Deconstruction/Deconstructive Reading George Douglas Atkins, 2021-05-11 Deconstruction a mode of close reading associated with the contemporary philosopher Jacques Derrida and other members of the Yale School is the current critical rage and is likely to remain so for some time Reading Deconstruction Deconstructive Reading offers a unique informed and badly needed introduction to this important movement written by one of its most sensitive and lucid practitioners More than an introduction this book makes a significant addition to the current debate in critical theory G Douglas Atkins first analyzes and explains deconstruction theory and practice Focusing on such major critics and theorists as Derrida J Hillis Miller and Geoffrey Hartman he brings to the fore issues previously scanted in accounts of deconstruction especially its religious implications Then through close readings of such texts as Religio Laici A Tale of a Tub and An Epistle to Dr Arbuthnot he proceeds to demonstrate and exemplify a mode of deconstruction indebted to both Derrida and Paul de Man This skillfully organized book designed to reflect the both and nature of deconstruction thus makes its own contribution to deconstructive practice The important readings provided of Dryden Swift and Pope are among the first to treat major Augustan texts from a deconstructive point of view and make the book a valuable addition to the study of that period Well versed in deconstruction the variety of texts he treats and major issues of current concern in literary study Atkins offers in this book a balanced and judicious defense of deconstruction that avoids being polemical dogmatic or narrowly ideological Whereas much previous work on and in deconstruction has been notable for its thick prose jargon and general obfuscation this book will be appreciated for its clarity and grace as well as for its command of an impressively wide range of texts and issues Without taming it as an instrument of analysis and potential change Atkins makes deconstruction comprehensible to the general reader His efforts will interest all those concerned with literary theory and criticism Augustan literature and the relation of literature and religion Reframing Corporate Social Responsibility William Sun, Jim Stewart, David Pollard, 2010-12-13 This collection brings together leading scholarly thinking to understand why CSR failed to prevent the global financial crisis how corporate social irresponsibility CSI contributed to the financial crisis and how we may reframe CSR or improve CSR frameworks to help prevent or mitigate any future financial and economic crises Developing and Assessing Personal and Social Responsibility in College Robert D. Reason, 2013-12-05 In 2007 wanting to expand higher education's civic engagement conversation the Association of American Colleges and Universities launched the Core Commitments Initiative That initiative focused attention on personal and social responsibility as outcomes of a college education with the understanding that such a focus would return American higher education to its historical purpose of preparing active and engaged citizens Expanding the conversation this way leaves room for behavioral measures like voting or hours spent in community service but also opens our understanding of citizenship to include issues of civic identity civic attitudes personal integrity and ethics This volume explores the research and practice related to the development of personal and social responsibility in college drawing data directly from institutions that were part of the Core Commitments Initiative and providing instructive examples of good practice at both the programmatic and institutional levels This volume is the 164th volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Higher Education Addressed to presidents vice presidents deans and other higher education decision makers on all kinds of campuses it provides timely information and authoritative advice about major issues and administrative problems confronting every institution Bulletin of the New England Modern Language Association ,1916 The College Writer's Reader William Vesterman,1989
