and training for language teaching Technology creativity methodologies and plurilingualism are key topics in the book as they constitute the essential ingredients for effective and successful language teaching and learning The volume's thirty three chapters provide multi perspective approaches showing how the real contexts of current language education need the integration of theoretical backgrounds with the best practices resulting from practical experience

Criminal Proceedings, Languages and the European Union Francesca

Ruggieri, 2013-08-28 The book Criminal proceedings languages and the European Union linguistic and legal issues the first attempt on this subject deals with the current situation in the jurislinguistic studies which cover comparative law language and translation towards the aim of the circulation of equivalent legal concepts in systems which are still very different from one another In the absence of common cultures and languages in criminal procedure it is possible to distinguish features that are typical of common law systems and features that are typical of civil law systems according to the two different models of adversarial and inquisitorial trials Therefore the most problematic challenges are for the European Union legislator to define generic measures that can be easily implemented at the national level and for the individual Member States to choose corresponding domestic measures that can best implement these broad definitions so as to pursue objectives set at the European level In this scenario the book assesses the new framework within which criminal lawyers and practitioners need to operate under the Lisbon Treaty Part I and focuses on the different versions of its provisions concerning cooperation in criminal matters which will need to be implemented at the national level Part III The book analyses the issues raised by multilingualism in the EU decision making process and subsequent interpretation of legal acts from the viewpoint of all the players involved EU officials civil penal and linguistic lawyers Part II explores the possible impact of the EU legal acts concerning environmental protection where the study of ascending and descending circulation of polysemantic words is especially relevant Part IV and investigates the new legal and linguistic concepts in the field of data retention protection of victims European investigation orders and coercive measures Part V
